The Popular Summer Drink.

This Root Beer is a delicious summer beverage, possessing medicinal properties for purifying the blood and renovating the system. It is cooling and refreshing, and more fully quenches thirst than any other article ever offered to the public. It is strictly temperate in its character; yet its origin from the

FOUNTAIN OF HEALTH,

It is sparkling and refreshing.

The introduction of Davenport's Ottawa Beer is a desirable investment for DRUGGISTS, CONFECTIONERS and others, as the profits are large and satisfactory.

For a Healthful, Pleasant and Temperate Beverage, it is a eminent success, and it only requires a fair trial to be so appreciated.

The proprietor furnishes the Extract with full instructions for manufacturing the BEER; also FOUNTAINS and all necessary Apparatus at various prices for its sale on draught.

Mower & Reaper KNIVES.

MANUFACTURED EXCLUSIVELY BY US, UNDER REYNOLDS' PATENTS for Tempering Steel without the aid of any liquids, received the only award at the Great National Implement Trial, held at Auburn, in 1866. They possess the following superior qualities:

1. They are made with a fine Cutlery Temper at the edges.
2. They hold only a Spring Temper at the center and at the beel.
3. They are warranted perfectly uniform, every knife being exactly alike in temper.
4. We warrant they can be ground from 8 to 10 times without losing their cutting edge.
5. Finally, we will warrant them to cut from 40 to 50 acres of grain or grass without being once ground.

We are the sole Manufacturers of these Knives in the United States.

INTRODUCTION.

In presenting to the public the initial number of the "Gazetteer and Directory of Saratoga County," with which we have incorporated a Gazetteer and Directory of the town of Queensbury, Warren Co., the publisher desires to return his sincere thanks to all who have so kindly assisted in obtaining the valuable information which it contains, and without whose aid it would have been impossible to collect it in the brief space of time in which it is essential that all such works should be completed. Especially are our thanks due to the several editors of the Sentinel, Waterford; the Journal and Democrat, Ballston; the Saratogian and Sun, Saratoga Springs, and the Republican and Messenger, Glens Falls; for the uniform kindness which has been evinced in calling public attention to the author's efforts; and to the following persons viz., Rev. Bernice D. Ames, Principal of Mechanicville Academy, Mechanicville; Oscar F. Stiles, Wilton, and Seth Whalen, Ballston, School Commissioners; James W. Horton, Ballston, County Clerk; and J. L. Briggs, Asst. Assessor Internal Revenue, Saratoga Springs; for essential aid in furnishing material for the work. Many others have kindly volunteered their aid, to all of whom we return our sincere thanks.

The following works have been consulted in its preparation: French's "Gazetteer of the State of New York;" Lossing's "Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution;" "Hand Book of Saratoga," by R. L. Allen, M. D.; "Census Reports;" "Proceedings of Board of Supervisors;" "Reports of School Commissioners of the County;" and many other works.

That errors may have occurred in so great a number of names and dates as are here given, is probable, and that names have been omitted that should have been inserted is quite certain. We can only say that we have exercised more than ordinary diligence and care in this difficult and complicated feature of book-making. Of such as feel aggrieved in consequence of error or omission, we beg pardon, and ask the indulgence of the reader in marking such as had been observed in the subsequent reading of the proofs, and which are noted in the Errata, following the Introduction.

It is also suggested that our patrons observe and become familiar with the explanations at the commencement of the Directory.

Efforts were made to procure the new census statistics for Saratoga County, but it was found impossible to secure them without delaying the publication of the work.

The Map of the County, with which we have incorporated the town of Queensbury, Warren Co., was engraved with great care by "Weed, Parsons & Co." of Albany, and, it is believed, will prove a valuable acquisition to the work.

The Advertisers represent some of the leading business men and firms of this and adjoining counties, also many enterprising and reliable dealers in other parts of the State. We most cheerfully commend them all to the patronage of those under whose observation these pages may come.

With thanks to friends generally, we leave our work to secure the favor which earnest endeavor ever wins from a discriminating business public.

ERRATA.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS.

Stamp Duties.—The last Congress passed an act, "That on and after the first day of October, 1870, the stamp tax imposed in Schedule B, on promissory notes for a less sum than one hundred dollars, and on receipts for any sum of money, or for the payment of any debt, and the stamp tax imposed in Schedule C, on canned and preserved fish, be, and the same are hereby repealed. And no stamp shall be required upon the transfer or assignment of a mortgage, where it or the instrument it secures has been once duly stamped."

Postal Rates and Regulations.—The postal arrangements ordinarily regulating the transmission of the mails between this country and France and Germany, have necessarily been rendered inoperative by the Franco-Prussian War, now in progress. Until the cessation of hostilities between those countries, when it is presumed the usual postal regulations will be resumed, the mail service to and from France and Germany will of necessity be irregular.

GAZETTEER.

County.—THE SARATOGA SUN was started in September 1870, by A. S. Pease.

Half Moon.—The Second Baptist Church of Half Moon was organized with 61 members, in 1841, by Rev. Isaac Wescott, D. D., in the grove surrounding the school-house. It has had seven settled pastors since its organization. Rev. F. S. Parke was the first pastor and is also the present pastor. Their house of worship was erected in 1842 and is valued at $2,000. It will seat 200. The present membership is 65.

Milton.—The population of Ballston Spa is about 4,500.

Milton Center is a post office.

The M. E. Church at Ballston Spa was organized in 1836, with about 20 members, by E. Jones, S. Hicks, C. Caulkins, C. Patchen and others. Revs. Elisha Andrews and Wm. H. Backus were the first pastors. The first house of worship was erected in 1836 and dedicated by Noah Levings. The present one was erected in 1846 and is valued at $12,000. It will seat 500. It has been enlarged and otherwise improved since its erection, at a cost of about $6,000. The present number of members is 300. The present pastor is Rev. R. H. Robinson.

The First Baptist Church at Ballston Spa was organized in 1791 with a membership of less than 20. Rev. Elias Lee was the first pastor. The first house of worship was erected in 1801. The present one was erected in 1834 and is valued at $10,000. It will seat about 450. The present membership numbers 311, and the present pastor is Rev. Geo. W. Clark. The Sunday School numbers 212 officers, teachers and scholars.

Northumberland.—John Terhune, Gamaliel McCready and Martin Pope came into this town in 1784, and made the first settlement. Isaac Vanderwerker came in the next year. About five years after, settlements became general through the town. Wolves and bears were very troublesome to the early settlers.

The Reformed Church of Bacon Hill was organized November 7th, 1820, with 46 members, by the Classis of Washington. Rev. Philip Duryee was the first pastor. Their house of worship was erected in 1820 at a cost of about $2,400; the present estimate value is $5,000. It will seat about 250. The present membership is 96 and the present pastor Rev. Chas. D. Kellogg.

Saratoga Springs.—Bethesda Episcopal Church, of Saratoga Springs, was organized October 4th, 1830, by Rev. Edward Davis, the first rector. Henry Walton and Wallace Crawford were the first wardens, and John H. Steel, John Clarke, David D. Benedict, Esek Cowen, Rockwell Putnam, Joel Clements, Jonathan Williams and Daniel Wait the first vestrymen. The first house of worship was erected about 1830; the present one was commenced in 1847, but is not yet completed. It will seat about 600. The lot and building is valued at $30,000. The Church also own a rectory on Clinton Street, valued at $10,000. The present number of members is 400. The present pastor is Rev. N. W. Camp, D. D.

Henry Curtis, one of the oldest inhabitants of this town, died on Sunday, December 4th, 1870, at the advanced age of one hundred and two years and four months. He was more than seventy-five years the owner and occupant of the same farm where he resided at his death. He was born in Chatham, Columbia County, August 7th, 1768, and came to reside in Saratoga in or about the year 1788, and selected the land which he afterwards purchased and made his home. He has resided here ever since, and reared a large family, many of whom, with their descendants, reside in this vicinity. On the completion of his one hundredth year, he celebrated his birthday at his residence, and nearly all the members of his family and their families met on that occasion at the "old home." There were ninety-four in all at that time, August 7th, 1868.

Gilbert Waring, from Bedford, Westchester County, moved on to the farm now occupied by his grandson, Warren H. Waring, about two miles west of Saratoga Springs, in 1791. He died October 9th, 1850, aged nearly 81 years. The farm has always remained in the hands of the Waring family.

Waterford.—Saratoga Co. National Bank was chartered in 1829 with a capital of $100,000. John Knickerbocker was the first president and J. H. Douglass the first cashier. Mr. Knickerbocker remained president until he died, in 1862. He was succeeded by John Cramer, who held the office until his death, in June 1870. The office is in the same building in which it was first located.

Union Bridge Co. was chartered in 1803, to extend 75 years.

Wilton.—Emerson's Corners, about a mile south-east from Doe's Corners, contains an M. E. church and five houses.

Doe's Corners, (Wilton p. o.) in the north part of the town, contains a hotel, two stores, a blacksmith shop, a wagon shop and about a dozen houses.

The Methodist Church at Brill's School House, was organized in 1835, with 18 members, by Rev. Peter D. Esmond, the first pastor. Their house of worship was erected the same year and is valued at $1,000. It will seat 250. In 1866 repairs were made to the house, and sheds built, at a cost of $600. The present number of members is 53, and the present pastor Rev. A. Sornborger.

Emerson's Corners M. E. Church. Of the history of this Church previous to 1837 nothing definite can be given. A house of worship was erected about the year 1803, which was occupied by the Presbyterians, Baptists, Universalists and Methodists, each having about an equal number of adherents. Since that time it has been occupied exclusively by the Methodists. Revs. Seymour Coleman and Wm. H. Backus were appointed to the charge (which at this time belonged to the Saratoga Springs Circuit,) in 1837. The present number of members is 100. Rev. R. G. Adams is the present pastor. The Church edifice is valued at about $3,000 and will seat 300.

South Wilton M. E. Church was organized in 1853. Revs. M. Hews and Hiram Harris were the first pastors. Their house of worship was erected in 1854. It is valued at $2,000 and will seat 250. The present number of members is about 100, and the present pastor Rev. R. G. Adams.

Rowland Perry, from Dutchess Co., was the first settler in this town. He located in the north-west part of the town, near the Palmertown Mountains, about 1763.

Queensbury, Warren Co.—Queensbury, (p. v.) in the east part of the town, is a small village.

French Mountain, (p. o.) in the north part, between Glens Falls and Caldwell, is a hamlet.

The Troy Agricultural Warehouse and Seed Store, advertised on page 272, was started in the spring of 1842, by Mr. Henry Warren. It was the first exclusively agricultural store established in this County. It was at first opened in a small building above the bridge. The business gradually increased until 1857, when Mr. George. M. Taylor became a partner, since which the firm has been Warren & Taylor. To meet the demands of their increasing business, they erected in 1869 a large building at the foot of Grand Division Street. It is about 62 feet square, four stories high in front, and five in the rear. This firm are among the largest dealers in grindstones in this county, and keep constantly on hand a large assortment for manufacturers, mechanics and farmers. Their stock of Seeds of all kinds, for the farm and garden, is unsurpassed in variety and quality, and farmers and gardeners may rely upon finding these seeds just what they are represented to be. All desirable agricultural implements are kept on hand and sold at reasonable rates. The reputation of this firm for fair dealing, and its perfect reliability, furnish the secret of their success. We commend them to the patronage of all our readers. Remember the place, foot of Grand Division Street, Troy, N. Y.

C. S. Sill, dealer in Cloaks, Shawls, &c., 10 and 12 second story, Broadway, Troy, advertises on page 269. There has probably never been a time since our mother Eve made a garment of fig leaves, that the ladies have paid so much attention to dress as at the present time. Say what we may about the folly and extravagant display, no one can help admiring the taste displayed in the beautiful dresses of the present day. It is vain to attempt to describe the endless variety of trimming, draping and looping of the dresses seen in the streets every day, and to estimate the cost would require a skillful mathematician. But the great question with the ladies is, "where can I procure the most stylish suit?" The answer is found by calling at Sill's, second story of 10 and 12 Broadway, where they will find some of the richest and most fashionable goods in the city. The display of Shawls is such as to satisfy the most fastidious. To all our patrons we say call at Sill's before purchasing, and see if we have misrepresented the case.

J. Miller, Merchant Tailor, 68 Broadway, opposite Congress Park, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., publishes a well displayed advertisement on colored page 138. If you want a nicely fitting suit, durably and elegantly made, give him a call. If you want a good substantial business suit, call at Miller's and have one made to order, and thereby consult your own interest as well as his. If you want anything in the line of Gents' Furnishing Goods, Miller's is the place to get it. He will also repair and clean up old clothes so that they will look almost as good as new. Those who favor him with their patronage will not be disappointed.

H. L. Todd, agent for the Florence Sewing Machine, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., advertises on colored page 239. This Machine makes a variety of stitches and can be used for a great variety of work to better advantage than most other machines. Judging from the commendations it receives from the ladies, we should say it is one of the best Sewing Machines made. We advise our readers to call on the agent, who will be pleased to give them all needed information and sell them a Machine besides. Mr. Todd also keeps an assortment of all the different kinds of Sewing Machines in Market.

Trusses.—Professor Rainbow, 653 Broadway, New York, has invented a Truss, which bids fair to supersede all others in use. It operates entirely by muscular action, having no metallic spring or band. It contracts and relaxes instantly without any perceptible movement of the body. It has been proved effectual where the Metallic Spring and Hard Rubber Truss had failed, and judging from the testimony of many respectable citizens of New York, who have tried it, we infer that all other kinds will soon be thrown aside. The Professor imparts much valuable information to those who call on him, and he appears to understand thoroughly the subject upon which he treats. We advise all who are wearing the old style of Truss to send a stamped envelope with their address for a circular. His card appears on page 190.

Mrs. Emma Burleigh, M. D., No. 62 Howard Street, Albany, N. Y., advertises on page 295. It seems eminently proper that ladies suffering from diseases peculiar to their own sex, should receive medical treatment from their own sex, and we are glad to learn that ladies of the best minds in our land, are giving attention to the study and practice of medicine. There is a wide field open before them and the pioneers are deserving of special credit for their perseverance against obstacles which few men would overcome. We commend all our readers who are afflicted with any of the diseases peculiar to females, to consult Mrs. B. either by letter or in person.

Richard H. Reille, solicitor of Patents, Designer and Draughtsman, publishes a card on page 222. Mr. R. thoroughly understands his business, and will prepare drawings and specifications and attend promptly to all business intrusted to his care. We commend him to the patronage of those who have work in his line. Patrons will find him at Room No. 2, Junction of River and Fourth Streets, Troy, N. Y.

Geo. Schmidt, proprietor of the "Hotel Germania," at Saratoga Springs, will give good board for such time as may be wanted, at reasonable rates. Card on page 176.

Dr. Weed, Botanic Physician, No. 78 Ferry Street, Schenectady, N. Y., advertises on page 230. He is prepared to treat Chronic and other diseases in a scientific manner. Let the afflicted call on him.

Washington Hotel, A. J. Starr, proprietor, is located on Broadway, Saratoga Springs. This old and popular house, is open all the year, and "mine host" is a "Star" of the first magnitude, who will endeavor to make the visits of his guests agreeable. Card on page 174.

Davenport's Ottawa Beer.—This popular summer drink is advertised on colored page 2. As a cooling, refreshing drink in warm weather, we have no hesitation in saying it is not surpassed by any other beverage we have tasted. It is perfectly temperate in its character and possesses medicinal qualities for purifying the blood and renovating the system. Druggists, Confectioners and others will find it a good investment, as wherever it is introduced it at once attains popularity, and the profits, we are assured, are quite satisfactory. S. Davenport, the proprietor, 77 South Pearl St., Albany, furnishes the extract, with full instructions for its manufacture, as well as all the necessary apparatus for its sale on draught.

James H. Quick, whose name represents the speed of his horses, keeps a first class Livery and Boarding Stable, at Saratoga Springs. For elegant Turnouts he can compete with anybody, and his prices are moderate. He advertises on page 168.

Webster's Deflecting and Center-Draft Hot-Air Furnace appears to answer all the conditions for heating Dwellings, Halls, Churches &c., better than any other now in use. It is easily managed, free from dust and gas, and requires a less amount of fuel than other furnaces to produce the same amount of heat. No water evaporator is used and the fresh air is introduced and conveyed to the apartments to be heated, without being deprived of its vitality. Judging from the recommendations of those who have used this furnace, it is worthy of the attention of all who contemplate purchasing a heating apparatus for public or private buildings. It is manufactured and sold by M. L. Filley, No. 287 River Street, Troy, N. Y. See advertisement on page 242.

J. B. Hodgman, of Saratoga Springs, will iron and repair your Carriages or Sleighs in a neat and substantial manner. He also manufactures all kinds of Bolts, and heavy Iron Work for Building purposes. See card, page 162.

J. M. Crapsier, a manufacturer of the Patent Folding Spring Bed Lounge, Nos. 417, 419 and 421 Broadway, Albany, N. Y., advertises on page 306. This is one of the most convenient, comfortable and economical articles of furniture ever invented. It is a nice Lounge during the day and is readily converted into a comfortable Spring Bed at night. We think no one who examines it will fail to be favorably impressed. Mr. Crapsier keeps also a great variety of other styles of Lounges and Mattresses of all kinds.

Adams, Putnam & Becco, No. 3 Beaver Block, South Pearl Street, Albany, N. Y., offer superior inducements to country dealers who wish to replenish their stock of Hats, Caps, Furs, &c. If you want good goods, substantially and fashionably made, you can purchase them here at Wholesale or Retail on as favorable terms as at any other house in the City. A word to the wise is sufficient. Call and see their splendid Stock of all goods in their line. See advertisement on page 248.

J. V. B. Carter, Pattern Maker and Designer, No. 18 Liberty Street, Albany, N. Y., is prepared to make Patterns and Models of all kinds at short notice. Scroll Sawing, Carving and Ornamental work of all kinds is done at this shop in a manner equal to the best and as cheap as the times will allow. See card on page 206.

G. H. Doty, dealer in Stoves, Ranges, &c., No 78 State Street, Schenectady, N. Y., publishes a card on page 176. Mr. Doty keeps a good stock on hand and is prepared to do everything in the line of Tin, Copper and Sheet Iron work, in the best manner. His materials and workmen are first class. Give him a call.

Robert Humphrey, Harness and Collar Maker, corner of Union and Erie Streets, West Troy, N. Y., publishes a card on page 212. Mr. H. is the inventor and patentee of the celebrated Elastic Rubber Spring Collar, which is meeting with so much favor where it is known. He keeps a good stock of goods and manufactures to order at short notice.

Volney Smith & Son, Dentists, Myers House, Schenectady, N. Y., publish a card on page 208. Those who are so unfortunate as to lose their teeth, will find Messrs. Smith competent to supply them artificial ones of the best construction. They are prepared to perform all work in the surgical and mechanical department of their business in the best manner.

Geo. D. Phibbs, manufacturer of Wood Work, Carriage Bodies, Sleighs, Cutters, &c., prints a card on page 158. When you visit Saratoga Springs, call and see him, if you want good work for little money.

Dexter keeps Livery Stable at Saratoga Springs. How much that name reminds one of even better than a 2-30 gait; at all events we would advise such as want a good horse or team, for pleasure or business, to try "Dexter." His card is on page 174.

Peek House, Ballston Spa, N. Y., J. E. Marsden, prop., offers superior accommodations for business men or pleasure parties, and no pains are spared to secure the comfort of guests who put up there. Try the Peek House when you visit Ballston Spa. See card on page 190.

THE STATES,

THEIR SETTLEMENT, ADMITTANCE TO THE UNION, POPULATION, SUFFRAGE LAWS, ETC.

ALABAMA was settled near Mobile, in 1702, by the French; was formed into a Territory by act of Congress, approved March 3, 1817, from the eastern portion of the Territory of Mississippi; framed a Constitution August 2, 1819, and was admitted into the Union December 14 of the same year. Area 50,722 square miles, or 32,462,080 acres.— Population in 1860, 964,201, of whom 435,080 were slaves. It is the chief cotton growing State of the Union. White male citizens who have resided one year in the State and three months in the county, are entitled to vote. An election for a Convention was held December 24, 1860, and a majority of over 50,000 votes cast for secession; the Convention met January 7, 1861, and on the 11th passed the ordinance of secession, by a vote of 61 to 39, which was followed on the 21st by the resignation of its members of Congress.

ARKANSAS was settled at Arkansas Post in 1685, by the French, and was part of the Louisiana purchase ceded by France to the United States, April 30, 1803. It was formed into a Territory by act of Congress, March 2, 1819, from the southern part of the Territory of Missouri; its western boundary was settled May 26, 1824, and its southern, May 19, 1828. Having adopted a Constitution, a memorial was presented in Congress, March 1, 1836, and an act for its admission into the Union passed June 15 of the same year. Area 52,198 square miles, or 33,406,720 acres. In 1860 its population was 435,450, of whom 111,115 were slaves. It is an agricultural State, its staples being corn and cotton.— Citizenship and residence in the State for six months, qualify voters in the county and district where they reside. January 16, 1861, its Legislature ordered a State Convention, which assembled, and on May 6, voted to secede, 69 to 1. January 4, 1864, a Convention assembled in Little Rock, which adopted a new Constitution, the principle feature of which consisted in a clause abolishing slavery. The Convention adjourned January 22. This body also inaugurated a Provisional Government. The Constitution was submitted to the people, and 12,177 votes cast for it, to 226 against it. The State was re-organized under the plan contained in the Amnesty Proclamation of President LINCOLN, in pursuance of which an election was held March 14, 1864. The vote required under the Proclamation was 5,405. About 16,000 votes were cast.

CALIFORNIA was settled at Diego in 1768, by Spaniards, and was part of the territory ceded to the United States by Mexico, by the treaty concluded at Guadalupe Hidalgo, February 22, 1848. After several ineffectual attempts to organize it as a Territory or admit it as a State, a law was passed by Congress for the latter purpose, which was approved September 9, 1850. Area 188,981 square miles, or 120,947,784 acres. Population in 1860, 305,439. It is the most productive gold mining region on the continent, and also abounds in many other minerals.— White male citizens of the United States, and those of Mexico who may choose to comply with the provisions of the treaty of Queretaro, of May 30, 1848, who have resided in the State six months and in the county or district thirty days, are entitled to vote.

CONNECTICUT was settled at Windsor, in 1633, by English Puritans from Massachusetts, and continued under the jurisdiction of that Province until April 23, 1662, when a separate charter was granted, which continued in force until a Constitution was formed, September 15, 1818. It was one of the original thirteen States, and ratified the United States Constitution, January 9, 1788. Area 4,674 square miles, or 2,991,360 acres. Population in 1860, 460,147. It is one of the most densely populated and principal manufacturing States in the Union. Residence for six months, or military duty for a year, or payment of State tax, or a freehold of the yearly value of seven dollars, gives the right to vote.

DELAWARE was settled at Wilmington, early in 1638, by Swedes and Finns; was granted to William Penn, in 1682, and continued under the government of Pennsylvania until the adoption of a Constitution, September 20, 1776; a new one was formed June 12, 1792. It was one of the original thirteen States, and ratified the United States Constitution, December 7, 1787. Area 2,120 square miles, or 1,356,800 acres.— Population, in 1860, 112,216, of whom 1,798 were slaves. It is a grain and fruit growing State, with some extensive manufactories. Residence in the State one year, and ten days in the election district, with payment of a State or county tax assessed ten days prior to an election, gives the right to vote, except that citizens between twenty-one and twenty-two years of age need not have paid the tax.

FLORIDA was settled at St. Augustine, in 1565, by Spaniards; was formed from part of the territory ceded by Spain to the United States by treaty of February 22, 1819; an act to authorize the President to establish a temporary government was passed March 3, 1819; articles of surrender of East Florida were framed July 10, and of West Florida, July 17, 1821, and it was then taken possession of by General Jackson as Governor. An act for the establishment of a Territorial Government was passed March 30, 1822, and by act of March 3, 1823, East and West Florida were constituted one Territory. Acts to establish its boundary line between Georgia and Alabama were passed May 4, 1826, and March 2, 1831. After several ineffectual attempts to organize it into two Territories, or into a State and Territory, an act for its admission into the Union was passed March 3, 1845. Area 59,268 square miles, or 37,930,520 acres. Population, in 1860, 140,425, of whom 61,745 were slaves. It is an agricultural State, tropical in its climate and products. Every free white male citizen, who has resided in the State two years and in the county six months, and has been enrolled in the militia (unless exempt by law,) is qualified to vote; but no soldier, seaman or marine can vote unless qualified before enlistment. Its Legislature called a Convention, December 1, 1860, which met January 3, 1861, and passed a secession ordinance on the 10th by a vote of 62 to 7.

GEORGIA was settled at Savannah, in 1733, by the English under General Oglethorpe. It was chartered June 9, 1732; formed a Constitution February 5, 1777; a second in 1785 and a third May 30, 1798.—It was one of the original thirteen States, and ratified the United States Constitution January 2, 1788. Area 58,000 square miles, or 37,120,000 acres. Population, in 1860, 1,057,286, of whom 462,198 were slaves. It is a large cotton and rice growing State. Citizens of the State, six months resident of the county where voting, who have paid taxes the year preceding the election, are entitled to vote. November 18, 1860, its Legislature ordered an election for a State Convention, which assembled and passed a secession ordinance January 19, 1861, by a vote of 208 to 89, and on the 23d of the same month its members of Congress resigned.

ILLINOIS was settled at Kaskaskia, in 1683, by the French, and formed part of the northwestern territory ceded by Virginia to the United States. An act for dividing the Indiana Territory and organizing the Territory of Illinois, was passed by Congress, February 3, 1809; and an act to enable it to form a State Constitution, Government, &c., was passed April 18, 1818; a Constitution was framed August 26, and it was admitted into the Union December 23 of the same year. Area 54,405 square miles, or 64,819,200 acres. Population, in 1860, 1,711,951. It is the chief "prairie" State, and the largest grain growing and second largest cattle raising State in the Union. All white male inhabitants, who have resided in the State one year and election district sixty days, can vote in the district where actually residing.

INDIANA was settled at Vincennes, in 1690, by the French, and formed part of the northwestern territory ceded by Virginia to the United States. It was organized into a Territory May 7, 1800, from which the Territory of Michigan was set off in 1805, and Illinois in 1809. An act was passed to empower it to form a State Constitution, Government, &c., April 19, 1816, and it was admitted into the Union December 11 of the same year. Area 33,809 square miles, or 21,637,760 acres. Population, in 1860, 1,350,428. It is an agricultural State, chiefly devoted to grain growing and cattle raising. A residence of one year in the State entitles males of 21 years of age to vote in the county of their residence.

IOWA was first settled at Burlington by emigrants from the Northern and Eastern States. It was part of the region purchased from France; was set off from the Territory of Wisconsin and organized as a separate Territory June 12, 1838; an act for its admission as a State was passed and approved March 3, 1845, to which the assent of its inhabitants was to be given to be announced by Proclamation of the President, and on December 28, 1846, another act for its admission was passed. Area 50,914 square miles or 32,584,960 acres. Population, in 1860, 674,913. It is an agricultural State, resembling Illinois, and contains important lead mines. White male citizens of the United States, having resided in the State six months and county twenty days, are entitled to vote.

KANSAS was formed out of the original Louisiana purchase, and organized into a Territory by act of Congress, May 30, 1854, and after several ineffectual attempts was finally admitted into the Union in January, 1861. Area 78,418 square miles, or 50,187,520 acres. Population, in 1860, 107,206. It is an agricultural State, with a soil of rich and deep black loam, except the central portion, which is partly a desert. The western portion is a fine grazing country, well wooded. Residence in the State six months, and in the township or ward thirty days, confers the right of suffrage on white male citizens. It also abounds in minerals.

KENTUCKY was settled in 1775, by Virginians; formed into a Territory by act of the Virginia Legislature, December 18, 1789, and admitted into the Union June 1, 1792, by virtue of an act of Congress passed February 4, 1791. Area 37,680 square miles, or 24,115,200 acres.— Population in 1860, 1,155,684, of whom 225,483 were slaves. It is an agricultural State, raising more flax and hemp than any other. Loyalty, a residence of two years in the State and one in the county are the requirements to vote. "Any citizen of this State who shall enter the service of the so-called Confederate States, in either a civil or military capacity; or into the service of the so-called Provisional Government of Kentucky, in either a civil or military capacity; or having heretofore entered such service of either the Confederate States or Provisional Government, shall continue in such service after this act takes effect, (March 11, 1862,) or shall take up or continue in arms against the military forces of the United States or State of Kentucky, or shall give voluntary aid and assistance to those in arms against said forces, shall be deemed to have expatriated himself, and shall no longer be a citizen, except by permission of the Legislature by a general or special statute."

LOUISIANA was settled at Iberville, in 1699, by the French, and comprised a part of the territory ceded by France to the United States, by treaty of April 30, 1803, which purchase was erected into two Territories by act of Congress March 26, 1804, one called the Territory of Orleans, the other the District of Louisiana, afterwards changed to that of Missouri.— Congress, March 2, 1806, authorized the inhabitants of Orleans Territory to form a State Constitution and Government when their population should amount to 60,000; a Constitution was adopted January 23, 1812, and the State admitted into the Union April 8 of the same year, under the name of Louisiana. Area 41,255 square miles, or 26,403,200 acres. Population in 1860, 708,002, of whom 331,726 were slaves. It is the chief sugar producing State of the Union. Two years' residence in the State and one in the parish are the qualifications of voters. December 10, 1860, the Legislature ordered a State Convention to be held, which assembled and passed an ordinance of secession January 26, 1861, by a vote of 113 to 17. The people voted on the question, and on March 28 the following was announced as the result: For, 20,448; against, 17,296; a majority of 3,152. The Convention ratified the 'Confederate' Constitution March 11, 1861, by a vote of 107 to 7, and refused to submit it to the people by 94 to 10. On the 11th day of January, 1864, Maj. Gen. Banks issued a Proclamation for an election of State officers and delegates to a Constitutional Convention, for the purpose of affecting a reconstruction of the State Government under the plan suggested in the Amnesty Proclamation of President Lincoln. The election was held on the 22d day of February, 1864. The officers thus elected were installed March 4. The total vote cast was 10,725. The vote requisite under the Proclamation was 5,051. The Convention amended the Constitution so as to abolish slavery. The new Constitution was adopted by the people by a vote of 6,836 for, to 1,566 against.

MAINE was settled at York, in 1623, by the English, and was formerly under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts. October 29, 1819, the inhabitants of the District of Maine framed a Constitution; applied for admission December 8, 1819. Congress passed an act March 3, 1820, and it was admitted as a State March 15, of the same year. Area 31,766 square miles, or 20,330,240 acres. Population, in 1860, 628,279. It is largely engaged in the lumber trade and ship building. Citizens of the United States, except paupers and persons under guardianship, who have resided in the State for three months next preceding the election, are entitled to vote.

MARYLAND was settled at St. Mary, in 1634, by Irish Roman Catholics, having been chartered June 20, 1632. It was one of the original thirteen States; formed a Constitution August 14, 1776, and ratified the Constitution of the United States April 28, 1788. Area 11,124 square miles, or 7,119,260 acres. Population in 1860, 687,049, of whom 87,189 were slaves. It is mainly an agricultural State, producing grain and tobacco. A residence of one year in the State, and six months in the county, gives the right to vote to every white male citizen who takes the oath of allegiance prescribed in the Constitution. January 28, 1864, a bill passed the Legislature submitting to the people the question of a Convention to revise the Constitution of the State. The popular vote on the question was as follows: For Convention, 32,203; against, 18,337. The Convention assembled and adopted a Constitution abolishing slavery, which was submitted to and adopted by the people; and in accordance with its provisions, on the 29th of October, 1864, the Governor issued his Proclamation declaring the slaves in that State free from the 1st day of November.

MASSACHUSETTS was settled at Plymouth, November 3, 1620, by English Puritans, and Charters were granted March 4, 1629, January 13, 1630, August 20, 1726, and October 7, 1731. It was one of the original 13 States; adopted a Constitution March 2, 1780, which was amended November 3, 1820, and ratified the Constitution of the United States February 6, 1788. Area 7,800 square miles, or 4,992,000 acres. Population in 1860, 1,231,066. It is a largely commercial, the chief manufacturing and most densely populated State in the Union. A residence of one year in the State, and payment of State or county tax, gives the right to vote to male citizens of 21 years and upward, except paupers and persons under guardianship.

MICHIGAN was settled at Detroit in 1670, by the French, and was part of the territory ceded to the United States by Virginia. It was set off from the territory of Indiana, and erected into a separate Territory January 11, 1805; an act to attach to it all the territory of the United States west of the Mississippi river, and north of the State of Missouri, was passed June 28, 1834. Wisconsin was organized from it April 30, 1836. In June of the same year an act was passed to provide for the admission of the State of Michigan into the Union, and a Constitution having been adopted, it was admitted January 26, 1837. Area 56,243 square miles, or 35,995,552 acres. Population in 1860, 749,113. It is a grain growing and cattle rearing State, with rich and extensive mines of copper and iron in the Northern Peninsula. A residence in the State of six months preceding the election, entitles white male citizens to vote.

MINNESOTA was settled about 1846, chiefly by emigrants from the Northern and Western States. It was organized as a Territory by act of Congress approved March 3, 1849, and admitted into the Union February 26, 1857. Area 95,274 square miles, or 60,975,536 acres. Population in 1860, 172,123 whites, and about 25,000 Indians, many of the tribes being of a warlike character. It is an agricultural State, chiefly devoted to Northern grains. The right to vote is extended to male persons of 21 years of age, of the following classes, if they have resided in the United States one year, the State four months, and the election district ten days: White citizens of the United States, and those of foreign birth who have declared their intention to become citizens; persons of mixed white and Indian blood who have adopted the customs of civilization, and those of pure Indian blood who have been pronounced capable by any district court of the State.

MISSISSIPPI was settled at Natchez, in 1716, by the French, and was formed out of part of the territory ceded to the United States by South Carolina in 1787, and Georgia in 1802. It was organized as a Territory by act of Congress, April 7, 1789, and enlarged on the north March 27, 1804, and on the south May 14, 1812. After several unsuccessful attempts to enter the Union, Congress finally passed an act March 1, 1817, enabling the people of the western part of the Territory to form a State Constitution and Government, which being complied with August 15, it was admitted December 10 of the same year. Area 47,156 square miles, or 30,179,840 acres. Population in 1860, 791,305, of whom 436,631 were slaves. It is the second cotton growing State of the Union. Citizens who have resided one year in the State, and four months in the county, and having performed military duty or paid taxes, are entitled to vote. A Convention met January 7, 1861, and on the 9th passed an ordinance of secession by a vote of 84 to 15.

MISSOURI was settled at Genevieve in 1763, by the French, and was part of the territory ceded by France by treaty of April 30, 1803. It was created under the name of the District of Louisiana, by an act approved March 26, 1804, and placed under the direction of the officers of the Indiana Territory, and was organized into a separate Territory June 4, 1812, its name being changed to that of Missouri; and was divided March 2, 1819, the Territory of Arkansas being then created. An act authorizing it to form a State Constitution and Government was passed March 6, 1820, and it was admitted into the Union December 14, 1821. Area 67,380 square miles, or 43,123,200 acres. Population in 1860, 1,182,012, of whom 114,931 were slaves. An act of gradual emancipation was passed July 1, 1863, by a vote of 51 to 30. On the 6th of January, 1865, a Constitutional Convention assembled in St. Louis, and on the 8th of April adopted a new Constitution, declaring the State free, prohibiting compensation for slaves, and adopting many other radical changes. On the 6th of June the Constitution was adopted by the people by a vote of 43,670 to 41,808, and pursuant to a Proclamation issued on the 1st of July, the Constitution went into effect July 4, 1865. It is an agricultural and mining State. Citizens of the United States who have resided in the State one year, and county three months, are entitled to vote. By an act passed by the Legislature of 1863, voting by ballot was adopted, and the vivu voce system abolished.

NEBRASKA was settled by emigrants from the Northern and Western States, and was formed out of a part of the territory ceded by France, April 30, 1803. Attempts to organize it were made in 1844 and 1848, but it was not accomplished until May 30, 1854. Area 75,955 square miles, or 44,796,160 acres. Population 28,841, besides a few roving tribes of Indians. A Convention adopted a State Constitution February 9, 1866, which was submitted to the people on the 22d of June, and adopted by a vote of 3,938 for, to 3,838 against, and State officers were elected. A bill was passed by Congress, July 27th, admitting the State, but the President withheld his signature. In February, 1867, Congress passed an act imposing certain conditions to admission, which were promptly accepted, and the territory became a State. It is an agricultural region, its prairies affording boundless pasture lands.

NEVADA was organized as a Territory March 2, 1861. Its name signifies snowy, and is derived from the Spanish word nieve (snow.) It comprises 81,539 square miles, or 52,184,960 acres, lying mostly within the Great Basin of the Pacific coast. Congress, at its session in 1864, passed an act which was approved March 21, to enable the people of the Territory to form a Constitution and State Government, in pursuance of which a Government was organized and the Territory admitted as a State by Proclamation of the President, October 31, 1864. At the time of its organization the Territory possessed a population of 6,857 white settlers. The development of her mineral resources was rapid and almost without parallel, and attracted a constant stream of immigration to the Territory. As the population has not been subject to the fluctuations from which other Territories have suffered, the growth of Nevada has been rapid and steady. At the general convention election of 1863, 10,934 votes were cast. During 1864 great accessions to the population were made. It is probably the richest State in the Union in respect to mineral resources. No region in the world is richer in argentiferous leads. It also contains an immense basin of salt, five miles square. Quartz mills are a very important feature in mining operations. The State is barren for agricultural purposes, and is remarkably healthy.

NEW HAMPSHIRE was settled at Dover, in 1623, by English Puritans, and continued under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts until September 18, 1679, when a separate charter was granted. It was one of the original thirteen States, and ratified the United States Constitution June 21, 1788; its State Constitution was framed January 5, 1776, and amended in 1784 and 1792. Area 9,280 square miles, or 5,939,200 acres. Population in 1860, 326,073. It is a grazing and manufacturing State. All male citizens, except paupers, are allowed to vote.

NEW JERSEY was settled at Bergen, in 1624, by the Dutch and Danes; was conquered by the Dutch in 1655, and submitted to the English in 1664, being held thereafter under the same grants as New York, until it was surrendered to the Crown in 1702. It was one of the original thirteen States, adopted a State Constitution July 2, 1776, and ratified the United States Constitution December 18, 1787. Area 8,320 square miles, or 5,324,800 acres. Population in 1860, 672,035. It is a grain and fruit growing region, its orchard and market products being relatively greater than those of any other State. A residence of one year in the State gives the right to vote, except to paupers, &c.

NEW YORK was settled at Manhattan, in 1614, by the Dutch; was ceded to the English by grants to the Duke of York, March 20, April 26, and June 24, 1664; was retaken by the Dutch in 1673, and surrendered again by them to the English, February 9, 1674. It was one of the original thirteen States; ratified the United States Constitution July 26, 1788; framed a Constitution April 20, 1777, which was amended October 27, 1801, and November 10, 1821; a new one was adopted November 3, 1846. Area 47,000 square miles, or 30,080,000 acres. Population in 1865, 3,831,777. It is the most populous, wealthy and commercial of the States. White male citizens of the United States, who have resided in the State one year, in the county four months, and election district thirty days, are entitled to vote; and all men of color who have resided in the State three years, and own and pay taxes on a freehold assessed at $250.

NORTH CAROLINA was settled at Albemarle, in 1650, by the English, and was chartered March 20, 1663. It was one of the original thirteen States, and ratified the United States Constitution, November 21, 1789; its State Constitution was adopted December 18, 1776, and amended in 1835. Area 50,704 square miles, or 32,450,560 acres. Population in 1860, 992,622, of whom 331,059 were slaves. It is an agricultural State, with some mines and extensive pine forests. Every freeman of 21 years of age, having resided one year in any county in the State, may vote for a member of the House of Commons, but must own fifty acres of land to vote for a Senator. A State Convention passed an ordinance of secession May 21, 1861. An election for delegates to a State Convention took place September 21, 1865. The Convention assembled October 2. On the 2d of October it passed an ordinance forever prohibiting slavery. The Legislature ratified the Constitutional amendment December 1. An election was held on the first Thursday of November, for Governor, Members of Congress and the Legislature.

OHIO was settled at Marietta, in 1788, by emigrants from Virginia and New England; was ceded by Virginia to the United States October 20, 1783; accepted by the latter March 1, 1784, and admitted into the Union April 30, 1802. Area 39,964 square miles, or 25,576,960 acres. Population in 1860, 2,339,511. It is the most populous and wealthy of the agricultural States, devoted principally to wool growing, grain and live stock. A male of 21 years of age, who has resided in the State one year, and has paid or been charged with a State or county tax, is eligible to vote.

OREGON, although it had previously been seen by various navigators, was first taken possession of by Capt. Robert Gray, who entered the mouth of its principal river May 7, 1792, naming it after his vessel, the Columbia, of Boston. Exploring expeditions soon followed, and fur companies sent their trappers and traders into the region. In 1811 a trading post was established at the mouth of the Columbia river by the American Fur Company, who named it Astoria. For some time a Provisional Territorial Government existed, but the boundary remained unsettled until the treaty with Great Britain in 1846, when the 49th parallel was adopted. It was formally organized as a Territory August 14, 1848; was divided March 2, 1853, on the 46th parallel, the northern portion being called Washington and the southern Oregon. November 9, 1857, a State Constitution was adopted, under which it was admitted February 14, 1859, about one-third of it on the east being added to Washington Territory, its northern boundary following the Columbia river until its intersection with latitude  $46^{\circ}$  north. Area 102,606 square miles, or 65,667,840 acres. Population in 1860, 52,465. It is an agricultural State, possessed of a fertile soil, extensive pastures, genial climate, and is well wooded. Gold and other precious metals are found in considerable abundance.

PENNSYLVANIA was settled at Philadelphia, in 1681, by English Quakers, and was chartered February 28 of the same year. It was one of the original thirteen States, ratifying the United States Constitution December 12, 1787; adopted a State Constitution September 28, 1776, and amended it September 2, 1790. Area 46,000 square miles, or 29,440,000 acres. Population in 1860, 2,906,115. It is the second State in wealth and population, and the principal coal and iron mining region in the Union. Residence in the State one year, and ten days in the election district, with payment of a State or county tax assessed ten days prior to an election, gives the right to vote; except that citizens between 21 and 22 years of age need not have paid the tax.

RHODE ISLAND was settled at Providence in 1636, by the English from Massachusetts, under Roger Williams. It was under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts until July 8, 1662, when a separate charter was granted, which continued in force until the formation of a Constitution in September, 1842. It was one of the original thirteen States, ratifying the United States Constitution May 29, 1790. Area 1,306 square miles, or 835,840 acres. Population in 1860, 174,620. It is largely engaged in manufactures. A freehold possession of $13; or, if in reversion, renting for $7, together with a residence of one year in the State and six months in the town; or, if no freehold, then a residence of two years in the State and six months in the town, and payment of $1 tax or military service instead, are the qualifications of voters.

SOUTH CAROLINA was settled at Port Royal, in 1670, by the English, and continued under the charter of Carolina, or North Carolina, until they were separated in 1729. It was one of the original thirteen States, ratifying the United States Constitution May 23, 1798; it framed a State Constitution March 26, 1776, which was amended March 19, 1778, and June 3, 1790. Area 29,385 square miles, or 18,806,400 acres. Population in 1860, 703,708, of whom 402,406 were slaves, an excess of 101,270 over the whites. It is the principal rice-growing State. Whites, who have resided in the State two years and district six months, and have a freehold of fifty acres of land, or have paid a State tax, are entitled to vote. December 17, 1860, a Convention assembled in Columbia, adjourned to Charleston, and on the 24th unanimously adopted an ordinance of secession, which was followed the next day by a Declaration of Causes claimed to be sufficient to justify the act. An election for delegates to a State Convention was held September 4, 1865. The Convention assembled September 13, and adjourned on the 28th. It repealed the ordinance of secession, abolished slavery, equalized the representation of the Senate and taxation throughout the State, giving the election of Governor and Presidential electors to the people, ordered voting in the Legislature by viva voce, endorsed the Administration unanimously, and directed a commission to submit a code to the Legislature for the protection of the colored population. The Legislature ratified the Constitutional Amendment November 13, 1865.

TENNESSEE was settled at Fort Donelson, in 1756, by emigrants from Virginia and North Carolina; was ceded to the United States by North Carolina, December, 1789, conveyed by the Senators of that State February 25, 1790, and accepted by act of Congress April 2 of the same year; it adopted a Constitution Feb. 6, 1796, and was admitted into the Union the 1st of June following. Area 45,600 square miles, or 29,184,000 acres. Population in 1860, 1,109,601, of whom 275,179 were slaves. It is a mining and agricultural State, and is largely productive of live stock. Citizens of the United States who have resided six months in the county are entitled to vote. A military league was formed between the Governor, Isham G. Harris, and the rebel States, May 7, 1861, ratified the same day by the Senate by a vote of 14 to 6, and a Declaration of Independence submitted to the people, the election to be held June 8, the result of which was declared by the Governor, June 24, to be 104,913 for, and 47,238 against. This movement not being acceptable to the people of East Tennessee, which had declared against separation by a vote of 32,923 to 14,880, they, in a Convention held at Greenville, June 18-21, repudiated it. Andrew Johnson, Provisional Governor of the State, called a State Convention to be held in Nashville the second Monday in January. Delegates were elected, the Convention met, declared slavery forever abolished, prohibited compensation to owners of slaves, and abrogated the secession ordinances. These amendments of the Constitution were submitted to the people 22d of February, 1865, with the following result: For ratification, 22,197; rejection, 63. The United States Constitutional Amendment was ratified April 5, 1865.

TEXAS was first settled at Bexar, in 1694, by Spaniards; formed a part of Mexico until 1836, when she revolted from that Republic and instituted a separate Government, under which she existed until admitted into the Union by a joint resolution approved March 1st, 1845, imposing certain conditions, which were accepted, and a Constitution formed July 4 of the same year, and another joint resolution adopted by Congress, consummating the annexation, was approved December 29, 1845. Area 237,504 square miles, or 152,002,500 acres. Population in 1860, 604,215, of whom 182,566 were slaves. It is an agricultural region, principally devoted to grain, cotton and tropical fruits. Free white male citizens of 21 years of age, who have resided in the State one year and district six months are entitled to vote. A Convention assembled at Galveston January 28, 1861, and on February 1 passed an ordinance of secession, by a vote of 166 to 7, to be submitted to the people February 23, and on March 4 they declared the State out of the Union, and Gov. Houston issued a Proclamation to that effect.

VERMONT was settled in 1724, by Englishmen from Connecticut, chiefly under grants from New Hampshire; was formed from a part of the territory of New York, by act of its Legislature March 6, 1769; framed a Constitution December 25, 1777, and was admitted into the Union March 4, 1791, by virtue of an act of Congress passed February 18 of the same year. Area 10,212 square miles, or 6,535,680 acres. Population in 1860, 315,098. It is a grazing region, producing more wool, live stock, maple sugar, butter, cheese and hay, in proportion to its population, than any other State. Any citizen of the United States who has resided in the State one year, and will take the oath of allegiance, is entitled to vote.

VIRGINIA was settled at Jamestown, in 1607, by the English, and was chartered April 10, 1606, May 23, 1609, and March 12, 1612. It was one of the original thirteen States, ratifying the United States Constitution June 25, 1788; it framed a State Constitution July 5, 1776, which was amended January 15, 1830. The State was divided in 1863. Present area 37,352 square miles. Population in 1860, 1,314,532, of whom 481,410 were slaves. It is a large corn producing, and the chief tobacco growing State. Every white male citizen of the age of 21 years, who has been a resident of the State for one year, and of the county, city or town where he offers to vote for six months next preceding an election, and has paid all taxes assessed to him, after the adoption of the Constitution, under the laws of the Commonwealth, after the re-organization of the county, city or town where he offers to vote, is qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly and all officers elective by the people. A Convention sitting in Richmond on the 17th of April, 1861, passed an ordinance of secession, by a vote of 88 to 55, which was submitted to the people at an election held May 23, the result of which was announced June 25 to be 128,824 for, and 32,134 against. The State Government was re-organized by a Convention which met at Wheeling, May 11, 1861. Upon the division of the State in 1863, the seat of Government was removed to Alexandria. A State Constitutional Convention, March 10, 1864, adopted a section abolishing slavery.

WEST VIRGINIA.—On the passage of the ordinance of secession by the Virginia Convention, a Convention of the western and other loyal counties of the State was held at Wheeling, which assembled May 11, 1861, and on the 17th unanimously deposed the then State officers and organized a Provisional Government. On the 26th of November, 1861, a Convention representing the western counties assembled in Wheeling and framed a Constitution for West Virginia, which was submitted to the people on the 3d of May, 1862, and adopted by them by a nearly unanimous vote. The division of the State was sanctioned by the Legislature May 13, 1862, and ratified by Congress by an act approved December 31, 1862, conditioned on the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution providing for the gradual abolition of slavery, which was done on the 24th of March, 1863, by a vote of the qualified electors of the proposed State, 28,318 voting in favor of the amendment, and 572 against it. In pursuance of the act of Congress, the President issued a Proclamation, April 20, 1863, admitting the State sixty days from the date thereof, and on the 20th of June the new State Government was formally inaugurated. Area 24,000 square miles. Population in 1860, 350,599, of whom 12,754 were slaves. It is a large corn producing State, and abounds in coal and other minerals. The Alexandria Legislature adopted the United States Constitutional Amendment February 9, 1865. White male citizens, residents of the State one year and county thirty days, unless disqualified by rebellion, are entitled to vote.

WISCONSIN was settled at Green Bay, in 1669, by the French; was a part of the territory ceded by Virginia, and was set off from Michigan December 24, 1834, and was organized into a Territory April 30, 1836. Iowa was set off from it June 12, 1838, and acts were passed at various times setting its boundaries. March 3, 1847, an act for its admission into the Union was passed, to take effect on the issuing of a Proclamation by the President, and by act of May 29, 1848, it was admitted into the Union. Area 53,924 square miles, or 34,511,360 acres. Population in 1860, 775,881. It is an agricultural State, chiefly engaged in grain raising and wool growing. Both white and colored citizens of the United States, or white foreigners who have declared their intention to become citizens, are entitled to vote. Colored citizens were admitted to the franchise, by a decision of the Supreme Court, rendered the 27th day of March, 1866, holding that, whereas an election was held in 1849, under the provisions of chapter 137, of that year, at which election 5,265 votes were cast in favor of the extension of the right of suffrage to colored men, and 4,075 against such extension, therefore, the section of said law conferring such right had been constitutionally adopted and is the law of the land.

THE TERRITORIES,

THEIR BOUNDARIES, AREA, PHYSICAL FEATURES, ETC.

ALASKA, our new territory, recently purchased of Russia, comprehends all the north-west coast on the Pacific, and the adjacent islands north of the parallel of 50 degrees 40 minutes north, and the portion of the mainland west of the meridian (about 140° west) of Mount St. Elias. The area is computed at 481,276 square miles. The climate, although warmer than in the same latitude on the eastern coast, is too rigorous to admit of successful agricultural operations, and the chief value of the country and adjacent seas is derived from their fisheries and hunting grounds. The southern and central portions are mountainous; the northern portion along the Arctic ocean is quite flat, nowhere rising more than fifteen or twenty feet above the sea. The population is estimated at about 80,000, mostly Esquimaux.

ARIZONA was organized by the Thirty-Seventh Congress, in the winter of 1863, out of the western half of New Mexico, the boundary between the two Territories being the 109th meridian (32d west from Washington,) and includes the greater portions of the valleys of Colorado and Gila, which two rivers drain its entire surface, with parts of Utah, New Mexico and Nevada, and yet convey, it is reported, a less volume of water to the sea than the Hudson at Albany. The fertile Messilla Valley was left with New Mexico. The Territory forms a block nearly square, and contains 126,141 square miles, or 80,730,240 acres. Its white population is probably considerably less than 10,000. For agricultural purposes it is probably the most worthless on the Continent, owing to the absence of rains, but it is reputed to abound in silver mines.

COLORADO was organized March 2, 1861, from parts of Kansas, Nebraska and Utah, and is situated on each side of the Rocky Mountains, between latitude 37° and 41°, and longitude 25° and 32° west from Washington. Area 104,500 square miles, or 66,880,000 acres. Population 50,000, besides numerous tribes of Indians. By an enabling act passed March 21, 1864, the people of the Territory were authorized to frame a State Constitution and organize a State Government, and a Convention accordingly met in 1865, and on the 12th of August adopted a Constitution, which was submitted to and adopted by the people September 5, and State officers elected November 14. A bill to admit the Territory as a State passed Congress, but was vetoed May 25, 1866. It is said to be a superior grazing and cattle producing region, with a healthy climate and rich soil. An extensive coal bed, and also gold, iron and other minerals abound.

DAKOTA was first settled by employees of the Hudson Bay Company, but is now being peopled by emigrants from the Northern and Western States. It was set off from the western portion of Minnesota when that Territory became a State in 1857, and was organized March 2, 1861. Area 148,932 square miles, or 95,316,480 acres. Population 2,576 whites, and 2,261 Indians, besides the roving tribes.

IDaho was organized by the Thirty-Seventh Congress, at its second session, in the winter of 1863. Its name means 'Bead of the Mountains,' and it embraces the whole breadth of the Rocky Mountain region, and has within its bounds the head waters of nearly all the great rivers that flow down its either slope, but the greater portion lies east of the mountains. Its southern boundary is the 41st, its northern the 46th parallel of latitude. It extends from the 104th meridian on the east to the 110th on the west. Area 326,373 square miles, or 208,870,720 acres. For agricultural purposes it is comparatively worthless, but abounds in gold and other valuable mines.

MONTANA was settled by emigrants from the Northern and Western States. Organized in 1864, with the following boundaries: Commencing at a point formed by the intersection of the 27<sup>o</sup> L. W. from Washington with the 45<sup>o</sup> N. L.; thence due west on said 45th degree to a point formed by its intersection with the 34th degree W. from Washington; thence due south along said 34th degree of longitude to its intersection with the 44th degree and 30 minutes of N. L.; thence due west along said 44th degree and 30 minutes of N. L. to a point formed by its intersection with the crest of the Rocky Mountains; thence following the crest of the Rocky Mountains northward till its intersection with the Bitter Root Mountains; thence northward along the crest of said Bitter Root Mountains to its intersection with the 39th degree of longitude W. from Washington; thence along said 39th degree of longitude northward to the boundary line of the British possessions; thence eastward along said boundary to the 27th degree of longitude W. from Washington; thence southward along said 27th degree to the place of beginning. This makes it the northernmost Territory next the States east of the Missouri Valley. It is a good mining and agricultural region. The total population is put down at 15,822. Large accessions have been made since the census was taken.

NEW MEXICO was formed from a part of the territory ceded to the United States by Mexico, by the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, February 2, 1848, and was organized into a Territory September 9, 1850.—Area 121,201 square miles, or 77,568,640 acres. Population 83,000, besides large tribes of warlike Indians. The principal resource of the country is its minerals.

UTAH was settled by the Mormons, and was formed from a part of the territory ceded to the United States by Mexico, by the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, February 2, 1848, and was organized into a Territory, September 9, 1850. Area, 106,382 square miles, or 68,084,480 acres. Population, 40,273, of whom 29 were slaves. Brine, sulphureous and chalybeate springs abound; limestone, granite, sandstone and marble are found in large quantities; iron is abundant, and gold, silver, copper, lead and zinc have been found. Not one-fiftieth part of the soil is fit for tillage, but on that which is, abundant crops of grain and considerable cotton are raised. A Convention was held at Great Salt Lake City, January 22, 1862, and a State Constitution formed, but it has not been acted on by Congress.

WASHINGTON was settled by emigrants from the Northern and Western States, and was organized into a Territory, March 2, 1853, from the northern portion of Oregon, to which was added another portion from the eastern part when the latter Territory was admitted as a State, February 14, 1859. Area 69,994 square miles, or 48,636,800 acres. Population 11,168, besides numerous tribes of Indians.

WYOMING was organized in July 1868. It lies between the 27th and 34th meridians of longitude west from Washington, and between the 41st and 45th parallels of latitude. The Territory is rich in mineral wealth, having large quantities of iron, coal, gypsum and building stone, besides vast quantities of gold, silver and copper. Salt springs of great value are found within its limits. The western portion of the Territory embraces what is generally known as the "Sweet Water Mines." The climate is healthy, and the Territory is rapidly filling up with an enterprising and hardy population. The act of Congress organizing the Territory, provides that "There shall be no denial of the elective franchise or any other right, on account of color or race, and all persons shall be equal before the law."

the collection from the United States Government of claims by soldiers, or their legal representatives, for pensions, back pay, bounty, or for property lost in the service, exempt.

CANCELLATION.

In all cases where an adhesive stamp is used for denoting the stamp duty upon an instrument, the person using or affixing the same must write or imprint thereupon in ink the initials of his name, and the date (the year, month, and day) on which the same is attached or used. Each stamp should be separately cancelled. When stamps are printed upon checks, &c., so that in filling up the instrument, the face of the stamp is and must necessarily be written across, no other cancellation will be required.

All cancellation must be distinct and legible, and except in the case of proprietary stamps from private dies, no method of cancellation which differs from that above described can be recognized as legal and sufficient.

PENALTIES.

A penalty of fifty dollars is imposed upon every person who makes, signs, or issues, or who causes to be made, signed, or issued, any paper of any kind or description whatever, or who accepts, negotiates, or pays, or causes to be accepted, negotiated, or paid, any bill of exchange, draft, or order, or promissory note, for the payment of money, without the same being duly stamped, or having thereupon an adhesive stamp for denoting the tax chargeable thereon, cancelled in the manner required by law, with intent to evade the provisions of the revenue act.

A penalty of two hundred dollars is imposed upon every person who pays, negotiates, or offers in payment, or receives or takes in payment, any bill of exchange or order for the payment of any sum of money drawn or purporting to be drawn in a foreign country, but payable in the United States, until the proper stamp has been affixed thereto.

A penalty of fifty dollars is imposed upon every person who fraudulently makes use of an adhesive stamp to denote the duty required by the revenue act, without effectually cancelling and obliterating the same in the manner required by law.

Attention is particularly called to the following extract from section 155, of the act of June 30, 1864, as amended by the act of July 13, 1866 :

"If any person shall wilfully remove or cause to be removed, alter or cause to be altered, the cancelling or defacing marks on any adhesive stamp, with intent to use the same, or to cause the use of the same, after it shall have been used once, or shall knowingly or wilfully sell or buy such washed or restored stamps, or offer the same for sale, or give or expose the same to any person for use, or knowingly use the same or prepare the same with intent for the further use thereof, or if any person shall knowingly and without lawful excuse (the proof whereof shall lie on the person accused) have in his possession any washed, restored, or altered stamps, which have been removed from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument or writing; then, and in every such case, every person so offending, and every person knowingly and wilfully aiding, abetting, or assisting in committing any such offence as aforesaid, shall, on conviction thereof, * * * be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment and confinement to hard labor not exceeding five years, or both, at the discretion of the court."

It is not lawful to record any instrument, document, or paper required by law to be stamped, or any copy thereof, unless a stamp or stamps of the proper amount have been affixed and cancelled in the manner required by law; and such instrument or copy and the record thereof are utterly null and void, and cannot be used or admitted as evidence in any court until the defect has been cured as provided in section 158.

All willful violations of the law should be reported to the United States District Attorney within and for the district where they are committed.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

The law does not designate which of the parties to an instrument shall furnish the necessary stamp, nor does the Commissioner of Internal Revenue assume to determine that it shall be supplied by one party rather than by another; but if an instrument subject to stamp duty is issued without having the necessary stamps affixed thereto, it cannot be recorded, or admitted, or used in evidence, in any court, until a legal stamp or stamps, denoting the amount of tax, shall have been affixed as prescribed by law, and the person who thus issues it is liable to a penalty, if he omits the stamps with an intent to evade the provisions of the internal revenue act.

The first act imposing a stamp tax upon certain specified instruments took effect, so far as said tax is concerned, October 1, 1862. The impression which seems to prevail to some extent, that no stamps are required upon any instruments issued in the States lately in insurrection, prior to the surrender, or prior to the establishment of collection districts there, is erroneous.

Instruments issued in those States since October 1, 1862, are subject to the same taxes as similar ones issued at the same time in the other States.

No stamp is necessary upon an instrument executed prior to October 1, 1862, to make it admissible in evidence, or to entitle it to record.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any written or printed evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand, or at a time designated, are subject to stamp duty as "promissory notes."

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamp to which the instrument is liable under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by either of them; and "when more than one signature is affixed to the same paper, one or more stamps may be affixed thereto, representing the whole amount of the stamp required for such signatures."

No stamp is required on any warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required; and, whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers—such stamp duty being the highest rate required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgement of the instrument which is not stamped.

Particular attention is called to the change in section 154, by striking out the words "or used;" the exemption thereunder is thus restricted to documents, &c., issued by the officers therein named. Also to the changes in sections 152 and 158, by inserting the words "and cancelled in the manner required by law."

The acceptor or acceptors of any bill of exchange, or order for the payment of any sum of money, drawn or purporting to be drawn in any foreign country, but payable in the United States, must, before paying or accepting the same, place thereupon a stamp indicating the duty.

It is only upon conveyances of realty sold that conveyance stamps are necessary. A deed of real estate made without valuable consideration need not be stamped as a conveyance; but if it contains covenants, such, for instance, as a covenant to warrant and defend the title, it should be stamped as an agreement or contract.

When a deed purporting to be a conveyance of realty sold, and stamped accordingly, is inoperative, a deed of confirmation, made simply to cure the defect, requires no stamp. In such case, the second deed should contain a recital of the facts, and should show the reasons for its execution.

Partition deeds between tenants in common, need not be stamped as conveyances, inasmuch as there is no sale of realty, but merely a marking out, or a defining, of the boundaries of the part belonging to each; but where money or other valuable consideration is paid by one co-tenant to another for equality of partition, there is a sale to the extent of such consideration, and the conveyance, by the party receiving it, should be stamped accordingly.

A conveyance of lands sold for unpaid taxes, issued since August 1, 1866, by the officers of any county, town, or other municipal corporation in the discharge of their strictly official duties, is exempt from stamp tax.

A conveyance of realty sold, subject to a mortgage, should be stamped according to the consideration, or the value of the property unencumbered. The consideration in such case is to be found by adding the amount paid for the equity of redemption to the mortgage debt. The fact that one part of the consideration is paid to the mortgagor and the other part to the mortgagee does not change the liability of the conveyance.

The stamp tax upon a mortgage is based upon the amount it is given to secure. The fact that the value of the property mortgaged is less than that amount, and that consequently the security is only partial, does not change the liability of the instrument. When, therefore, a second mortgage is given to secure the payment of a sum of money partially secured by a prior mortgage upon other property, or when two mortgages upon separate property are given at the same time to secure the payment of the same sum, each should be stamped as though it were the only one.

A mortgage given to secure a surety from loss, or given for any purpose whatever, other than as security for the payment of a definite and certain sum of money, is taxable only as an agreement or contract.

The stamp duty upon a lease, agreement, memorandum, or contract for the hire, use, or rent of any land, tenement, or portion thereof, is based upon the annual rent or rental value of the property leased, and the duty is the same whether the lease be for one year, for a term of years, or for the fractional part of a year only.

Upon every assignment or transfer of a mortgage, a stamp tax is required equal to that imposed upon a mortgage for the amount remaining unpaid; this tax is required upon every such transfer in writing, whether there is a sale of the mortgage or not; but no stamp is necessary upon the endorsement of a negotiable instrument, even though the legal effect of such indorsement is to transfer a mortgage by which the instrument is secured.

An assignment of a lease within the meaning and intent of Schedule B, is an assignment of the leasehold, or of some portion thereof, by the lessee, or by some person claiming by, from, or under him; such an assignment as subrogates the assignee to the rights, or some portion of the rights, of the lessee, or of the person standing in his place. A transfer by the lessor of his part of a lease, neither giving nor purporting to give a claim to the leasehold, or to any part thereof, but simply a right to the rents, &c., is subject to stamp tax as a contract or agreement only.

The stamp tax upon a fire insurance policy is based upon the premium.

Deposit notes taken by a mutual fire insurance company, not as payment of premium nor as evidence of indebtedness therefor, but to be used simply as a basis upon which to make rateable assessments to meet the losses incurred by the company, should not be reckoned as premium in determining the amount of stamp taxes upon the policies.

When a policy of insurance properly stamped has been issued and lost, no stamp is necessary upon another issued by the same company to the same party, covering the same property, time, &c., and designed simply to supply the loss. The second policy should recite the loss of the first.

An instrument which operates as the renewal of a policy of insurance, is subject to the same stamp tax as the policy.

When a policy of insurance is issued for a certain time, whether it be for one year only or for a term of years, a receipt for premium, or any other instrument which has the legal effect to continue the contract and extend its operation beyond that time, requires the same amount of revenue stamps as the policy itself; but such a receipt as is usually given for the payment of the monthly, quarterly, or annual premium, is not a renewal within the meaning of the statute. The payment simply prevents the policy from expiring, by reason of non-performance of its conditions; a receipt given for such a payment requires a two-cent stamp, if the amount received exceeds twenty dollars, and a two-cent stamp only. When, however, the time of payment has passed, and a tender of the premium is not sufficient to bind the company, but a new policy or a new contract in some form, with the mutuality essential to every contract, becomes necessary between the insurer and the insured, the same amount of stamps should be used as that required upon the original policy.

A permit issued by a life insurance company changing the terms of a policy as to travel, residence, occupation, &c., should be stamped as a contract or agreement.

A bill single or a bill obligatory, i. e., an instrument in the form of a promissory note, under seal, is subject to stamp duty as written or printed evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at a time designated, at the rate of five cents for each one hundred dollars or fractional part thereof.

A waiver of protest, or of demand and notice, written upon negotiable paper and signed by the indorser, is an agreement, and requires a five-cent stamp.

A stamp duty of twenty-five cents is imposed upon the "protest of every note, bill of exchange, check or draft," and upon every marine protest. If several notes, bills of exchange, drafts, &c., are protested at the same time and all attached to one and the same certificate, stamps should be affixed to the amount of twenty-five cents for each note, bill, draft, &c., thus protested.

When, as is generally the case, the caption to a deposition contains other certificates in addition to the jurat to the affidavit of the deponent, such as a certificate that the parties were or were not notified, that they did or did not appear, that they did or did not object, &c., it is subject to a stamp duty of five cents.

When an attested copy of a writ or other process is used by a sheriff or other person in making personal service, or in attaching property, a five-cent stamp should be affixed to the certificate of attestation.

A marriage certificate issued by the officiating clergyman or magistrate, to be returned to any officer of a State, county, city, town, or other municipal corporation, to constitute part of a public record, requires no stamp; but if it is to be retained by the parties, a five-cent stamp should be affixed.

The stamp tax upon a bill of sale, by which any ship or vessel, or any part thereof, is conveyed to or vested in any other person or persons, is at the same rate as that imposed upon conveyances of realty sold; a bill of sale of any other personal property should be stamped as a contract or agreement.

An assignment of real or personal property, or of both, for the benefit of creditors, should be stamped as an agreement or contract.

Written or printed assignments of agreements, bonds, notes not negotiable, and of all other instruments the assignments of which are not particularly specified in the foregoing schedule, should be stamped as agreements.

No stamp is necessary upon the registry of a judgment, even though the registry is such in its legal effect as to create a lien which operates as a mortgage upon the property of the judgment debtor.

When a "power of attorney or proxy for voting at any election for officers of any incorporated company or society, except religious, charitable, or literary societies, or public cemeteries," is signed by several stockholders, owning separate and distinct shares, it is, in its legal effect, the separate instrument of each, and requires stamps to the amount of ten cents for each and every signature; one or more stamps may be used representing the whole amount required.

A notice from landlord to tenant to quit possession of premises requires no stamp.

A stamp tax is imposed upon every "manifest for custom-house entry or clearance of the cargo of any ship, vessel, or steamer for a foreign port." The amount of this tax in each case depends upon the registered tonnage of the vessel.

If a vessel clears in ballast and has no cargo whatever, no stamp is necessary; but if she has any, however small the amount—a stamp should be used.

A bond to convey real estate requires stamps to the amount of twenty-five cents.

The stamp duty upon the probate of a will, or upon letters of administration, is based upon the sworn or declared value of all the estate and effects, real, personal, and mixed, undiminished by the debts of the estate for or in respect of which such probate or letters are applied for.

When the property belonging to the estate of a person deceased, lies under different jurisdictions and it becomes necessary to take out letters in two or more places, the letters should be stamped according to the value of all the property, real, personal, and mixed, for or in respect of which the particular letters in each case are issued.

Letters de bonis non should be stamped according to the amount of property remaining to be administered upon thereunder, regardless of the stamps upon the original letters.

A mere copy of an instrument is not subject to stamp duty unless it is a certified one, in which case a five-cent stamp should be affixed to the certificate of the person attesting it; but when the instrument is executed and issued in duplicate, triplicate, &c., as in the case of a lease of two or more parts, each part has the same legal effect as the other, and each should be stamped as an original.

POSTAL RATES AND REGULATIONS.

LETTERS.—The law requires postage on all letters (including those to foreign countries when prepaid), excepting those written to the President or Vice President, or members of Congress, or (on official business) to the chiefs of the executive departments of the Government, and the heads of bureaux and chief clerks, and others invested with the franking privilege, to be prepaid by stamps or stamped envelopes, prepayment in money being prohibited.

All drop-letters must be prepaid. The rate of postage on drop-letters, at offices where free delivery by carrier is established, is two cents per half ounce or fraction of a half ounce; at offices where such free delivery is not established the rate is one cent.

The single rate of postage on all domestic mail letters throughout the United States, is three cents per half ounce, with an additional rate of three cents for each additional half ounce or fraction of a half ounce. The ten cent (Pacific) rate is abolished.

NEWSPAPERS, ETC.—Letter postage is to be charged on all handbills, circulars, or other printed matter which shall contain any manuscript writing whatever.

Daguerreotypes, when sent in the mail, are to be charged with letter postage by weight.

Photographs on cards, paper, and other flexible material, (not in cases), can be sent at the same rate as miscellaneous printed matter, viz., two cents for each four ounces or fraction thereof.

Photograph Albums are chargeable with book postage—four cents for each four ounces or fraction thereof.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.—Postage on daily papers to subscribers when prepaid quarterly or yearly in advance, either at the mailing office or office of delivery, per quarter (three months), 35 cts.; six times per week, per quarter 30 cts.; for tri-weekly, per quarter 15 cts.; for semi-weekly, per quarter 10 cts.; for weekly, per quarter 5 cents.

Weekly newspapers (one copy only) sent by the publisher to actual subscribers within the county where printed and published, FREE.

Postage per quarter (to be paid quarterly or yearly in advance) on newspapers and periodicals issued less frequently than once a week, sent to actual subscribers in any part of the United States: Semi-monthly, not over 4 oz., 6 cts.; over 4 oz. and not over 8 oz., 12 cts.; over 8 oz. and not over 12 oz., 18 cts.; monthly, not over 4 oz., 3 cts.; over 4 oz. and not over 8 oz., 6 cts.; over 8 oz. and not over 12 oz., 9 cts.; quarterly, not over 4 oz., 1 cent; over 4 oz. and not over 8 oz., 2 cts.; over 8 oz. and not over 12 oz., 3 cts.

TRANSIENT MATTER.—Books not over 4 oz. in weight, to one address, 4 cts.; over 4 oz. and not over 8 oz., 8 cts.; over 8 oz. and not over 12 oz., 12 cts.; over 12 oz. and not over 16 oz., 16 cts.

Circulars not exceeding three in number to one address, 2 cts.; over 3 and not over 6, 4 cts.; over 6 and not over 9, 6 cts.; over 9 and not exceeding 12, 8 cts.

On miscellaneous mailable matter, (embracing all pamphlets, occasional publications, transient newspapers, hand-bills and posters, book manuscripts and proof-sheets, whether corrected or not, maps, prints, engravings, sheet music, blanks, flexible patterns, samples, and sample cards, photographic paper, letter envelopes, postal envelopes or wrappers, cards, paper, plain or ornamental, photographic representations of different types, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots and scions,) the postage to be pre-paid by stamps, is on one package, to one address, not over 4 oz. in weight, 2 cts.; over 4 oz. and not over 8 oz., 4 cts.; over 8 oz. and not over 12 oz., 6 cts.; over 12 oz. and not over 16 oz., 8 cts. The weight of packages of seeds, cuttings, roots and scions, to be franked, is limited to thirty-two ounces.

Any word or communication, whether by printing, writing, marks or signs, upon the cover or wrapper of a newspaper, pamphlet, magazine, or other printed matter, other than the name or address of the person to whom it is to be sent, and the date when the subscription expires, subjects the package to letter postage.

Infallible Rules for Detecting Counterfeit or Spurious Bank Notes.

RULE 1st.—Examine the shading of the letters in title of Bank called LATHEWORK, which in genuine notes presents an even, straight, light and silky appearance, generally so fine and smooth as to appear to be all in one solid, pale body. In the counterfeit the lines are coarse and irregular, and in many of the longer lines breaks will be perceived, thus presenting a very inferior finish in comparison to genuine work.

2d.—Observe the dies, circles and ovals in the genuine; they are composed of a network of lines, which, by crossing each other at certain angles, produce an endless variety of figures; SEE THREECENT STAMP ATTACHED. The fine line alone is the unit which enables you to detect spurious work. In the counterfeit, the REPRESENTED white lines are coarse, irregular, and cross each other in a confused, irregular manner, thus producing blurred and imperfect figures.

3d.—Examine the form and features of all human figures on the note. In the genuine, the texture of the skin is represented by fine dots and lines intermixed. In the eyes, the pupil is distinctly visible, and the white clearly seen; the nose, mouth and chin, well formed, natural and expressive; the lips are slightly pouting, and the chin well thrown out; and the delicate shading of the neck perfectly harmonizes with the rest of the figure. Observe the fingers and toes; they should be clearly and accurately defined. The hair of the head should show the fine strands and present a natural appearance. The folds of the drapery of human figures should lay natural and present a fine, finished appearance. In the counterfeit the female figure does not bear the natural prominence in outlines; observe, the eyes and shading surrounding does not present the lifelike appearance it should. The fingers and toes are not properly and proportionately defined; the hair does not bear that soft and finished appearance as in the genuine.

4th.—Examine the imprint or engraver's names in the evenness and shape of the fine letters. Counterfeits never bear the imprint perfect. This rule should be strictly observed, as it is infallible in detecting counterfeits.

5th.—In the genuine note the landscapes are well finished; trees and shrubs are neatly drawn; the limbs well proportioned, and the foliage presenting a fine natural appearance; clear sky is formed of fine parallel lines, and when clouds or heavy skies appear, they cross each other, and bear a soft, smooth and natural appearance. The perspective, showing a view of the surrounding country, is always clear and distinct. The small figures in the background are always plainly seen, and their outlines and general character recognized. Ships are well defined and the canvass has a clear texture; railroad cars are very accurately delineated; in examining a train observe carefully the car most distant. In the counterfeit the landscape is usually poorly executed; the leaves of trees poorly and unnaturally defined.—The lines representing still water are scratchy rather than parallel, the sky is represented generally in like manner, and where rolling clouds are to be seen, the unnatural effect is obvious. Domestic animals are generally poorly executed, particularly the head and limbs; the eyes are seldom clearly defined. Ships are poorly drawn, the texture of the canvass coarse and inferior in style of workmanship, thus giving an artificial appearance. Railroad cars are also poorly executed; the car farthest from the eye is usually the most imperfect. The perspective is always imperfect, the figures in the background can seldom be recognized.

6th.—Bills altered from a smaller to a higher denomination, can readily be detected by a close observer, in consequence of the striking difference between the parts which have been extracted and the rest of the note. This difference is readily perceived in the lack of color, body and finish of the dye; we have seen bills where the surrounding shading in altered dies was too dark, but from the back or finish of the white lines you have a sure test. Again observe particularly the words "Five" or "Ten Dollars" as the case may be, denoting the denomination of the note; the parallel outlines and shading (if any) are coarse and imperfect. Alterations are frequently made by pasting a greater denomination over a smaller, but by holding the bill up to the light, the fraud will be perceived. Another method resorted to is to cut out the figures in the dies as well as the words—one dollar, or the words two or three as the case may be, and with a sharp eraser, scrape down the ends and also the edges of the pieces to be inserted; when the pieces thus prepared are affixed they are hardly perceivable; but by passing the note through the hand, so as to feel the die both with the finger and thumb at the same time, the fraud will be detected by the stiffness of the outer edges, "occasioned by the gum or method adopted" in affixing the parts. The letter S should always be examined, as in many alterations it is pasted or stamped at the end of the word "dollar;" and even when stamped there, the carrying out of the outlines for its shading will readily show the fraud. Bills of broken banks are frequently altered by extracting the name of bank, state and town; they may readily be detected by observing first the state, second the title or name of the bank, third the town or location.

GENERAL REMARKS IN REFERENCE TO COUNTERFEITS.—The paper on which they are printed is generally of a very inferior quality, with less body, finish and toughness than bank note paper has. The ink generally lacks the rich luster of the genuine; the red letters and figures are generally imperfect, and the ink does not present the vermilion hue as it should. The printing is generally inferior, usually exhibiting specks of white in the most prominent letters. The date and filling up, and the President's and Cashier's names are generally written by the same person, although in many instances they present a different appearance. There are bills in circulation bearing either genuine dies or vignettes; but upon close examination you will be enabled to detect any spurious bill, whether counterfeit or altered, by the instructions here given, if persevered in for a short time. We beg to suggest, it time will admit, the learner should examine minutely every bill he receives. A powerful pocket magnifying glass, which can be purchased for from fifty cents to one dollar at any of the opticians, will greatly enable you to see and comprehend the difference between genuine and spurious work.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS.

What will my readers give to know how to get rich? Now, I will not vouch that the following rules will enable every person who may read them to acquire wealth; but this I will answer for, that if ever a man does grow rich by honest means, and retains his wealth for any length of time, he must practice upon the principles laid down in the following essay. The remarks are not original with me, but I strongly commend them to the attention of every young man, at least as affording the true secret of success in attaining wealth. A single perusal of such an essay at an impressible moment, has sometimes a very wonderful effect upon the disposition and character.

Fortune, they say, is a fickle dame—full of her freaks and caprices; who blindly distributes her favors without the slightest discrimination. So inconstant, so wavering is she represented, that her most faithful votaries can place no reliance on her promises. Disappointment, they tell us, is the lot of those who make offerings at her shrine. Now, all this is a vile slander upon the dear blind lady.

Although wealth often appears the result of mere accident, or a fortunate concurrence of favorable circumstances without any exertion of skill or foresight, yet any man of sound health and unimpaired mind may become wealthy, if he takes the proper steps.

Foremost in the list of requisites are honesty and strict integrity in every transaction of life. Let a man have the reputation of being fair and upright in his dealings, and he will possess the confidence of all who know him. Without these qualities every other merit will prove unavailing. Ask concerning a man, "Is he active and capable?" Yes. "Industrious, temperate and regular in his habits?"—Oh yes. "Is he honest? Is he trustworthy?" Why, as to that, I am sorry to say that he is not to be trusted; he needs watching; he is a little tricky, and will take an undue advantage, if he can. "Then I will have nothing to do with him," will be the invariable reply. Why, then, is honesty the best policy? Because, without it, you will get a bad name, and everybody will shun you.

A character for knavery will prove an insurmountable obstacle to success in almost every undertaking. It will be found that the straight line is, in business, as in geometry, the shortest. In a word, it is almost impossible for a dishonest man to acquire wealth by a regular process of business, because he is shunned as a deprecator upon society.

Needy men are apt to deviate from the rule of integrity, under the plea that necessity knows no law; they might as well add that it knows no shame. The course is suicidal, and by destroying all confidence, ever keeps them immured in poverty, although they may possess every other quality for success in the world.

Punctuality, which is said to be the soul of business, is another important element in the art of money getting. The man known to be scrupulously exact in the fulfillment of his engagements, gains the confidence of all, and may command all the means he can use with advantage; whereas, a man careless and regardless of his promises in money matters will have every purse closed against him. Therefore be prompt in your payments.

Next, let us consider the advantages of a cautious circumspection in our intercourse with the world. Slowness of belief and a proper distrust are essential to success. The credulous and confiding are ever the dupes of knaves and impostors. Ask those who have lost their property how it happened, and you will find in most cases that it has been owing to misplaced confidence. One has lost by endorsing, another by crediting, another by false representations; all of which a little more foresight and a little more distrust would have prevented. In the affairs of this world men are not saved by faith, but by the want of it.

Judge of men by what they do, not by what they say. Believe in looks rather than words. Observe all their movements. Ascertain their motives and their ends. Notice what they say or do in their unguarded moments, when under the influence of excitement. The passions have been compared to tortures which force men to reveal their secrets. Before trusting a man, before putting it in his power to cause you a loss, possess yourself of every available information relative to him. Learn his history, his habits, inclinations and propensities; his reputation for honor, industry, frugality and punctuality; his prospects, resources, supports, advantages and disadvantages; his intentions and motives of action; who are his friends and enemies, and what are his good or bad qualities. You may learn a man's good qualities and advantages from his friends—his bad qualities and disadvantages from his enemies. Make due allowance for exaggeration in both. Finally, examine carefully before engaging in anything, and act with energy afterwards. Have the hundred eyes of Argus beforehand, and the hundred hands of Briarius afterwards.

Order and system in the management of business must not be neglected. Nothing contributes more to dispatch. Have a place for everything and everything in its place; a time for everything, and everything in its time. Do first what presses most, and having determined what is to be done, and how it is to be done, lose no time in doing it. Without this method all is hurry and confusion, little or nothing is accomplished, and business is attended to with neither pleasure nor profit.

A polite, affable deportment is recommended. Agreeable manners contribute powerfully to a man's success. Take two men, possessing equal advantages in every other respect, but let one be gentlemanly, kind, obliging and conciliating in his manners; the other harsh, rude and disobliging; and the one will become rich, while the other will starve.

We are now to consider a very important principle in the business of money-getting, namely—Industry—persevering, indefatigable attention to business. Persevering diligence is the Philosopher's stone, which turns everything to gold. Constant, regular, habitual and systematic application to business, must in time, if properly directed, produce great results. It must lead to wealth, with the same certainty that poverty follows in the train of idleness and inattention. It has been truly remarked that he who follows his amusements instead of his business, will, in a short time, have no business to follow.

The art of money-saving is an important part of the art of money-getting. Without frugality no one can become rich; with it, few would be poor. Those who consume as fast as they produce, are on the road to ruin. As most of the poverty we meet with grows out of idleness and extravagance, so most large fortunes have been the result of habitual industry and frugality. The practice of economy is as necessary in the expenditure of time as of money. They say if "we take care of the pence the pounds will take care of themselves." So, if we take care of the minutes, the days will take care of themselves.

The acquisition of wealth demands as much self-denial, and as many sacrifices of present gratification, as the practice of virtue itself. Vice and poverty proceed, in some degree, from the same sources, namely—the disposition to sacrifice the future to the present; the inability to forego a small present pleasure for great future advantages. Men fail of fortune in this world, as they fail of happiness in the world to come, simply because they are unwilling to deny themselves momentary enjoyments for the sake of permanent future happiness.

Every large city is filled with persons, who, in order to support the appearance of wealth, constantly live beyond their income, and make up the deficiency by contracting debts which are never paid. Others, there are, the mere drones of society, who pass their days in idleness, and subsist by pirating on the hives of the industrious. Many who run a short lived career of splendid beggary, could they be but persuaded to adopt a system of rigid economy for a few years, might pass the remainder of their days in affluence. But no! They must keep up appearances, they must live like other folks.

Their debts accumulate; their credit fails; they are harassed by duns, and besieged by constables and sheriff. In this extremity, as a last resort, they submit to a shameful dependence, or engage in criminal practices which entail hopeless wretchedness and infamy on themselves and families.

Stick to the business in which you are regularly employed. Let speculators make thousands in a year or a day; mind your own regular trade, never turning from it to the right hand or to the left. If you are a merchant, a professional man, or a mechanic, never buy lots or stocks, unless you have surplus money which you wish to invest. Your own business you understand as well as other men; but other people's business you do not understand. Let your business be some one which is useful to the community. All such occupations possess the elements of profit in themselves.

How to Secure the Public Lands,

OR THE ENTRY OF THE SAME UNDER THE PRE-EMPTION AND HOMESTEAD LAWS.

The following circular gives all necessary information as to the procedure necessary in purchasing and securing the public lands:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, }
GEN'L LAND OFFICE, July 19, 1865. }

Numerous questions having arisen as to the mode of procedure to purchase public lands, or acquire title to the same by bounty land locations, by pre-emptions or by homestead, this circular is communicated for the information of all concerned.

In order to acquire title to public lands the following steps must be taken:

1. Application must be made to the Register of the district land office in which the land desired may be situated.

A list of all the land offices in the United States is furnished by the Department, with the seats of the different offices, where it is the duty of the Register and Receiver to be in attendance, and give proper facilities and information to persons desirous of obtaining lands.

The minimum price of ordinary public lands is $1.25 per acre. The even or reserved sections falling within railroad grants are increased to double the minimum price, being $2.50 per acre.

Lands once offered at public sale, and not afterwards kept out of market by reservation, or otherwise, so as to prevent free competition, may be entered or located.

2. By the applicant filing with the Register his written application describing the tract, with its area; the Register will then certify to the receiver whether the land is vacant, with its price; and when found to be so, the applicant must pay that price per acre, or may locate the same with land warrant, and thereafter the Receiver will give him a "duplicate receipt," which he is required to surrender previous to the delivery to him of the patent, which may be had either by application for it to the Register or to the General Land Office.

3. If the tract has not been offered at public sale it is not liable to ordinary private entry, but may be secured by a party legally qualified, upon his compliance with the requirements of the pre-emption laws of 4th September, 1841, and 3d March, 1843; and after such party shall have made actual settlement for such a length of time as will show he designs it for his permanent home, and is acting in good faith, building a house and residing therein, he may proceed to the district land office, establish his pre-emption claim according to law, by proving his actual residence and cultivation, and showing that he is otherwise within the purview of these acts.— Then he can enter the land at $1.25, either in cash or with bounty land warrant, unless the premises should be $2.50 acre lands. In that case the whole purchase-money can be paid in cash, or one-half in cash, the residue with a bounty land warrant.

4. But if parties legally qualified desire to obtain title under the Homestead Act of 20th May, 1862, they can do so on complying with the Department Circular, dated 30th October, 1862.

5. The law confines Homestead entries to surveyed lands; and although, in certain States and Territories noted in the sub-joined list, pre-emptors may go on land before survey, yet they can only establish their claim after return of survey, but must file their pre-emption declaration within three months after receipt of official plat, at the local land-office where the settlement was made before survey. Where, however, it was made after survey, the claimant must file within three months after date of settlement; and where actual residence and cultivation have been long enough to show that the claimant has made the land his permanent home, he can establish his claim and pay for the same at any time before the date of the public sale of lands within the range in which his settlement may fall.

6. All unoffered surveyed lands not acquired under pre-emption, homestead, or otherwise, under express legal sanction, must be offered at public sale under the President's Proclamation, and struck off to the highest bidder, as required by act of April 24, 1820.

J. M. EDMUNDS,
Commissioner General Land Office.

LAW MAXIMS.

1. A promise of a debtor to give "satisfactory security" for the payment of a portion of his debt, is a sufficient consideration for a release of the residue by his creditor.

2. Administrators are liable to account for interest on funds in their hands, although no profit shall have been made upon them, unless the exigencies of the estate rendered it prudent that they should hold the funds thus uninvested.

3. Any person who voluntarily becomes an agent for another, and in that capacity obtains information to which as a stranger he could have had no access, is bound in subsequent dealing with his principal, as purchaser of the property that formed the subject of his agency, to communicate such information.

4. When a house is rendered untenable in consequence of improvements made on the adjoining lot, the owner of such cannot recover damages, because it is presumed that he had knowledge of the approaching danger in time to protect himself from it.

5. When a merchant ship is abandoned by order of the master, for the purpose of saving life, and a part of the crew subsequently meet the vessel so abandoned and bring her safe into port, they will be entitled to salvage.

6. A person who has been led to sell goods by means of false pretenses, cannot recover them from one who has purchased them in good faith from the fraudulent vendor.

7. An agreement by the holder of a note to give the principal debtor time for payment, without depriving himself of the right to sue, does not discharge the surety.

8. A seller of goods who accepts, at the time of sale, the note of a third party, not endorsed by the buyer, in payment, cannot in case the note is not paid, hold the buyer responsible for the value of the goods.

9. A day-book copied from a "blotter" in which charges are first made, will not be received in evidence as a book of original entries.

10. Common carriers are not liable for extraordinary results of negligence that could not have been foreseen by ordinary skill and foresight.

11. A bidder at a Sheriff's sale may retract his bid at any time before the property is knocked down to him, whatever may be the conditions of the sale.

12. Acknowledgment of debt to a stranger does not preclude the operation of the statute.

13. The fruits and grass on the farm or garden of an intestate descend to the heir.

14. Agents are solely liable to their principals.

15. A deposit of money in bank by a husband, in the name of his wife, survives to her.

16. Money paid on Sunday contracts may be recovered.

17. A debtor may give preference to one creditor over another, unless fraud or special legislation can be proved.

18. A court cannot give judgment for a larger sum than that specified in the verdict.

19. Imbecility on the part of either husband or wife, invalidates the marriage.

20. An action for malicious prosecution will lie, though nothing further was done than suing out warrants.

21. An agreement not to continue the practice of a profession or business in any specified town, if the party so agreeing has received a consideration for the same, is valid.

22. When A consigns goods to B to sell on commission, and B delivers them to C, in payment of his own antecedent debts, A can recover their value.

23. A finder of property is compelled to make diligent inquiry for the owner thereof, and to restore the same. If, on finding such property, he attempts to conceal such fact, he may be prosecuted for larceny.

24. A private person may obtain an injunction to prevent a public mischief by which he is affected in common with others.

25. Any person interested may obtain an injunction to restrain the State or a municipal corporation from maintaining a nuisance on its lands.

26. A discharge under the insolvent laws of one State will not discharge the insolvent from a contract made with a citizen of another State.

27. To prosecute a party with any other motive than to bring him to justice, is malicious prosecution, and actionable as such.

28. Ministers of the gospel, residing in any incorporated town, are not exempt from jury, military, or fire service.

29. When a person contracts to build a house, and is prevented by sickness from finishing it, he can recover for the part performed, if such part is beneficial to the other party.

30. In a suit for enticing away a man's wife, actual proof of the marriage is not necessary. Cohabitation, reputation, and the admission of marriage by the parties, are sufficient.

31. Permanent erections and fixtures, made by a mortgagor after the execution of the mortgage upon land conveyed by it, become a part of the mortgaged premises.

32. When a marriage is denied, and plaintiff has given sufficient evidence to establish it, the defendant cannot examine the wife to disprove the marriage.

33. The amount of an express debt cannot be enlarged by application.

34. Contracts for advertisements in Sunday newspapers cannot be enforced.

35. A seller of goods, chattels, or other property, commits no fraud, in law, when he neglects to tell the purchaser of any flaws, defects, or unsoundness in the same.

36. The opinions of witnesses, as to the value of a dog that has been killed, are not admissible in evidence. The value of the animal is to be decided by the jury.

37. If any person puts a fence on or plows the land of another, he is liable for trespass whether the owner has sustained injury or not.

38. If a person, who is unable from illness to sign his will, has his hand guided in making his mark, the signature is valid.

39. When land trespassed upon is occupied by a tenant, he alone can bring the action.

40. To say of a person, "If he does not come and make terms with me, I will make a bankrupt of him and ruin him," or any such threatening language, is actionable, without proof of special damage.

41. In an action for slander, the party making the complaint must prove the words alleged; other words of like meaning will not suffice.

42. In a suit of damages for seduction, proof of pregnancy, and the birth of a child, is not essential. It is sufficient if the illness of the girl, whereby she was unable to labor, was produced by shame for the seduction; and this is such a loss of service as will sustain the action.

43. Addressing to a wife a letter containing matter defamatory to the character of her husband is a publication, and renders the writer amenable to damages.

44. A parent cannot sustain an action for any wrong done to a child, unless he has incurred some direct pecuniary injury therefrom in consequence of some loss of service or expenses necessarily consequent thereupon.

45. A master is responsible for an injury resulting from the negligence of his servant, whilst driving his cart or carriage, provided the servant is at the time engaged in his master's business, even though the accident happens in a place to which his master's business does not call him; but if the journey of a servant be solely for a purpose of his own, and undertaken without the knowledge and consent of his master, the latter is not responsible.

46. An emigrant depot is not a nuisance in law.

47. A railroad track through the streets is not a nuisance in law.

48. If an agreement upon which a party relies be oral only, it must be proved by evidence. But if the contract be reduced to writing, it proves itself; and now no evidence whatever is receivable for the purpose of varying the contract or affecting its obligations. The reasons are obvious. The law prefers written to oral evidence, from its greater precision and certainty, and because it is less open to fraud. And where parties have closed a negotiation and reduced the result to writing, it is presumed that they have written all they intended to agree to, and therefore, that what is omitted was finally rejected by them.—[PARSONS.
49. Delivery of a husband's goods by a wife to her adulterer, he having knowledge that she has taken them without her husband's authority, is sufficient to sustain an indictment for larceny against the adulterer.
50. The fact that the insurer was not informed of the existence of impending litigation, affecting the premises insured, at the time the insurance was effected, does not vitiate the policy.
51. The liability of an innkeeper is not confined to personal baggage, but extends to all the property of the guest that he consents to receive.
52. When a minor executes a contract, and pays money, or delivers property on the same, he cannot afterwards disaffirm such contract and recover the money, or property, unless he restores to the other party the consideration received from him for such money or property.
53. When a person has, by legal inquisition been found an habitual drunkard, he cannot, even in his sober intervals, make contracts to bind himself or his property, until the inquisition is removed.
54. Any person dealing with the representative of a deceased person, is presumed, in law, to be fully apprized of the extent of such representative's authority to act in behalf of such estate.
55. In an action against a railroad company, by a passenger, to recover damages for injuries sustained on the road, it is not compulsory upon the plaintiff to prove actual negligence in the defendants; but it is obligatory on the part of the latter to prove that the injury was not owing to any fault or negligence of theirs.
56. A guest is a competent witness, in an action between himself and an inn-keeper, to prove the character and value of lost personal baggage. Money in a trunk, not exceeding the amount reasonably required by the traveler to defray the expenses of the journey which he has undertaken, is a part of his baggage; and in case of its loss, while at any inn, the plaintiff may prove its amount by his own testimony.
57. The deed of a minor is not absolutely void. The court is authorized to judge, from the instrument, whether it is void or not, according to its terms being favorable or unfavorable to the interests of the minor.
58. A married woman can neither sue nor be sued on any contract made by her during her marriage, except in an action relating to her individual property. The action must be commenced either by or against her husband. It is only when an action is brought on a contract made by her before her marriage, that she is to be joined as a co-plaintiff, or defendant, with her husband.
59. Any contract made with a person judicially declared a lunatic is void.
60. Money paid voluntarily in any transaction, with a knowledge of the facts, cannot be recovered.
61. In all cases of special contract for services, except in the case of a minor, the plaintiff can recover only the amount stipulated in the contract.
62. A wife is a competent witness with her husband, to prove the contents of a lost trunk, or when a party.
63. A wife cannot be convicted of receiving stolen goods when she received them of her husband.
64. Insurance against fire, by lightning or otherwise, does not cover loss by lightning when there is no combustion.
65. Failure to prove plea of justification, in a case of slander, aggravates the offence.
66. It is the agreement of the parties to sell by sample that constitutes a sale by sample, not the mere exhibition of a specimen of the goods.
67. An agent is liable to his principals for loss caused by his misstatements, though unintentional.
68. Makers of promissory notes given in advance for premiums on policies of insurance, thereafter to be taken, are liable thereon.
69. An agreement to pay for procuring an appointment to office is void.
70. An attorney may plead the statute of limitations, when sued by a client for money which he has collected and failed to pay over.
71. Testimony given by a deceased witness on first trial, is not required to be repeated verbatim on the second.
72. A person entitling himself to a reward offered for lost property, has a lien upon the property for the reward; but only when a definite reward is offered.
73. Confession by a prisoner must be voluntarily made, to constitute evidence against him.
74. The defendant in a suit must be served with process; but service of such process upon his wife, even in his absence from the State, is not, in the absence of statutory provisions, sufficient.

75. The measure of damages in trespass for cutting timber, is its value as a chattel on the land where it was felled, and not the market price of the lumber manufactured.

76. To support an indictment for malicious mischief in killing an animal, malice towards its owner must be shown, not merely passion excited against the animal itself.

77. No action can be maintained against a sheriff for omitting to account for money obtained upon an execution within a reasonable time. He has till the return day to render such account.

78. An interest in the profits of an enterprise, as profits, renders the party holding it a partner in the enterprise, and makes him presumptively liable to share any loss.

79. Males can marry at fourteen, and females at twelve years of age.

80. All cattle found at large upon any public road, can be driven by any person to the public pound.

81. Any dog chasing, barking, or otherwise threatening a passer-by in any street, lane, road, or other public thoroughfare, may be lawfully killed for the same.

82. A written promise for the payment of such amount as may come into the hands of the promisor, is held to be an instrument in writing for the payment of money.

83. The declaration of an agent is not admissible to establish the fact of agency.—But when other proper evidence is given, tending to establish the fact of agency, it is not error to admit the declarations of the agent, accompanying acts, though tending to show the capacity in which he acted. When evidence is competent in one respect and incompetent in another, it is the duty of the court to admit it, and control its effects by suitable instructions to the jury.

84. The court has a general power to remove or suspend an attorney for such immoral conduct as rendered him unworthy of confidence in his official capacity.

85. Bankruptcy is pleadable in bar to all actions and in all courts, and this bar may be avoided whenever it is interposed, by showing fraud in the procurement of the discharge, or a violation of any of the provisions of the bankrupt act.

86. An instrument in the form of a deed, but limited to take effect at the termination of the grantor's natural life, is held to be a deed, not a will.

87. A sale will not be set aside as fraudulent, simply because the buyer was at the time unable to make the payment agreed upon, and knew his inability, and did not intend to pay.

88. No man is under an obligation to make known his circumstances when he is buying goods.

89. Contracting parties are bound to disclose material facts known to each, but of which either supposes the other to be ignorant, only when they stand in some special relation of trust and confidence in relation to the subject matter of the contract. But neither will be protected if he does anything, however slight, to mislead or deceive the other.

90. A contract negotiated by mail is formed when notice of acceptance of the offer is duly deposited in the post-office, properly addressed. This rule applies, although the party making the offer expressly requires that if it is accepted, speedy notice of acceptance shall be given him.

91. The date of an instrument is so far a material part of it, that an alteration of the date by the holder after execution, makes the instrument void.

92. A corporation may maintain an action for libel, for words published of them and relating to its trade or business, by which it has incurred special damages.

93. It is unprofessional for a lawyer who has abandoned his case without trying it, a term or two before trial, to claim a fee conditional upon the success of his client, although his client was successful.

94. Although a party obtaining damages for injuries received through the default of another, was himself guilty of negligence, yet that will not defeat his recovery, unless his negligence contributed to cause the injury.

95. A person may contract to labor for another during life, in consideration of receiving his support; but his creditors have the right to inquire into the intention with which such arrangement is made, and it will be set aside if entered into to deprive them of his future earnings.

96. A grantor may by express terms exclude the bed of a river, or a highway, mentioned as boundary; but if without language of exclusion a line is described as 'along,' or 'upon,' or as 'running to' the highway or river, or as 'by,' or 'running to the bank of' the river; these expressions carry the grantee to the center of the highway or river.

97. The court will take pains to construe the words used in a deed in such a way as to effect the intention of the parties, however unskillfully the instrument may be drawn. But a court of law cannot exchange an intelligible word plainly employed in a deed for another, however evident it may be that the word used was used by mistake for another.

98. One who has lost his memory and understanding is entitled to legal protection, whether such loss is occasioned by his own misconduct or by an act of Providence.

99. When a wife leaves her husband voluntarily, it must be shown, in order to make him liable for necessaries furnished to her, that she could not stay with safety. Personal violence, either threatened or inflicted, will be sufficient cause for such separation.

100. Necessaries of dress furnished to a discarded wife must correspond with the pecuniary circumstances of the husband, and be such articles as the wife, if prudent, would expect, and the husband should furnish, if the parties lived harmoniously together.

101. A fugitive from justice from one of the United States to another, may be arrested and detained in order to his surrender by authority of the latter, without a previous demand for his surrender by the executive of the State whence he fled.

102. A watch will not pass under a bequest of "wearing apparel," nor of "household furniture and articles for family use."

103. Money paid for the purpose of settling or compounding a prosecution for a supposed felony, cannot be recovered back by a party paying it.

104. An innkeeper is liable for the death of an animal in his possession, but may free himself from liability by showing that the death was not occasioned by negligence on his part.

105. Notice to the agent of a company is notice to the company.

106. An employer is not liable to one of his employes for an injury sustained by the latter in consequence of the neglect of others of his employes engaged in the same general business.

107. Where a purchaser at a Sheriff's sale has bid the full price of property under the erroneous belief that the sale would divest the property of all liens, it is the duty of the court to give relief by setting aside the sale.

108. When notice of protest is properly sent by mail, it may be sent by the mail of the day of the dishonor; if not, it must be mailed for the mail of the next day, except that if there is none, or it closes at an unseasonably early hour, then notice must be mailed in season for the next possible mail.

109. A powder-house located in a populous part of a city, and containing large quantities of gunpowder, is a nuisance.

110. When the seller of goods accepts at the time of the sale, the note of a third person, unindorsed by the purchaser, in payment, the presumption is that the payment was intended to be absolute; and though the note should be dishonored, the purchaser will not be liable for the value of the goods.

111. A man charged with crime before a committing magistrate, but discharged on his own recognizance, is not privileged from arrest on civil process while returning from the magistrate's office.

112. When one has been induced to sell goods by means of false pretences, he cannot recover them from one who has bona fide purchased and obtained possession of them from the fraudulent vendor.

113. If the circumstances attendant upon a sale and delivery of personal property are such as usually and naturally accompany such a transaction, it cannot be declared a legal fraud upon creditors.

114. A stamp impressed upon an instrument by way of seal, is good as a seal, if it creates a durable impression in the texture of the paper.

115. If a party bound to make a payment use due diligence to make a tender, but through the payee's absence from home is unable to find him or any agent authorized to take payment for him, no forfeiture will be incurred through his failure to make a tender.

Government Land Measure.

A township, 36 sections, each a mile square.

A section, 640 acres.

A quarter section, half a mile square, 160 acres.

An eighth section, half a mile long, north and south, and a quarter of a mile wide, 80 acres.

A sixteenth section, a quarter of a mile square, 40 acres.

The sections are numbered from one to thirty-six, commencing at the northeast corner, thus:

6	5	4	3	2	n	w	e
7	8	9	10	11	12
18	17	16	15	14	13
19	20	21	22	23	24
30	29	28	27	26	25
31	32	33	34	35	36

The sections are all divided in quarters, which are named by the cardinal points, as in section one. The quarters are divided in the same way. The description of a 40 acre lot would read: The south half of the west half of the southwest quarter of section 1 in township 24, north of range 7 west, or as the case might be; and sometimes will fall short, and sometimes overrun the number of acres it is supposed to contain.

THE DECIMAL SYSTEM OF WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

As Authorized by Act of Congress--Approved July 28, 1866.

STANDARDS.

In every system of Weights and Measures it is necessary to have what are called "Standards," as the pound, yard, gallon, &c., to be divided and multiplied into smaller and larger parts and denominations. The definition and construction of these Standards involve philosophical and scientific principles of a somewhat abstruse character, and are made and procured by the legislative department of the government. The nominal Standards in the new system are the METER, the ARE, the LITER, and the GRAM. The only real Standard, the one by which all the other standards are measured, and from which the system derives its name of "Metric," is the METER.

THE METER.

Is used for all measures of length, distance, breadth, depth, height, &c., and was intended to be, and is very nearly, one ten-millionth of the distance on the earth's surface from the equator to the pole. It is about 39 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches, or 3 feet, 3 inches and 3 eighths, and is to be substituted for the yard.

THE ARE

Is a surface whose side is ten Meters, and is equal to 100 square Meters or about 4 square rods.

THE LITER

Is the unit for measuring solids and capacity, and is equal to the contents of a cube whose edge is one-tenth of a meter. It is about equal to 1 quart, and is a standard in cubic, dry and liquid measures.

☞ A cubic Meter (or Kiloliter) is called a stere, and is also used as a standard in certain cubic measures.

THE GRAM

Is the Unit of weight, and is the weight of a cube of pure water, each edge of the cube being one one-hundredth of a Meter. It is about equal to 15 $\frac{1}{2}$  grains. It is intended as the Standard in all weights, and with its divisions and multiples, to supersede the use of what are now called Avoirdupois, Apothecaries and Troy Weights.

Each of the foregoing Standards is divided decimally, and larger units are also formed by multiples of 10, 100, &c. The successive subordinate parts are designated by the prefixes Deci, Centi and Milli; the successive multiples by Deka, Hecto, Kilo and Myria; each having its own numerical signification, as will be more clearly seen in the tables hereinafter given.

The terms used may, at first sight, have a formidable appearance, seem difficult to pronounce, and to retain in memory, and to be, therefore, objectionable; but with a little attention and use, the apprehended difficulty will be found more apparent than real, as has been abundantly proved by experience. The importance, also, of conformity in the use of commercial terms, on the part of the United States, with the practice of the many nations in which the system, with its present nomenclature, has already been adopted, must greatly overbalance the comparatively slight objection alluded to.

TABLES.

OLD.	MONEY.	NEW.
4 farthing make	1 penny.	10 mills make 1 cent.
12 pence "	1 shilling.	10 cents " 1 dime.
20 shillings "	1 pound.	10 dimes " 1 dollar.

LONG AND CLOTH MEASURE.—NEW.

10 millimeters	make	1 centimeter.
10 centimeters	"	1 decimeter.
10 decimeters	"	1 METER.
10 meters	"	1 dekameter.
10 dekameters	"	1 hectometer.
10 hectometers	"	1 kilometer.
10 kilometers	"	1 myriameter.

SQUARE MEASURE.—NEW.

100 square millimeters	make	1 square centimeter.
100 square centimeters	"	1 square decimeter.
100 square decimeters	"	1 square meter or CENTARE.
100 centares	"	1 ARE.
100 ares	"	1 hectare.

The denominations less than the Are, including the Meter, are used in specifying the contents of surfaces of small extent; the terms Centare, Are and Hectare, in expressing quantities of land surveyed or measured.

The above table may, however, be continued beyond the Meter, thus:

100 square meters	make	1 square dekameter.
100 square dekameters	"	1 square hectometer.
100 square hectometers	"	1 square kilometer.
100 square kilometers	"	1 square myriameter.

CUBIC MEASURE.—NEW.

For Solids.

1000 cubic millimeters	make	1 cubic centimeter.
1000 cubic centimeters	"	1 cubic decimeter or liter.
1000 cubic decimeters	"	1 cubic meter or stere.
1000 cubic meters	"	1 cubic dekameter.
1000 cubic dekameters	"	1 cubic hectometer.
1000 cubic hectometers	"	1 cubic kilometer.
1000 cubic kilometers	"	1 cubic myriameter.

For Dry and Liquid Measures.

10 milliliters	make	1 centiliter.
10 centiliters	"	1 deciliter.
10 deciliters	"	1 LITER.
10 liters	"	1 dekaliter.
10 dekaliters	"	1 hectoliter.
10 hectoliters	"	1 kiloliter.
10 kiloliters	"	1 myrialiter.

[A LITER, the standard of Measures of Capacity, usually in a cylindrical form, is equivalent to a cubic Decimeter, or the one-thousandth part of a cubic Meter, the contents of which are about one quart.]

The Kiloliter, or STERE, is a cubic Meter, and is used as a unit in measuring firewood and lumber.

10 decisteres	make	1 stere.
10 steres	"	1 dekastere.

ALL WEIGHTS.—NEW.

10 milligrams	make	1 centigram.
10 centigrams	"	1 decigram.
10 decigrams	"	1 GRAM.
10 grams	"	1 dekagram.
10 dekagrams	"	1 hectogram.
10 hectograms	"	1 kilogram.
10 kilograms	"	1 myriagram.
10 myriagrams	"	1 quintal.
10 quintals	"	1 millier or tonneau.

Acts and Resolutions of Congress.

PUBLIC—No. 183.

AN ACT to authorize the use of the metric system of weights and measures.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful throughout the United States of America to employ the weights and measures of the metric system; and no contract or dealing, or pleading in any court, shall be deemed invalid or liable to objection, because the weights or measures expressed or referred to therein arc weights or measures of the metric system.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the tables in the schedule hereto annexed, shall be recognized in the construction of contracts, and in all legal proceedings, as establishing, in terms of the weights and measures now in use in the United States, the equivalents of the weights and measures expressed therein in terms of the metric system; and said tables may be lawfully used for computing, determining and expressing, in customary weights and measures, the weights and measures of the metric system.

Discount and Premium.

When a person buys an article for $1.00—20 per cent off, (or discount,) and sells it again for $1.00, he makes a profit of 25 per cent. on his investment. Thus: He pays 80 cents and sells for $1.00—a gain of 20 cents, or 25 per cent of 80 cents. And for any transaction where the sale or purchase of gold, silver, or currency is concerned, the following rules will apply in all cases.

RULE 1st.—To find premium when discount is given: Multiply 100 by rate of discount and divide by 100, less rate of discount.

RULE 2d.—To find discount when premium is given. Multiply the rate of interest by 100, and divide by 100, plus the rate of premium.

Suppose A has $140 in currency, which he wishes to exchange for gold, when gold is 27 per cent. premium, how much gold should he receive? In this case the premium is given, consequently we must find the discount on A's currency and subtract it from the $140, as per rule 2d, showing the discount to be a trifle more than 21 per cent. and that he should receive $110.60 in gold.

Facts on Advertising.

The advertisements in an ordinary number of the London Times exceed 2,500. The annual advertising bills of one London firm are said to amount to $200,000; and three others are mentioned who each annually expend for the purpose $50,000. The expense for advertising the eight editions of the "Encyclopedia Britannica" is said to have been $15,000.

In large cities nothing is more common than to see large business establishments, which seem to have an immense advantage over all competitors, by the wealth, experience, and prestige they have acquired, drop gradually out of public view, and be succeeded by firms of a smaller capital, more energy, and more determined to have the fact that they sell such and such commodities known from one end of the land to the other. In other words, the establishments advertise; the old die of dignity.—The former are ravenous to pass out of obscurity into publicity; the latter believe that their publicity is so obvious that it cannot be obscured. The first understand that they must thrust themselves upon public attention, or be disregarded; the second, having once obtained public attention, suppose they have arrested it permanently; while, in fact, nothing is more characteristic of the world than the ease with which it forgets.

Stephen Girard, than whom no shrewder business man ever lived, used to say: I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule too, to advertise in the dullest times as well as the busiest; long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out; as by keeping my business continually before the public it has secured me many sales that I would otherwise have lost.

Brilliant Whitewash.

Many have heard of the brilliant stucco whitewash on the east end of the President's house at Washington. The following is a recipe for it; it is gleaned from the National Intelligencer, with some additional improvements learned by experiments: Take half a bushel of nice unslacked lime, slack it with boiling water, cover it during the process to keep in the steam. Strain the liquid through a fine sieve or strainer, and add to it a peck of salt, previously well dissolved in warm water; three pounds of ground rice, boiled to a thin paste, and stirred in boiling hot; half a pound of powdered Spanish whiting, and a pound of clean glue, which has been previously dissolved by soaking it well, and then hanging it over a slow fire, in a small kettle within a large one filled with water. Add five gallons of hot water to the mixture, stir it well, and let it stand a few days covered from the dirt.

It should be put on right hot; for this purpose it can be kept in a kettle on a portable furnace. It is said that about a pint of this mixture will cover a square yard upon the outside of a house if properly applied. Brushes more or less small may be used according to the neatness of the job required. It answers as well as oil paint for wood, brick or stone, and is cheaper. It retains its brilliancy for many years. There is nothing of the kind that will compare with it, either for inside or outside walls.

Coloring matter may be put in and made of any shade you like. Spanish brown stirred in will make red pink, more or less deep according to the quantity. A delicate tinge of this is very pretty, for inside walls. Finely pulverized common clay, well mixed with Spanish brown, makes a reddish stone color. Yellow-ochre stirred in makes yellow wash, but chrome goes further, and makes a color generally esteemed prettier. In all these cases the darkness of the shades of course is determined by the quantity of coloring used. It is difficult to make rules, because tastes are different. It would be best to try experiments on a shingle and let it dry. We have been told that green must not be mixed with lime. The lime destroys the color, and the color has an effect on the whitewash, which makes it crack and peel. When walls have been badly smoked, and you wish to have them a clean white, it is well to squeeze indigo plentifully through a bag into the water you use, before it is stirred in the whole mixture. If a larger quantity than five gallons be wanted, the same proportion should be observed.

How to get a Horse out of a Fire.

The great difficulty of getting horses from a stable where surrounding buildings are in a state of conflagration, is well known.—The plan of covering their eyes with a blanket will not always succeed.

A gentleman whose horses have been in great peril from such a cause, having tried in vain to save them, hit upon the expedient of having them harnessed as though going to their usual work, when, to his astonishment, they were led from the stable without difficulty.

The Chemical Barometer.

Take a long narrow bottle, such as an old-fashioned Eau-de-Cologne bottle, and put into it two and a half drachms of camphor, and eleven drachms of spirits of wine; when the camphor is dissolved, which it will readily do by slight agitation, add the following mixture: Take water, nine drachms; nitrate of potash (saltpetre) thirty-eight grains; and muriate of ammonia (sal ammoniac) thirty-eight grains. Dissolve these salts in the water prior to mixing with the camphorated spirit; then shake the whole well together. Cork the bottle well, and wax the top, but afterwards make a very small aperture in the cork with a red-hot needle. The bottle may then be hung up, or placed in any stationary position. By observing the different appearances which the materials assume, as the weather changes, it becomes an excellent prognosticator of a coming storm or of a sunny sky.

Leech Barometer.

Take an eight ounce phial, and put in it three gills of water, and place in it a healthy leech, changing the water in summer once a week, and in winter once in a fortnight, and it will most accurately prognosticate the weather. If the weather is to be fine, the leech lies motionless at the bottom of the glass and coiled together in a spiral form; if rain may be expected, it will creep up to the top of its lodgings and remain there till the weather is settled; if we are to have wind, it will move through its habitation with amazing swiftness, and seldom goes to rest till it begins to blow hard; if a remarkable storm of thunder and rain is to succeed, it will lodge for some days before almost continually out of the water, and discover great uneasiness in violent throes and convulsive-like motions; in frost as in clear summer-like weather it lies constantly at the bottom; and in snow as in rainy weather it pitches its dwelling in the very mouth of the phial. The top should be covered over with a piece of muslin.

TO MEASURE GRAIN IN A BIN.—Find the number of cubic feet, from which deduct one-fifth. The remainder is the number of bushels—allowing, however, one bushel extra to every 24. Thus in a remainder of 224 there would be 225 bushels. In a remainder of 418 there would be 450 bushels, &c.

VALUABLE RECIPES.

[The following recipes are vouched for by several who have tried them and proven their virtues. Many of them have been sold singly for more than the price of this book.—Pub.]

HORSES.

RINO BONE AND SPAVIN.—2 oz. each of Spanish flies and Venice turpentine; 1 oz. each of aqua ammonia and euphorbium;  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. red precipitate;  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. corrosive sublimate; 1 $\frac{1}{2}$  lbs. lard. When thoroughly pulverized and mixed, heat carefully so as not to burn, and pour off free from sediment.

For ring-bone, rub in thoroughly, after removing hair, once in 48 hours. For spavin, once in 24 hours. Cleanse and press out the matter on each application.

POLL-EVIL.—Gum arabic  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz; common potash  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz; extract of belladonna  $\frac{1}{2}$  dr. Put the gum in just enough water to dissolve it. Pulverize the potash and mix with the dissolved gum, and then put in the extract of belladonna, and it will be ready for use. Use with a syringe after having cleansed with soap suds, and repeat once in two days till a cure is affected.

SCOURS.—Powdered tormentil root, given in milk, from 3 to 5 times daily till cured.

GREASE-HEEL AND SCRATCHES.—Sweet oil 6 ozs.; borax 2 ozs.; sugar of lead 2 ozs. Wash off with dish water, and, after it is dry, apply the mixture twice a day.

CHOLIC IN HORSES.—To  $\frac{1}{2}$  pt. of warm water add 1 oz. laudanum and 3 ozs. spirits of turpentine, and repeat the dose in about  $\frac{1}{2}$  of an hour, adding  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. powdered aloes, if not relieved.

BOTS.—Three doses. 1st. 2 qts milk and 1 of molasses. 2d. 15 minutes after, 2 qts. warm sage tea. 3d. After the expiration of 30 minutes, sufficient lard to physic.—Never fails.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PILES—PERFECTLY CURED.—Take flour of sulphur 1 oz., rosin 3 ozs., pulverize and mix well together. (Color with carmine or cochineal, if you like.) Dose—What will lie on a five-cent piece, night and morning, washing the parts freely in cold water once or twice a day. This is a remedy of great value.

The cure will be materially hastened by taking a table-spoon of sulphur in a half pint of milk, daily, until the cure is affected.

SURE CURE FOR CORNS, WARTS AND CHILBLAINS.—Take of nitric and muriatic acids, blue vitriol and salts of tartar, 1 oz. each. Add the blue vitriol, pulverized, to either of the acids; add the salts of tartar in the same way; when done foaming, add the other acid, and in a few days it will be ready for use. For chilblains and corns apply it very lightly with a swab, and repeat in a day or two until cured. For warts, once a week, until they disappear.

HOOF-AIL IN SHEEP.—Mix 2 ozs. each of butter of antimony and muriatic acid with 1 oz. of pulverized white vitriol, and apply once or twice a week to the bottom of the foot.

COMMON RHEUMATISM.—Kerosene oil 2 ozs.; heats-foot oil 1 oz.; oil of organum  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. Shake when used, and rub and heat in twice daily.

VERY FINE SOAP, QUICKLY AND CHEAPLY MADE.—Fourteen pounds of bar soap in a half a boiler of hot water; cut up fine; add three pounds of sal-soda made fine; one ounce of pulverized rosin; stir it often till all is dissolved; just as you take it off the fire, put in two table-spoonfuls of spirits of turpentine and one of ammonia; pour it in a barrel, and fill up with cold soft water; let it stand three or four days before using. It is an excellent soap for washing clothes, extracting the dirt readily, and not fading colored articles.

WATER PROOF FOR LEATHER.—Take linseed oil 1 pint, yellow wax and white turpentine each 2 ozs. Burgandy pitch 1 oz., mott and color with lampblack.

TO KEEP CIDER SWEET.—Put into each barrel, immediately after making,  $\frac{1}{2}$  lb. ground mu-tard, 2 oz. salt and 2 oz. pulverized chalk. Stir them in a little cider, pour them into the barrel, and shake up well.

AGUE CURE.—Procure  $1\frac{1}{2}$  table-spoons of fresh mandrake root juice, (by pounding) and mix with the same quantity of molasses, and take in three equal doses, 2 hours apart, the whole to be taken 1 hour before the chill comes on. Take a swallow of some good bitters before meals, for a couple of weeks after the chills are broken, and the cure will be permanent.

CURE FOR SALT RHEUM OR SCURVY.—Take of the pokeweed, any time in summer; pound it; press out the juice; strain it into a pewter dish; set it in the sun till it becomes a salve—then put it into an earthen mug; add to it fresh water and bees' wax sufficient to make an ointment of common consistency; simmer the whole over a fire till thoroughly mixed. When cold, rub the part affected. The patient will almost immediately experience its good effects, and the most obstinate cases will be cured in three or four months. Tested.—The juice of the ripe berries may be prepared in the same way.

SUPERIOR PAINT—FOR BRICK HOUSES.—To lime whitewash, add for a fastener, sulphate of zinc, and shade with any color you choose, as yellow ochre, Venetian red, etc. It outlasts oil paint.

FELONS.—Stir 1 oz. of Venice turpentine with  $\frac{1}{2}$  tea-spoonful of water, till it looks like candied honey, and apply by spreading upon cloth and wrapping around the finger. If not too long delayed will cure in 6 hours.

A poke root poultice is also said to be a sure remedy.

WATER-PROOF BLACKING AND HARNESS POLISH.—Take two and a half ounces gum shellac and half a pint of alcohol, and set in a warm place until dissolved; then add two and a half ounces Venice turpentine to neutralize the alcohol; add a table-spoonful of lampblack. Apply with a fine sponge. It will give a good polish over oil or grease.

MOSQUITOS.—To get rid of these tormentors, take a few hot coals on a shovel, or a chafing dish, and burn upon them some brown sugar in your bed-rooms and parlors, and you effectually banish or destroy every mosquito for the night.

CHEAP OUTSIDE PAINT.—Take two parts (in bulk) of water lime ground fine, one part (in bulk) of white lead ground in oil. Mix them thoroughly, by adding best boiled linseed oil, enough to prepare it to pass through a paint mill, after which temper with oil till it can be applied with a common paint brush. Make any color to suit. It will last three times as long as lead paint, and cost not one-fourth as much. It is SUPERIOR.

CURE FOR A COUGH.—A strong decoction of the leaves of the pine, sweetened with loaf-sugar. Take a wine-glass warm on going to bed, and half an hour before eating three times a day. The above is sold as a cough syrup, and is doing wonderful cures, and it is sold at a great profit to the manufacturers.

How to Judge a Horse.

A correspondent, contrary to old maxims, undertakes to judge the character of a horse by outward appearances, and offers the following suggestions, the result of his close observation and long experience:

If the color be light sorrell, or chestnut, his feet, legs and face white, these are marks of kindness. If he is broad and full between the eyes, he may be depended on as a horse of good sense, and capable of being trained to anything.

As respects such horses, the more kindly you treat them the better you will be treated in return. Nor will a horse of this description stand a whip, if well fed.

If you want a safe horse, avoid one that is di-h-faced. He may be so far gentle as not to scare; but he will have too much go-ahead in him to be safe with everybody.

If you want a fool, but a horse of great bottom, get a deep bay, with not a white hair about him. If his face is a little dished, so much the worse. Let no man ride such a horse that is not an adept in riding—they are always tricky and unsafe.

If you want one that will never give out, never buy a large, overgrown one.

A black horse cannot stand heat, nor a white one cold.

If you want a gentle horse, get one with more or less white about the head; the more the better. Many persons suppose the parti-colored horses belonging to the circuses, shows, &c., are selected for their oddity. But the selections thus made are on account of their great docility and gentleness.

Measurement of Hay in the Mow or Stack.

—It is often desirable, where conveniences for weighing are not at hand, to purchase and sell hay by measurement. It is evident that no fixed rule will answer in all cases, as it would require more cubic feet at the top of a mow than at the bottom. The general rule adopted by those who have tested it, is that a cube, each side of which shall measure eight feet, of solid Timothy hay, as taken from mow or bottom of stack will weigh a ton. The rule may be varied for upper part of mow or stack according to pressure.

EXPLANATION.—Find the Year and observe the Letter above it; then look for the Month, and in a line with it find the Letter of the Year; above the Letter find the Day; and the figures on the left, in the same line, are the days of the same name in the month.

Leap Years have two letters; the first is used till the end of February, the second during the remainder of the year.

SARATOGA COUNTY.

THIS COUNTY was formed from Albany February 7, 1791. It lies in the north angle formed by the junction of the Hudson and Mohawk Rivers. It is centrally distant thirty-one miles from Albany and contains 862 square miles. The surface is hilly or undulating in the south and mountainous in the north. The Palmertown or Luzerne Mountains, in the east part, extend from Warren County, through the west part of Moreau and Milton, and the east part of Corinth, into Greenfield, where they terminate in a series of low irregular hills. On the north border of the County, Hudson River breaks through this range in a deep ravine about three miles in length. The mountains rise abruptly from the water's edge to a height of 800 feet. Their declivities are rocky and precipitous, and their summits spread out into a broad rocky upland, covered with forests. The Kayaderosseras Mountains extend through the north part of the County and occupy a greater part of Corinth, Day, Edinburgh and Hadley. Their declivities are generally precipitous, and their summits spread out into broad rocky uplands, broken by ledges and rocky peaks. Extending through the west part of Stillwater and Saratoga is a group of isolated hills, with rounded summits and terraced declivities, rising to a height of 450 feet. Along the Hudson is a broad flat, bordered by a range of clay bluffs from 40 to 200 feet in height. An extensive sand plain extends westward from the summit of these bluffs to the foot of the mountains, and covering a greater part of Moreau, Wilton, Northumberland, Saratoga Springs, Malta and Clifton Park. The south-west portion of the County is rolling or moderately hilly. Hudson River flows nearly seventy miles along the east and north-east border of the County. It is interrupted by falls and is crossed by dams and bridges in various places. The Mohawk forms a portion of the south boundary. The Sacondaga River flows through the north-west part in a deep tortuous channel. It forms the chief outlet of the lakes in the south part of Hamilton County, and is navigable for boats of light draught from Fish House, on the border of Fulton County, to Conklinville Falls, in Hadley, a distance of twenty miles. Below the falls it flows between high rocky hills in a series of rapids to the Hudson. Kayaderoseras River drains the central part of the County and flows into Saratoga Lake. The outlet of the lake is Fish Creek. The other streams are Snook Kil, Anthony's Kil and Glowagee Creek. Saratoga Lake is a beautiful sheet of water six and a half miles long and two broad, situated about four miles south-east of Saratoga Springs. Ballston, Round and Owl Lakes are small sheets of water in the south part of the County. Numerous other small lakes and ponds are among the mountains and forests in the north part. The Kayaderoseras and Luzerne Mountains are both principally composed of primary rocks. A stratum of crystalline limestone extends along the foot of the mountains, and this is succeeded by Potsdam sandstone. Iron ore is found in these formations. Among the other minerals are agate, chalcedony, chrysoberyl, garnet, tourmalin, phosphate of lime, graphite, iron pyrites and tufa. A full catalogue of the minerals is given in the geological survey of the County. The rocks in the south half of the County belong to the shales and slates of the Hudson River group. A large part of the County is covered with drift deposits, consisting of sand and clay. The soil among the mountains is a light, sandy and gravelly loam and is best adapted to grazing. Upon the flats along the rivers the soil is a deep, fertile, clayey loam and alluvium, and in the south-west part it is a heavy clayey loam. A strip of light sand occupies the greater part of the two eastern tiers of towns. The people are principally engaged in grain and stock raising. An extensive lumbering business is carried on in the north part of the County. Manufactures of cotton and woolen goods, paper, lumber, &c., are carried on in several places.

The County Seat is located at the village of Ballston Spa, in the town of Milton. The Court House is a substantial brick building, containing the usual rooms and the Jail. The first court house was located two miles south-west of Ballston Spa. By act of March 26, 1794, the sum of £150 was appropriated to build a court house and jail, and in each of the following two years £600 was added to the amount. The Commissioners appointed to superintend the erection of buildings, were John Bradstreet Schuyler, Richard Davis Jr., John Ball, John McClelland and James Emott. By act passed March 14, 1817, James Merrill, Elisha Powell, Isaac Gere, John Gibson and Gilbert Warring were appointed Commissioners to superintend the erection of new buildings in the place of the old ones which had been burned.

The County Clerk's Office is a fine brick structure, situated in the rear of the Court House. It was erected in 1866. The Commissioners for its erection, appointed in 1865, were Arnold Harris, Joseph Bancus, David T. Lamb, James W. Horton, Edwin H. Chapman, Charles S. Lester and William V. Clark. The old County Clerk's Office stood upon Main Street and was erected in 1824, under the supervision of Edward Watrous, Eli Barnum and Moses Williams, Commissioners. The first county officers were, John Thompson, First Judge; James Gordon, Jacob Van Schoonhoven, Beriah Palmer, Sidney Berry, Judges; Sidney Berry, Surrogate; Dirck Swart, County Clerk; Jacob Fort, Jr., Sheriff; Guest Van Schoonhoven, Co. Treasurer.

The County Poor House is located in the town of Milton, about a mile and a half from Ballston Spa. The average number of paupers is about 140, supported at an expense of about two dollars each per week.

The public works of the County are the Champlain Canal, extending along the Hudson from Waterford, where it crosses the Mohawk in a basin caused by the construction of a dam, to the south border of Northumberland, at which point it crosses into Washington County; the Erie Canal, which extends a short distance in the County; the Saratoga & Schenectady R. R., extending from Schenectady through Clifton Park, Ballston and Milton, to Saratoga Springs; the Rensselaer & Saratoga R. R., crossing the Mohawk at Waterford, and extending through Half Moon, Clifton Park, Malta and Ballston, to Saratoga Springs, thence through Wilton, Northumberland and Moreau, to Washington County, connecting with steamboats at Whitehall, at Castleton with the Western Vermont R. R., and at Rutland with the Rutland & Burlington R. R. At Saratoga Junction the lines from Troy and Albany unite. The Adirondack R. R. extends north from Saratoga Springs, through Greenfield, Corinth and Hadley.

Two railroads are projected to pass through this County. The Schuylerville and Upper Hudson R. R., to connect Mechanicville and Fort Edward, is now being located and is expected to be built next year. The Saratoga, Greenwich and Hoosick Tunnel R. R. is to connect Saratoga with the Hoosick Tunnel and form a link in the great contemplated east and west route between Boston and Oswego.

The first newspaper published in the County was

The Waterford Gazette, established at Waterford about 1801, by Horace L. Wadsworth, and was continued until after 1816.

The Waterford Reporter was published in 1822 by William L. Fisk.

The Anti-Masonic Recorder was published at Waterford in 1830 by J. C. Johnson.

The Waterford Atlas was started December 1, 1832, by Wm. Holland & Co. In 1834 it was changed to

The Waterford Atlas and Manufacturers', Mechanics' and Farmers' Journal. It was soon after discontinued.

The Democratic Champion was published at Waterford in 1840 by H. Wilber.

THE WATERFORD SENTINEL was started in 1855 by Andrew Hoffman. It was subsequently published by J. H. Masten and by Masten & Clark. The present publisher is Wm. T. Baker.

The Saratoga Advertiser was established at Ballston in 1804 by Samuel B. Brown. It was soon after changed to

The Aurora Borealis and Saratoga Advertiser, and published by Brown & Miller. About 1810 it again passed into the hands of Mr. Brown, and was changed to

The Advertiser and continued several years.

The Independent American was started Sept. 27, 1808, by Wm. Child. In May 1818 it appeared as

The People's Watch Tower, published by James Comstock, and in 1820 as

The Saratoga Farmer, published by H. G. Spafford, author of Spafford's Gazetteer of the State of New York. In 1821 it was changed to

The Ballston Spa Gazette and Saratoga Farmer, and in 1822 to

The Ballston Spa Gazette, published by J. Comstock. April 20, 1847, it appeared as

The Ballston Democratic Whig Journal, edited by J. O. Nodyne. In 1848 it was changed to

THE BALLSTON JOURNAL, and was published by Albert A. Moore. In 1860 it passed into the hands of H. L. Grose & Sons, the present publishers.

The Saratoga Courier was published at Ballston in 1818 by Ulysses F. Doubleday.

The Saratoga Journal was published at Ballston by Josiah Bunce for a short time.

The Saratoga Recorder and Anti-Masonic Democrat was published in 1831 by D. Tehan.

The New York Palladium was published in 1831 by Ansel Warren.

The Schenectady and Saratoga Standard was published at Ballston in 1832-3 by Israel Sackett.

The Ballston Democrat was started in 1843 by Newell Hine. In 1853 it was united with the Northern Mirror and published as

The Ballston Democrat and Mirror. It was subsequently published as

The Ballston Atlas, by Seymour Chase, until 1863, when it passed into the hands of E. W. Reynolds, who removed it to Saratoga.

The Gem of the North was started in 1850 by Curtis & Lee, and published about one year, when it was changed to

The Northern Mirror, and in 1853 it was united with the Ballston Democrat.

The Saratoga Gazette was published at Saratoga Springs in 1810.

The Saratoga Patriot was started by Samuel R. Brown, and in 1812 it was removed to Albany.

The Saratoga Sentinel was commenced in 1819 by G. M. Davidson, and in 1845 it was merged in the Republican.

The Saratoga Whig was started in 1839 by Huling & Watts. In 1840 it passed into the hands of G. W. Spooner, and afterwards to E. G. Huling. In 1851 it was changed to

The Saratoga County Press. A daily edition started in 1844, was published in 1855 as

The Saratoga Daily News. Huling & Morehouse were the publishers.

The Daily Sentinel was started at Saratoga Springs in 1842 by Wilbur & Palmer. From 1855 to 1857 it was issued as

The Daily Post, and then changed back to the Sentinel. On the first of January 1859 it was united with the Republican.

The Republican was started in 1844, and issued daily and weekly by John A. Corey. In 1853 it passed into the hands of Thomas G. Young, and on the first of January 1859 it was united with the Sentinel and published as

The Republican & Sentinel, daily and weekly, by Thomas G. Young.

The Old Letter was published at Saratoga in 1849 by A. H. Allen.

The Advent Review and Sabbath Herald was published semi-monthly, in 1850, by James White.

The Temperance Helper was started in Jan. 1850 by the Saratoga County Temperance Alliance. In 1855 it was purchased by Potter & Judson, and in 1856 it was changed to

THE SARATOGIAN. A daily edition was published for several years during the summer season, but it is now continued through the year. In Sept. 1870 Mr. Potter withdrew.

The Saratoga Sentinel was started in 1854 by Allen Corey, and sold in May 1855 to Clark & Tbayer, and in 1859 it was united with the Republican.

The Schuylerville Herald was published at Schuylerville in 1844 by J. L. Cramer.

Old Saratoga was started in 1848 at Schuylerville by J. L. Cramer, and continued until 1852.

Battle Ground Herald was published at Schuylerville from August 1853 to July 1857, by R. N. Atwell & Co.

The Saratoga County American was started in December 1857. It was afterwards published at Schuylerville by J. R. Rockwell.

The Stillwater Gazette was started at Stillwater in 1845 by Isaac A. Pitman, and was published three years.

The Cold Water Battery was published at Stillwater in 1845 by Isaac A. Pitman.

The Hudson River Chronicle was published at Mechanicville from October 1856 to March 1858, by Samuel Heron.

The Crescent Eagle was published in 1852 by C. Ackerman.

The Morning Star was published at Mechanicville in 1854-5 by C. Smith & Co.

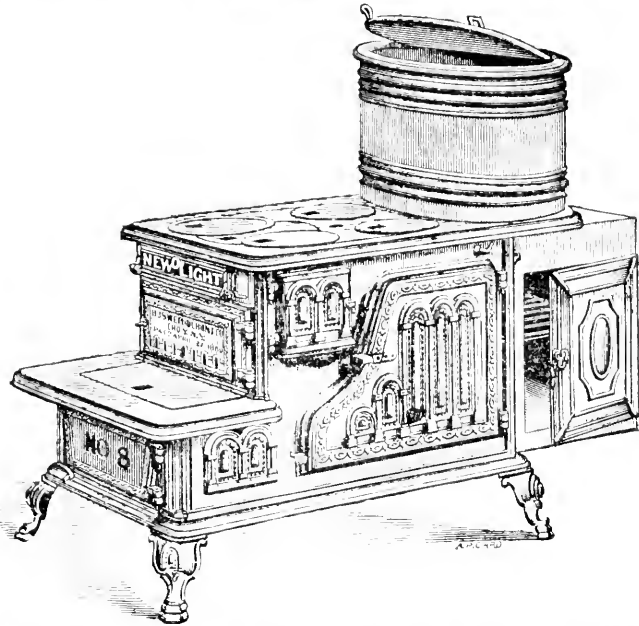

THE BALLSTON DEMOCRAT was started in 1865 by Curtis & Mann, and published by them until August 16, 1866, when it passed into the hands of J. M. Waterbury, by whom it was published until February 1868, when it passed into the hands of W. S. Waterbury, the present publisher.

embraced about 400,000 acres. The "Half Moon Patent," including Waterford and part of Half Moon, was granted to Anthony Van Schaick. The "Saratoga Patent," including the present towns of Easton, Saratoga and Stillwater, was granted November 4th, 1684, to Cornelius Van Dyck, Jans Jans Bleecker, Peter Phillips Schuyler, Johannes Wendell, Dirk Wessels, David Schuyler and Robert Livingston. The "Clifton Park Patent," embracing the east part of the present town of Clifton Park and the western part of Half Moon, was granted September 23d, 1708. The "Appel Patent," in the west part of the present town of Clifton Park, was about half a mile wide on the Mohawk and extended back about four miles and a half. The purchase of the Kayaderosceras Patent was confirmed by the Mohawks July 26th, 1783. The boundaries were so loosely defined that disputes arose between the proprietors and the owners of other adjoining patents, which were not settled until after the Revolution.

The first settlements were made by the Dutch within a few years after the settlement of the country about Albany. The settlements were commenced near Waterford and gradually extended up the valley of the Hudson. Lying in the great thoroughfare between the English settlements at Albany and the French posts on Lake Champlain, the settlements were retarded by the continued passing of military parties, and the settlers suffered all the dangers and hardships incident to the border warfare. Immediately after the conquest of Canada in 1760, settlements rapidly extended along the river valleys, and to some distance into the interior.

During the Revolution, some of the most important events of the war transpired within the limits of this County. As introductory to these events it may not be improper to give a brief statement of the condition of affairs in the spring of 1777. In March of this year Lieutenant General Burgoyne arrived in Quebec, and on the first of June was in command of an army of more than 7,000 British Regulars, Tories and Indians, assembled at St. Johns, at the foot of Lake Champlain, with the avowed purpose of passing up the lake, capturing the American posts at various points, then passing to the Hudson River and opening communication with Lord Howe, who was in command in New York. At the same time another army under St. Leger was dispatched up the St. Lawrence and Lake Ontario to Oswego, thence to Fort Schuyler, where Rome now is, to capture that post, and then sweep down the Mohawk and join Burgoyne at Albany. The plan was well laid, and had it been carried out successfully, a severe blow would have been given to the struggling colonies, which would doubtless have postponed the close of the fearful struggle. Burgoyne appeared before Crown Point on the 27th of June. The few Americans there abandoned the Fort and retreated to Ticonderoga. The British took possession of the works, established a magazine, hospital and stores, and proceeded to Ticonderoga, where they arrived on the 30th. This post was in command of Major General Arthur St. Clair, with a force of about 3,000 men. The stores were so reduced that he was afraid to make any considerable addition to his force from the militia, who were continually coming in, until his stock of provisions could be replenished. Had there been a supply of provisions, six or eight thousand men might have been collected before the arrival of the enemy.

Fort Ticonderoga was situated in the north angle formed by the lake and the outlet of Lake George. The Americans also occupied a fort on Mount Independence, on the east side of Lake Champlain, nearly opposite. St. Clair had neglected to take possession of a high point in the south angle of the outlet of Lake George and Lake Champlain, and this gave Burgoyne his only advantage. As the enemy approached, St. Clair called in his outposts and prepared for a regular siege. The enemy quietly took possession of Mount Hope, which commanded the road leading to Lake George, and on the morning of July 5th the scarlet uniforms were seen upon Mount Defiance, which commanded the American works. St. Clair immediately called a council of war and presented to them the alarming facts that the whole effective strength of the garrison was not sufficient to man one half the works; that as the whole must be constantly on duty, they could not long endure the fatigue; that General Schuyler, then at Fort Edward, had not sufficient troops to reinforce or relieve them; that the enemy's batteries were nearly ready to open on them and within twenty-four hours the place would be completely invested. It was immediately decided to evacuate the place. As the enemy looking down upon them from Mount Defiance could see every movement, no visible preparations for leaving could be made before dark, and the purpose of the council was concealed from the troops until the evening order was given. It was arranged to place the baggage and such ammunition as could be carried, on board two hundred bateaux, to be dispatched under a convoy of five armed galleys, up the lake to Whitehall, the main body to proceed to the same place by way of Castleton. The cannons which could not be moved were to be spiked. Every light was to be extinguished previous to striking their tents, and each soldier was to take several days provisions. A continued cannonade was to be kept up until the moment of departure. The arrangements were all completed and the garrison of Ticonderoga had crossed to Mount Independence without giving the alarm to the enemy. But general DeFermay, who commanded on Mount Independence, set fire to the house which he had occupied, and the light revealed to the enemy this whole movement. Troops were immediately dispatched in pursuit, and General Burgoyne prepared to pursue the bateaux and convoy by water. The Americans placed great dependence upon the obstructions placed in the lake at this point. These consisted of a bridge supported by twenty-two sunken piers of large timber, at nearly equal distances, the spaces between being made of separate floats, each about fifty feet long and twelve wide, strongly fastened together by chains and rivets, and also fastened to the sunken piers. Above this bridge was a boom made of very large timbers, fastened together by riveted bolts and chains of iron an inch and a half square. These obstructions were speedily cut by the enemy, and before noon the gunboats and frigates were crowding all sail to overtake the American bateaux. Unsuspicious of pursuit, they were scarcely moored at Whitehall before the British frigates arrived and made an attack upon them. Unsupported by the feeble garrison at this place, the Americans abandoned their bateaux, set them on fire, together with the Fort, mills, blockhouses &c., and fled to Fort Edward. They were met at Fort Ann by a few other troops sent forward by Gen. Schuyler with provisions and ammunition. Burgoyne continued to press on towards the Hudson, his force increasing by accessions of Tories, while the army of General Schuyler, greatly disheartened, was slowly retreating and placing all possible obstructions in the way of Burgoyne's pursuit. In a letter to the Albany Committee, General Schuyler said: "I mean to dispute every inch of ground with General Burgoyne and retard his descent into the country as long as possible." Bridges were destroyed, trees were felled in the road, and the time required to remove these and rebuild the bridges was of the utmost value to the Americans. Van Schaick's and Hover Islands, at the mouth of the Mohawk, were fortified, being regarded the most eligible position for defence against an attack from the north or the west. Weak as the army was, a detachment was sent to relieve Fort Schuyler and compel St. Leger to raise the siege, thus removing all cause of fear from that direction. The greatest alarm was felt among the inhabitants as Burgoyne approached, and leaving their farms and grain all ready for harvest, they fled to Albany. While Burgoyne's headquarters were at Fort Edward the expedition to Bennington was sent out, the result of which greatly encouraged the Americans. Through the intrigues of his enemies, General Schuyler was removed and General Gates appointed in his place. He took command August 19th, three days after the battle of Bennington, which gave the Americans full assurance of victory in the end.

Though General Schuyler felt most keenly the injustice of being removed when victory appeared almost within his grasp, he rendered all the aid in his power to General Gates. Burgoyne at this time was greatly in need of supplies, the surrounding country not affording sufficient for his necessities. It was to replenish the Commissary Department and obtain horses for his dragoons that the expedition was sent to Bennington. He confidently relied upon the success of this expedition to furnish the needed supplies to render his entry into Albany triumphant. He had scarcely recovered from the shock of defeat at Bennington before he received the news of the defeat of St. Leger at Fort Schuyler, the desertions of the Indians and the defection of the Loyalists in the Mohawk Valley. The Indians in his own army became vexed that their propensity to plunder was not gratified, and many of the timid Loyalists from Canada deserted his ranks. Perceiving the embarrassing circumstances that surrounded Burgoyne, General Gates decided to advance up the Hudson to Stillwater and act offensively or defensively as circumstances might require. Under the advice of Kosciusko, who was an engineer in the army, he threw up a line of fortifications upon Bemis's Heights, in the town of Stillwater, about three-fourths of a mile in extent, along the brow of the hill, towards the river, with a strong battery at each extremity and one near the middle, in such position as to command the whole valley and the hills upon the east side of the river. From the foot of the hill across the flats to the river, an intrenchment was appended, and a battery erected at the water's edge to protect the floating bridge at that point. The works were completed about the 15th of September, and General Gates made arrangements to resist the approaching enemy. Small successes had greatly revived the spirits of the Americans and served to depress in a corresponding manner the enemy. Detachments were operating in the rear of Burgoyne and threatening to cut off his supplies by way of the lake, and thus render him wholly at the mercy of the Americans. Disaster was frowning upon him whether he advanced or retreated, and constructing a bridge of boats, he passed his whole army across the Hudson and encamped on the heights and plains of Saratoga, where the village of Schuyler-ville now stands, and within five miles of the American camp. On the 15th of September, having succeeded in getting his artillery, baggage and stores across the river, he moved down to the present site of Coveville, where he halted until the 17th to repair the roads and bridges, and on the 18th moved down to Wilbur's Basin, within two miles of the American camp, and made preparations for battle. At an early hour on the morning of the 19th, the American pickets observed great activity in the British camp; the glitter of arms and the scarlet uniforms were seen through the vistas of the forest as the troops marched and countermarched to form the lines of battle. These movements were constantly reported to General Gates, but he issued no orders and evinced no disposition to fight. About ten o'clock the whole of the enemy's force was in motion and separated into three divisions. The battle commenced about noon and continued at different points until about three o'clock, when for a time there was a lull such as precedes a more furious tempest. The British made a second attack, the Americans remaining within their intrenchments until the enemy fired a volley and pressed on to the charge, when they rushed forward and drove the assailing party back. The battle raged until night, when the Americans retired within their intrenchments and the enemy occupied the battle field. The loss of the Americans, including officers, was 64 killed, 217 wounded and 38 missing. The British loss in killed, wounded and prisoners was about 500. The next morning the British retired to their camp on the river hills, and upon the flat at Wilbur's Basin.

This battle has been variously known as the battle of Stillwater, Bemis's Heights and Saratoga, as it occurred in the town of Stillwater, County of Saratoga, and near a tavern kept by a man named Bemis. It was the most noted tavern between Fort Edward and Albany. Burgoyne was greatly disappointed at the successful resistance of the Americans, and saw that it would be useless to attempt to carry their works by storm or in any way push forward towards Albany. Had he known the true condition of the Americans on the morning of the 20th, he might easily have won a victory, as the soldiers of the left wing, which sustained the conflict, had only a single round of cartridges left. There was at no time more than three days provisions in the camp, and on the day of battle there was no flour. No one but the commander knew the condition until after a supply of ammunition arrived from Albany. Both armies strengthened their positions, Burgoyne with the hope of receiving aid from Howe and Clinton in New York, while Gates was being reinforced by troops from New England. Both armies continued to occupy nearly the same position until Oct. 7th, each vigilant and expecting the other to make an attack or entangle by strategy. Skirmishes were of daily occurrence, and scarcely a night passed without some daring exploit. The Americans were constantly gaining strength, and their superiority of numbers enabled them to form expeditions to harass the British without weakening their lines or endangering the safety of their camp. At one time about twenty young Americans, not belonging to the camp, and intent on a frolic, resolved to capture an advanced picket guard of the enemy. They selected their officers, and each armed with a fowling piece and plenty of ammunition, marched silently through the woods until they came within a few yards of the picket. The Captain gave a loud blast upon an old trumpet which he carried, and with a loud shout they all rushed forward, giving no time for a sentinel's hail, while the Captain cried out "Ground your arms, or you are all dead men!" Supposing a large force was upon them they obeyed the order, and thirty British soldiers were marched into camp by twenty American farmers on a frolic. This and similar instances kept the camp in a constant state of alarm. Burgoyne, in speaking of these times, says: "I do not believe either officer or soldier ever slept during that interval without his clothes, or that any general officer or commander of a regiment passed a single night without being on his legs occasionally, at different hours, and constantly an hour before daylight." Burgoyne's supplies were all cut off, and on the first of October his troops were put upon a short allowance. His force was gradually diminishing, and that of Gates constantly increasing. Burgoyne saw the necessity of doing something to free himself from the perils which surrounded him, and decided to trust the fortune of battle for relief. An attack was made upon the left of the American army on the morning of October 7th, and soon the battle became general. From half past two until dark the contest continued. During a part of the time its result was doubtful, but the fall of General Frazer, the controlling spirit of the British troops, caused a panic in their ranks and turned the tide of battle in favor of the Americans. During the night, Burgoyne retreated with his whole army about a mile north of his first position, whence he contemplated a retreat to Fort Edward. The loss of the Americans in killed and wounded did not exceed 150. General Arnold was the only commissioned officer who received a wound. The loss of the British in killed, wounded and prisoners was about 700. The loss among the officers was especially severe. Among the killed were General Fraser, Sir Francis Clarke, Colonel Breyman and Lieutenant Reynell. Major Ackland was severely wounded, taken prisoner, and, with Major Williams, was carried to the American camp. On the night of the 8th, Burgoyne continued his retreat to Saratoga, where he arrived on the evening of the 9th, having left his sick and wounded in the hospital to be cared for by the Americans. On the way several buildings were burned by order of Gen. Burgoyne, among them the mansion of Gen. Schuyler, his mills and other property, amounting in value to $20,000. Owing to the rain, Gates did not start in pursuit until near noon on the tenth, when he advanced to the high ridge, a short distance south of Fish Creek. The British had crossed over the creek and were encamped upon the high grounds on the slope of which Schuylerville is now built. The boats of Burgoyne with his baggage and provisions were at the mouth of the creek. A fatigue party began to carry the stores from the boats to the heights, but receiving the fire of two field pieces planted on the flats beyond the river, they were obliged to desist. Several of the bateaux of the enemy were captured and immediately plundered by the troops. Finding the ford at this place strongly guarded, Burgoyne decided to continue his retreat up the west bank of the river to Fort Edward, force his way across at that point and take possession of the Fort. A party sent out to repair the roads and bridges, and also a detachment of troops to take possession of the Fort, were driven back by the Americans, who occupied all the heights in the vicinity. The provisions and other stores in the bateaux of Burgoyne were either destroyed or captured by the Americans, and he abandoned all idea of saving his artillery and baggage, and saw no means of escape but precipitate retreat. Even this was cut off, and every part of his camp was exposed to the fire of cannon and musketry. The Americans swarmed on every side. No intelligence reached Burgoyne from Clinton; there was not three days rations in camp and none could be obtained. Under these circumstances he called a general council of all officers, including the captains of companies, on the morning of October 13th, at which it was unanimously resolved to open a treaty with General Gates for an honorable surrender. Negotiations were accordingly opened which resulted in the surrender of General Burgoyne and his whole army on the 17th of October, 1777. The surrender took place upon the flat between the canal and river, at the village of Schuylerville. The whole number of prisoners surrendered was 5,791, of whom 2,412 were Germans and Hessians. The force of the Americans at the time of the surrender was 13,222.—The arms and ammunition which came into the possession of the Americans were 42 cannon, 4,647 muskets, and 6,000 dozen cartridges, besides shot, shell, etc. By the terms of the surrender, Burgoyne's troops were to march out of their camp with all the honors of war, their artillery and small arms to be piled at the command of their own officers. A free passage to Great Britain should be granted the troops on condition of their not serving again during the war unless exchanged. The army should march to the vicinity of Boston by the most convenient and expeditious route, and not be delayed when transports should arrive to receive them, and every care should be taken for the subsistence of the troops until they should be embarked. In the mean time officers should not be separated from their men and should be allowed their horses, carriages and side arms, and be admitted to parole while in Boston. Canadians, Tories and camp followers should have the same privileges as the rest of the army. Though Congress ratified the treaty made by General Gates, it was not fully carried out, owing to the suspicion that Great Britain did not intend to fulfill the agreement in good faith, but put the troops again into the field without waiting for an exchange.

In closing this historical sketch of the County, we feel that some tribute should be offered to the memory of those who so gallantly went forth at their Country's call to battle with the hordes of secession and rebellion which sought the overthrow of our Government. One of the first martyrs to the cause was the gallant Col. Ellsworth, a native of this County, who fell by the hand of the assassin as he was removing the emblem of rebellion from its position, almost in sight of the National Capitol. The Census Reports of 1865 give but a very incomplete and imperfect record of the number of volunteers from this County, and as no other data are at hand, we are unable to give such a report as we would like. The various calls of the Country were promptly responded to, and the record of the soldiers of Saratoga County in the field, and of the patriots at home, will not suffer in comparison with that of any other County.

GAZETTEER OF TOWNS.

BALLSTON, named from Rev. Eliphalet Ball, one of the first settlers, was formed from Saratoga as a district, April 1, 1775, and was organized as a town, March 7, 1788. Charlton, Galway and Milton were taken off in 1792, and the line of Charlton was changed March 5, 1795. It lies upon the border of the County, south-west of the center. The surface is gently rolling. The principal streams are Mourning Kil and Outlet Creek. Ballston Lake, in the south-east part, is a long, narrow and deep body of water, the outlet of which is the principal inlet of Round Lake. The soil south-east of the lake is generally a light sand, and north-west it is a clayey and gravelly loam.

Ballston (p. v.) is situated on the line of Milton and is chiefly in that town.

Burnt Hills, (p. v.) in the south part, contains three churches, a hotel, several stores and mechanic shops, and about 40 dwellings. It received its name from a tract that had been burnt over by the Indians for a deer pasture, before the country was settled by the whites.

Ballston Center (p. o.) is a hamlet.

South Ballston (p. o.) is a station on the Saratoga & Schenectady R. R.

The first settlement was made in 1763 by two brothers named Michael and Nicholas McDonald, natives of Ireland, who had been enticed on board a vessel lying in the Shannon, brought to Philadelphia and sold for a term of years to pay their passage. They settled near the west bank of Ballston Lake. In 1770, Rev. Eliphalet Ball, with his three sons, John, Stephen and Flamen, and several members of his congregation, removed from Bedford in this state and settled in the vicinity of Academy Hill. Mr. Ball received a donation of 500 acres of land from the proprietors of the "Five Mile Square" tract. Soon after their arrival large accessions were made to the settlement from New England, New Jersey, Scotland and the north of Ireland. Among the early settlers were Judge Beriah Palmer, who afterwards became a member of Congress, Judge Epenetus White, Edward A. Watrous, Stephen White, Paul Pierson, Tyrannus Collins, Hezekiah Middlebrook, Elisha Benedict, John Higby, Edmund Jennings, Samuel Nash, and Joseph Bettys and his son Joe, who was afterwards hung as a Tory Spy. These were all from New England. Captain Kenneth Gordon and ——— McCrea came from New Jersey; families named Shearer, McDermonds and Frazer, from Scotland; General James Gordon, George Scott, Francis Hunter, and three brothers named Kennedy, came from the north of Ireland. The Scotch families settled at "Scotch Bush" and "Paisley Street." The settlements of this town were twice invaded during the Revolution and several of the inhabitants were carried away prisoners into Canada.

On the 16th of October 1780 a party of 400 regulars and Indians from Canada, under Major Munro, a Tory from Schenectady, arrived in the Ballston settlement. They designed to attack Schenectady, but after remaining encamped several days, they returned without accomplishing their object. They plundered and burned several houses in Ballston, killed one man and took twenty-four prisoners. After crossing the Kayaderosseras, Munro addressed his men, telling them that they would probably be followed, and directing in case of an attack, that all the prisoners should be put to death. For this inhuman order he was dismissed from the service on his arrival at Montreal. The aged or infirm prisoners were allowed to return.—The rest reached Bulwaggy Bay, below Crown Point, on the 8th day, and passed thence to Canada. In May 1781 the noted Joe Bettys, with about thirty refugees, captured five prisoners; and at the same time Judge White and four others were taken on the east side of Long Lake, by another party, and all marched off to Canada except one who escaped. Colonel Gordon and several others afterwards escaped from the Island of Orleans, and with great hardship made their way through the wilderness to the St. John's River, and thence to the settlements in Maine. There they learned of the peace and returned home by way of Halifax and Boston. Colonel Gordon became a prominent citizen of the town and of the County.

John Ball, son of Rev. E. Ball, the pastor of the first religious society in the town, was a lieutenant in the army during the Revolution. Mr. Ball's father and General Washington's mother were cousins.

The first death recorded by tombstone in the town was that of General Gordon's mother, who died in 1775.

The first supervisor of the town was James Gordon, elected in 1779. Uriah Benedict, Andrew Mitchell, Benjamin Andrews and Beriah Palmer, held that office until 1792.

The area of the town is 18,583 acres.

CHARLTON was formed from Ballston, March 17, 1792. It is the south-west corner town of the County. The surface is undulating, with a gentle inclination towards the south. The principal streams are the Aalplaats and a branch of the Mourning Kil. The soil is an excellent quality of sandy, gravelly and clayey loam. Ledges of limestone in the west part, affording an excellent quality of building stone, are extensively quarried.

Charlton, (p. v.) in the south-east part, contains three churches, viz., Methodist, Presbyterian and Episcopal; two hotels, a tannery, several stores and mechanic shops and about 40 dwellings.

West Charlton (p. v.) contains about 20 dwellings.

The Commissioners appointed to divide the Kayaderosseras Patent, appropriated 5,000 acres in the south part to defray the expenses of the division. The first settlement was commenced in 1774 by Thomas Sweetman, who located in the east part of the town. Among the early settlers were David Maxwell, Joseph LaRue, John McKnight, John Taylor and Jesse Conde, who came in 1775.

The first store was kept by Davis & Bostwick, and the first inn by a man named Harmon's. The first supervisor of the town was John Boyd, Jr. The first saw mill was built by John Rogers, and the first grist mill by John Holmes. The first church (Presb.) was incorporated Dec. 11, 1792, Rev. Wm. Schenck was the first pastor.

The Presbyterian Church of Freehold, in Charlton, was organized Jan. 3, 1786; Rev. Samuel Sturges was the first pastor.— Their present house of worship was erected in 1852; it will seat 350 and is valued at $6,000. The present membership is 154; the present pastor is Rev. John R. Sanson.

The Methodist Church of Charlton has a membership of 96 and a house that will seat 250. Rev. R. Patterson is the present pastor.

The area of the town is 19,911 acres.

CLIFTON PARK was formed from Half Moon, March 3, 1828, as Clifton. Its name was changed March 31, 1829. The surface is level or undulating, except in the north-east, where it is broken by sand hills and ravines. A line of rugged clay bluffs borders upon the Mohawk Valley. Stony Creek, Swarte and Dwaas Kils, are the principal streams. A belt of heavy clay and gravelly loam extends along the river above the bluffs. The soil is alluvial upon the flats along the Mohawk, and a sandy loam in the central and north parts. It lies in the south part of the County, on the Mohawk River.

Clifton Park, (p. v.) on the border of Clifton Park and Half Moon, contains two churches, viz., Methodist and Baptist, a female seminary, a hotel, a district school, two blacksmith shops, a wagon and carriage shop, two harness shops, a shoe shop and about 120 inhabitants.

Vischer's Ferry, (p. v.) in the south part of the town, on the Mohawk River and Erie Canal, contains a Reformed church, a store, two dry docks, a wagon shop, three blacksmith shops, a shoe shop, a harness shop, a school and about 350 inhabitants.

Jonesville, (p. v.) in the north part, contains a church, an academy, a hotel, a carriage shop, several stores and about thirty dwellings.

Roxford Flats, (p. v.) on the Mohawk River and Erie Canal, contains a church, a hotel, several stores and about 20 dwellings. The Canal crosses the river at this place on a fine stone aqueduct. There is also a bridge across the river at this point.

Groom's Corners, (p. v.) named from James Groom, Jr., son of an early settler, contains a hotel, a store, a wagon and blacksmith shop, a shoe shop and about a dozen dwellings.

Part of this town was included in the Clifton Park Patent, granted September 23, 1708, to John Fort, Gerret and Maas Ryckse, John and Ryerse Quackenboss, and Derick Bratt, most of whom were early settlers. Settlements were made in the Mohawk Valley previous to 1700, but the precise date is not known.

The first church (Bap.) was organized Sept. 3, 1794. Rev. Abijah Peck was the founder and first pastor. Ephraim Stevens was the first supervisor of the town.

Two brothers named Van Vranken, from Holland, had a patent of land called the Niskayuna Patent, part of which lay in this town. They were among the first settlers. John and Nicholas Fort were among the first settlers; the latter commenced a ferry across the Mohawk about two miles below Vischer's Ferry, several years before the latter was established.

General Washington, with a portion of his staff, crossed this ferry during the Revolution, probably on his way from Saratoga to Albany. The ferry has been in the hands of the Fort family ever since it was first started. Mr. Vischer was an early settler.

Old Clifton Park M. E. Church was organized in 1796 by Rev. Richard Jacobs, who died here. The present house of worship will seat 200; the present membership is 62; the present pastor is Rev. Robert Washburn.

The Methodist Church at Clifton Park Village was organized in 1850 with twenty members. A house of worship was erected the same year; it will seat 300 and is valued at $2,000. The first pastor was Rev. Henry Wilson; the present pastor is Rev. J. S. Hart.

The area of the town is 30,483 acres.

CORINTH was formed from Hadley, April 20, 1848. A part of Moreau was annexed Jan. 28, 1848. It lies upon the Hudson, in the north-east part of the County. The Kayaderosseras Mountains occupy the central and north parts, and the Palmertown Mountains the south-east corner. The declivities of these mountains are steep, rough and broken, and their summits are rocky and covered to a considerable extent with forests. These two mountain ranges are separated by a valley about four miles wide. The principal streams are the Hudson, flowing along the north-east border and Cole Brook, flowing along the foot of the mountains on the south. Among the mountains of the north are several fine lakes, among which are Etnor, Hunt, Jenny and Black Lakes. The soil is a sandy and clayey loam. Lumbering is extensively carried on, the Hudson and other streams furnishing an abundance of water-power. The Adirondack Railroad extends through the town.

Jessup's Landing, (Corinth p. o.) in the east part, on the Hudson River, contains two churches, viz., Baptist and Methodist; two hotels, a saw mill, a grist mill, a woolen factory, five stores, several mechanic shops and about 400 inhabitants.

South Corinth (p. v.) contains a church, a hotel, two saw mills, a grist mill, a carriage bolt factory, two stores, a tannery, and about 30 dwellings.

The first settlement was made near South Corinth, in 1790, by Fred. Parkman, Washington Chapman, Jeremiah Eddy, Jephtha Clark and Jonathan Dewel. Daniel Boardman, Stephen and William Brayton were among the early settlers at Jessup's Landing. Elial Lindsay settled near the Falls, and Ambrose Clothier in the south-east part of the town, in 1796. Stephen Ashley kept the first inn about 1800, and Daniel Boardman kept the first store and built the first grist mill about 1793. Joseph Eggleston was another of the early settlers. He came from Connecticut with the intention of settling in Luzerne, but his oxen strayed away, and he found them near the Landing. He finally settled about two miles south-east of Jessup's Landing, and erected a log house. Zephaniah Sexton and Benjamin and Nicholas Carpenter were also early settlers in the south part of the town. Mr. William E. Traver now resides on the farm settled by Mr. Eggleston.

Kayaderosseras Creek rises in Corinth and flows in a southerly direction; another creek takes its rise near the same place and flows northerly. About fifty years ago a man named Archer, owning a mill on the stream running north, and wishing for more water during the dry season, made an excavation and turned a portion of the Kayaderosseras Creek towards the north. This caused an appeal to the courts, and it was decided that the stream should not be turned from its natural channel.

On the 7th November, 1869, Mr. Thomas Brown, one of the proprietors of the Palmer Falls Woolen Mill, was shot and instantly killed by the watchman of the mill. Mr. Brown had entered the mill unknown to the watchman, and was just leaving when he was discovered by the watchman, and shot before he was recognized. Mr. Brown was an enterprising business man, and one of the leading members of the Presbyterian Church. He came to Corinth from Niagara Falls in 1858, and had gained a position in the hearts of the community that made his death greatly lamented.

On the 4th of October, 1869, Willie A. Mallory, son of George Mallory, five years of age, was drowned in the river a little above Corinth. His body was found May 14th, 1870, a little above Glens Falls. His body was well preserved and but slightly disfigured.

In 1819 Mr. Seth Haskins was killed by Benjamin Bennett, while intoxicated. Bennett was executed July 21st, 1820, at Ballston.

The area of the town is 38,080 acres.

DAY was formed from Edinburgh and Hadley, as Concord, April 17, 1819. Its name was changed Dec. 3, 1827. It lies in the north-east corner of the County. The surface is chiefly occupied by several spurs of the Kayaderosseras Mountains. The principal peaks are Oak and Bald Mountains, near the center of the town. They are about 900 feet above the river. The whole mountain region is wild, rugged and rocky, and portions of it not susceptible of cultivation. The Sacondaga River flows through a narrow valley through the south part. Its channel is narrow and tortuous, and it is navigable through the town. Paul, Glass House and Allens Creeks are the other principal streams. Livingston, Sand and Mud Lakes are small bodies of water in the north part. The soil is a moderately fertile, sandy and clayey loam. Lumbering is carried on to considerable extent.

Huntsville, (West Day p. o.) in the south-west part, contains a hotel, a church, 2 stores, a wooden ware manufactory, 3 blacksmith shops, a carriage shop, a hemlock bark extract manufactory and a tannery.

The West Day Christian Church was organized Dec. 19, 1857, by Elders Elias Sloat and Latham Coffin, and consisted of 13 members. Elder Elias Sloat was the first pastor. Their house of worship was erected in October 1861, and is at present valued at $2,000; it will seat 225 persons. The present pastor is Elder J. Pratt, and the present number of members is 20. This church is free for all other respectable denominations when not in use by the Christian society. The Methodists at present hold their services in this church.

Day Corners (Day p. o.) contains a church, a hotel, a store, tannery, blacksmith shop and grist mill.

The Day Presbyterian Church was organized in 1844 as a Reformed Church, by Rev. A. Yates, D. D., and was changed to Presbyterian, by vote of the congregation, in 1866. Their house of worship was erected in 1844. It is a stone building, capable of seating 200, and is valued at $3,000. Rev. J. A. Lansing was the first pastor. The present number of members is 26. The pastorate at present is vacant.

The first permanent settlers were Phineas Austin, James Thomas, Dyer Perry, and families named Clay and Bond.

The first religious meetings were held in the barn of Peter Van Vleck in 1801-2. The first church (Bap.) was formed in 1809.

The area of the town is 43,967 acres.

EDINBURGH was formed from Providence, March 13, 1801, as Northfield, and its name was changed April 6, 1808. A part of Day was taken off in 1809. It lies upon the west border of the County, north of the center. The surface is principally occupied by two mountain ridges, separated by the valley of the Sacondaga River. The mountain ridges are rocky and broken, with a thin, sandy and gravelly soil, covered with forests. Beecher's Creek is a small mill stream west of the river. The soil on the river flats is a fine quality of clayey and gravelly loam. The principal occupation of the people is lumbering.

Batchelerville, (p. v.) on the east bank of the Sacondaga, near the center of the town, contains several stores and mechanic shops, two saw mills, a tub factory, a washboard factory and about 30 dwellings.

Beecher's Hollow, (Edinburgh p. o.,) on the west side of the river, contains two churches, a hotel, a grist mill, a saw mill, a tannery, a chair round factory, a machine shop, a store and about 20 dwellings.

There are in the town eight saw mills, two stores, three manufactories of wooden ware, a carriage shop, a cabinet shop, a tannery, a broomhandle factory and three churches.

The first settlers came in about 1790, and located in the valley below "Fish House." Among the early settlers were Moses Crane, Jacobus Filkins, Daniel Washburn, John Sumner, Obadiah Perry and Samuel Rogers.

The first school was taught by Daniel Abbott, from Connecticut, in 1794. The first store was kept by ——— Chatfield in 1796. Isaac Deming built the first grist mill, in 1793; and Palmer Munroe the first woolen factory, in 1808. Robert Sumner was the first Supervisor. The first church (Bap.) was organized in 1798, by Rev. Mr. Munroe, from Galway.

Traces of an ancient Indian burial place are visible on the south bank of the Sacondaga, near the border of Day.

Tradition says that a band of Canadian Indians, in canoes, on an expedition against the Mohawks, fell into an ambuscade at this place and were all slain. Bullets are frequently cut out of the trees in this vicinity.

Mr. Samuel Downing built the first framed house in the town. He was born in Newburyport, Mass., Nov. 31, 1761, and moved to this town from Antrim, New Hampshire, about the first of March, 1794. He served three years in the war of the Revolution, and lived to the age of 105 years, dying Feb. 18, 1867. He has two sons now living, viz., George W. and James M., aged respectively 63 and 59. The house which he built about 75 years ago is still standing. Mr. Downing felled a tree and planted one on his one hundredth birthday, his neighbors having assembled to celebrate the day.

James Partridge, 73 years old, was born in this town and now lives on the same farm. He has raised thirteen children, eleven of whom are married and living within four miles of where they were born.

Among those who sacrificed their lives for their country during the late Rebellion, was Joseph Elliston, of the 84th N. Y. S. V., killed at Cold Harbor, Va., June 2, 1864, aged 20 years; and Myron White, of Co. D., 4th N. Y. Heavy Artillery. He was wounded at South Side R. R., Va., April 2, 1863, and died at the hospital at Washington, D. C., April 10, 1865, aged 23 years.

The area of the town is 38,174 acres.

GALWAY, named from the native place of the first settlers, was formed from Ballston, March 7, 1792. Providence was taken off in 1796. It lies on the west border of the County, south of the center. The north half is occupied by a group of rounded hills, forming the southern continuation of the Kayaderosseras Mountains. The surface of the south half is gently undulating. The principal streams are head branches of Feegowesee and Calderwood Creeks, and Mourning Kil. The soil is generally a heavy clay, intermixed in some places with sand and gravel.

Galway, (p. v.) near the center of the town, was incorporated April 18, 1833. It contains two churches, an academy, two hotels, several stores and mechanic shops, and about 200 inhabitants.

West Galway, (p. v.) on the border of Fulton County, contains a church and about 20 dwellings.

York's Corners, (East Galway p. o.) near the north-east corner,

Mosherville, (p. o.) near the north border,

Whiteside's Corners, in the north-west part,

North Galway (p. o.) and

South Galway (p. o.) are hamlets.

The town was first settled in 1774 by immigrants from Scotland. Among them were John and James Major, John McClelland, William, Robert and Alexander Kelsey, and John McHarg, all of whom came over in the same ship in 1774. Rev. Simeon Smith, from Centerhook, came into the town in 1778 and located near York's Corners. Mr. Smith was accompanied by his parents and three brothers-in-law, Simeon Babcock, Reuben Mattison and Joseph Brown.

The first death was that of James Major, who was killed by the fall of a tree, Sept. 11, 1776. The first store was kept by McClelland or Prendergast in 1780. Daniel Campbell built the first grist mill. John McClelland was the first supervisor. The first religious society (Bap.) was formed by Rev. Simeon Smith in 1779.

F

The East Galway Church was organized in 1859 by Rev. Mr. Lewis, with a membership of 40. Rev. George W. Porter was the first pastor. Their house of worship was erected in 1859; it will seat about 300 and is valued at $3,000. The present membership is 50; the present pastor is J. W. Webster.

The area of the town is 28,209 acres.

GREENFIELD was formed from Saratoga and Milton, March 12, 1793. A part of Hadley was taken off in 1801. It lies a little north-west of the center of the County. The Palmetown Mountains extend along the east border; and the Kayaderosseras Mountains occupy the west part of the town. A valley about six miles wide separates these ranges. The principal streams are the Kayaderosseras and its branches. The soil is generally a gravelly loam intermixed with clay. Some portions of the surface are very stony. Iron ore has been found in the east part. The Adirondack Railroad extends through the town.

Greenfield Center (p. v.) contains a church, a hotel, several stores and mechanic shops and about 20 dwellings.

Jamesville, (Middlegrove p. o.) on the south border, contains a church, two paper mills, a saw mill, a grist mill and about 30 dwellings.

Mount Pleasant, in the north-west part, contains a glass factory, a grist mill, a saw mill, a store and about 30 dwellings.

Porter's Corners, (p. v.) near the center of the town, contains a church, a saw mill, a grist mill, a tannery, a carriage factory and about 20 dwellings.

West Greenfield, (p. o.) in the south part,

North Greenfield (p. o.) and

Page's Corners are hamlets.

The first settlers were two men named Haggerty and Root; who located near Haggerty Hill in 1784. Among the other early settlers were ——— Brewster and Wm. Scott, a soldier of the Revolution, who came in 1785; Isaac Denmon, John Benedict, Nathaniel Seymour and Benjamin Ingham, in 1787; James Vail and Charles Mirick, in 1789; Isaac and Darius Stephens, ——— Reynolds and his sons, in 1790; Esek Turletot, in 1793, and ——— Miner soon after. Joel Reynolds kept the first inn, in 1789; Gershom Morehouse built the first saw and grist mills, at Middlegrove, the same year. Benjamin Clinch kept the first store, at Porter's Corners, in 1787. Wm. Scott was the first supervisor.

The First Congregational Church was organized July 5th, 1790. The Society was formed October 4th of the same year, with 68 signatures, but was not duly incorporated until 1814. The first house of worship was erected in 1793. The first pastor was Rev. Elias Gilbert. In 1800 the membership was 68. In 1831 a parsonage was purchased at a cost of $500, and the next year the meeting-house was removed and repaired at a cost of about $600. In 1855 it was again repaired and a new parsonage built at a cost of about $1,300. The church was again repaired and enlarged in 1868. The church property is valued at $5,000. Rev. Zerah T. Hoyt is the present pastor.

The area of the town is 43,496 acres.

HADLEY was formed from Greenfield and Northumberland, Feb. 27, 1801. Its boundaries were changed Feb. 28, 1808. Corinth was taken off in 1818 and a part of Day in 1819. It lies upon the Hudson, in the north-east corner of the County. A large share of the surface is occupied by the peaks and ridges of the Kayaderosseras Mountains. Mount Anthony is an isolated peak in the south-east part of the town. Iron ore was formerly obtained on the west side of the mountain to supply the furnace at Luzerne. Sacondaga River flows through the south part. Its valley is narrow, and below Conklingville its current is rapid and interrupted by falls in several places. The soil generally is a coarse, yellowish, unproductive sand and gravel. Lumbering and tanning are carried on extensively.

Conklingville, (p. v.) in the west part of the town, on the Sacondaga, contains a church, a large tannery, a saw mill, a grist mill and about 30 dwellings.

The Conklingville Presbyterian Church was organized in 1851 by Rev. John Woodbridge, D. D. The number of members at the time of its organization was about a dozen. Rev. — Myers was the first pastor. Their house of worship was erected in 1852; it will seat 250 and is valued at $1,500. The present number of members is 25. The pastorate at present is vacant. Since the organization of the church, seven members have died and nine have withdrawn by letter. The Episcopal Methodists have worshiped in this church for the last five years.

Hadley, (p. o.) in the east part, at the mouth of the Sacondaga, is a hamlet.

The first settlement was commenced on the Hudson River soon after the close of the Revolution, by Richard Hilton. Alexander Stewart settled on the Hudson in 1788. In 1790 Elijah Ellis settled on the south side of the Sacondaga, ——— Ricard on the north, and Henry Walker, at Hadley, the same year.

The first school was taught in 1791-2 by a man named Wilson. Delane & Hazard built the first saw mill, in 1791, and Alex. Stewart the first grist mill, in 1803. Jonathan Flanders kept the first inn, and Jeremy Rockwell the first store, in 1807. Col. Gordon Conkling built the tannery at Conklingville, and placed the first steam tug on the river. Benjamin Cowles was the first supervisor.

The area of the town is 23,571 acres.

HALF MOON, named from the crescent shape of the land between the Hudson and Mohawk, was formed as a district, March 24, 1772, and as a town, March 7, 1788. Its name was changed to Orange, April 17, 1816, and the original name was restored Jan. 16, 1820. Waterford was taken off in 1816, and Clifton Park in 1828. The surface is undulating and broken by the narrow ravines of small streams. Hudson River forms the east boundary, and the Mohawk a portion of the south boundary. The river flats are about half a mile wide and are bordered by a line of steep clay bluffs from sixty to one hundred feet high. Anthony's, Dwaas and Steena Kils are the other principal streams. The soil upon the uplands is a gravelly and clayey loam, and upon the river flats a fine fertile alluvium.

Crescent, (p. v.) in the south part of the town, on the Mohawk River and Erie Canal, contains a Methodist church, a hotel, two stores, a grocery, a grist mill, a saw mill, a foundry, several other mechanic shops and about 400 inhabitants. The Canal crosses the Mohawk at this place, on a stone aqueduct supported by twenty-six stone piers. It is 1,150 feet long. The brick yard of Cornelius Newton, about a mile west of Crescent, turns out from 200,000 to 300,000 bricks annually.

Middletown, (Half Moon p. o.) in the south part of the town, about a mile east of Crescent, contains about 200 inhabitants.

The sash and blind factory of Rogers & Peters, about half a mile west of Mechanicville, turns out about $55,000 worth annually.

Mechanicville, (p. v.) in the north-east part, on the Rensselaer & Saratoga R. R., is mostly in Stillwater, which see:

Clifton Park, (p. v.) on the west border, is partly in this town. It contains two churches, viz., Methodist and Baptist, a female seminary, a hotel, a wagon and carriage shop, several other mechanic shops and 120 inhabitants.

Clifton Park Village Female Seminary was established in 1863 by Miss M. C. Clement, since which it has been in successful operation.

There is direct communication between this place and Troy, Lansingburgh and Waterford, daily, by horse cars and stage.

Newtown, Smithtown and Gray's Corners are hamlets.

The first settlements are supposed to have been made between 1680 and 1690, by Germans, on the Mohawk Flats. In 1689 it was resolved by the authorities of Albany to remove the fort about the house and barn of Harne Lievese, at Half Moon, to a more convenient place. From this it is inferred that a considerable settlement existed at that time. In 1714 the precinct of Half Moon contained 101 inhabitants. Among the early settlers were Oldert Onderkirk, on the flats, Daniel Fort, on the Judge Leland farm, and —— Taylor, at Mechanicville, before 1763. The ancient stone house on the Dansbach place, in the south-west corner of the town, was built in 1718 by Killian Van Den Bergh. There was a saw mill on Steena Kil, near Crescent, in 1762. William Bradshaw built a grist mill on Dwaas Kil at the close of the Revolution. A bridge was erected across the Mohawk in 1794 at a cost of $12,000.

On the farm now occupied by Hon. Z. A. Leland, lived a family who were massacred by Canadians and Indians in 1748. The next year a house was built on the same farm and is still standing. The boards that were used for the inside work were split and hewn from the bodies of pine trees. The farm is known as the old Col. Tenbrook place. A short distance south of this place is a barn erected in 1737. In 1820 the farm upon which this barn stands was purchased by a Scotchman named Strachn. In his journal he describes the two houses as the "mansion" and the "farm house." He says that there was no well, but the water was taken from a pit near by, but, "I am informed that there was once a good well a little south-west of the house, but that it was filled up by a Dutch family on account of its being haunted by the ghost of a woman without a head."

The Champlain Canal was completed to this place in 1822, and the next year the whole line was completed.

John Flynn, from Ireland, settled in the east part of the town and kept a tavern about 1753. When the Revolution broke out he went to Albany.

Jacob Devoe, from Tarrytown, came to Half Moon about 1770, and settled about two miles west of Mechanicville, where his grandson, James Devoe, now lives. When he first came, he leased six acres of land, for which he was to pay a rent of four ears of corn annually. He had previously spent a few months in Saratoga, about two miles west of the Springs. This place was so infested with rattlesnakes that he decided not to remain. Near the High Rock Spring, the settlers were compelled to suspend their beds from the trees to keep the snakes out. Mr. Devoe died at the age of 103 years, and his wife at the age of 105. He was married at the age of twenty, his wife being twenty-three. It seldom falls to the lot of people to live together as husband and wife so long.

Timothy Woodin, from Putnam County, settled in this town in 1768, about two miles north of Crescent. His son Reuben was a Revolutionary soldier and received his discharge at Tribes' Hill, in Montgomery County. Benjamin Rosekrans was the first supervisor. He was from Dutchess County and settled in the town soon after the Revolution, and held various offices. He was once a member of the Legislature and was justice of the peace twenty-two years. He died at the age of 65.

Methodist Episcopal Union Church was organized by Rev. Bradley Selick, the first pastor. Their house of worship was erected in 1833; it will seat about 200 and is valued at $1,000. The present membership is 38, and the present pastor Rev. J. S. Hart.

Crescent Methodist Episcopal Church was organized in 1853 with twenty members; a house of worship was erected the same year whose value at present is estimated at $6,000. It will seat 500 persons. Rev. Tobias Spicer was the first pastor; Rev. George C. Thomas is the present pastor.

The Methodist Church of Coon's Corners was organized in 1851 by Isaac S. Clements and others, and consisted of seventeen members. Rev. O. Spicer was the first pastor. A house of worship seating 200 was erected the next year at a cost of $1,200; its present value is $1,500. The present membership is 37 and the present pastor is Rev. B. B. Loomis. Services are usually held Sabbath afternoon.

The area of the town is 20,663 acres.

MALTA was formed from Stillwater, March 3, 1802, and a part of Saratoga was annexed March 28, 1805. It lies upon the west bank of Saratoga Lake, south-east of the center of the County. The surface is chiefly an undulating upland, elevated from sixty to eighty feet above Saratoga Lake, and broken by the deep gulleys of small streams. The streams are Kayaderosseras Creek, which forms the north boundary, Ballston Outlet Creek, an inlet of Round Lake, Anthony's Kil, the outlet of the same, and Drummond's Brook, flowing into Saratoga Lake. Round Lake, in the south-east, is nearly circular and about one mile in diameter. A swampy region covering several hundred acres lies in the north-east part of the town, at the mouth of the Kayaderosseras. The soil is principally a light sandy loam, with clay and muck in the lowlands.

Malta, (p. v.) known also as Dunning Street, is situated near the center of the town and contains a Presbyterian church, a hotel, a store and about twenty dwellings.

Maltaville, (p. v.) in the south part, near Round Lake, contains a Presbyterian church, a store, a hotel, a grist mill, a woolen mill, two carriage and blacksmith shops, and about twenty dwellings.

Malta Ridge and Hall's Corners are hamlets.

Round Lake Camp Ground is situated near Round Lake, a beautiful sheet of water some three or four miles in circumference, and on the Rensselaer & Saratoga Railroad. The site was selected in the spring of 1868 by Joseph Hillman, Gardner Howland, Ensign Stover and others, and purchased by a joint stock company, known as the Round Lake Camp Meeting Association, of which Joseph Hillman, of Troy, is the President. The grounds embrace about forty-four acres, beautifully laid out in avenues, streets and parks, and ornamented with fountains. About forty cottages have already been erected by different individuals, at an expense of from $150 to $900 each. About $50,000 have already been expended in the purchase and improvements of the ground, making it one of the most delightful in the country. Two camp meetings have been held here during each of the last two years. The third National Camp Meeting was held here in July 1869, an account of which, with many of the sermons delivered, has since been published in a volume called Peniel. This is one of the first sites in this State purchased and held by an association for Camp Meetings.

The first settlers were two men named Drummond and McKelpin, who came before the Revolution and located west of the lake. These men were suspected of being Tories and were driven from the County. In 1777-8 Michael Dunning, with six sons and three daughters, from Connecticut, came into town. John Rhoades and Timothy Shipman were the first settlers on Malta Ridge; Robert and John Hunter and Jehial Parks located at Maltaville about the commencement of the Revolution. Mr. Dunning was a captain in the Revolutionary War. He purchased 1,250 acres of land and laid out a square of two acres for a military parade ground.

Captain Parks, of Maltaville, is one of the oldest residents of the town; he helped to build the church erected there about seventy years ago. He is ninety-one years of age and still vigorous and healthy.

Samuel Clark was the first supervisor of the town.

The Presbyterian Church of Malta was organized March 6, 1845, by Rev. Reuben Smith, of Watertown, and consisted of thirty members. The first pastor was Rev. P. S. Talmage; their house of worship was erected in 1843 by the Congregational Society. The present membership is fifty; the present pastor is Rev. George Taylor. Their house of worship will seat 400 and is valued at $1,400. Zadok Dunning, James Hunter and Luther Landow were the first elders of the Church; the present elders are Wm. H. Coon and Dr. S. N. Rowell. The pastors of the Church since its organization have been P. S. Talmage, Alex. Proudfit, A. McA. Thorburn, Thomas Sanson and George I. Taylor.

The Presbyterian Church of Maltaville was organized in 1798, by Robert Hunter, A. Valentine and E. Talmage, with twenty-five members. Rev. Mark Tucker was the first pastor; the first house of worship was erected in 1800. The present house will seat 350 and is valued at $1,500. It is at present occupied by the Methodists.

The area of the town is 17,237 acres.

MILTON was formed from Ballston, March 7, 1792, and a part of Greenfield was taken off in 1793. It lies a little south of the center of the County. The surface is moderately hilly in the north and undulating in the south, with a slight inclination towards Kayaderosseras Creek, which flows south-east through the center of the town. The stream is rapid and furnishes a valuable water power. Glowegee Creek, from the west, is its principal tributary. In the north part are several limestone ridges which are quarried extensively for building stone and lime. The Saratoga mineral spring region extends through the south-east part. The soil is generally a sandy loam.

Ballston Spa (Ballston p. o.) is situated on the Kayaderosseras Creek, in the south-east corner of the town. It contains the County buildings, five churches, viz., Presbyterian, Baptist, Episcopal, Methodist and Roman Catholic; two newspaper printing offices, three cotton factories, two woolen mills, two paper collar manufactories, a floor oil cloth manufactory, a tannery, several other mills and manufactories, and about — inhabitants.*

*See Errata.

Ballston Spa has lately been called upon to mourn the loss of its most distinguished and honored citizen, Hon. ISAAC BLOOD, State Senator, who died of typhoid fever, on the 29th of November, 1870, aged nearly 61 years. Senator Blood has been a life-long resident of this County, and for many years has been identified with its chief manufacturing interests. The village of Bloodville owes its origin and present thrift principally to the manufactories established and carried on here by the late Senator. He was elected Supervisor of the town of Milton in 1847, '59, '69 and '70. He was a member of the State Assembly in 1852, of the Senate in 1860, candidate for Congress in 1862, and again State Senator in 1870, having one year more to serve at the time of his death.

The Union Cotton and Woolen Mills, on the Kayaderoseras Creek, comprise three cotton and two woolen mills. The cotton mills contain about 12,000 spindles and manufacture 95,000 yards of cotton per week. The woolen mills contain about 1,200 spindles and manufacture 900 woolen blankets per week.

The Floor Oil Cloth Manufactory of J. Wait & Son turn out about 45,000 or 50,000 yards annually.

The First Presbyterian Church at Ballston Spa, was organized about 1833, with about 30 members. Rev. Mr. Prune was the first pastor. Their house of worship was erected in 1835; it will seat 550 and is valued at $10,000. The present number of members is 175, and the present pastor is Rev. Mr. Haight.

Christ Church (Episcopal) was organized in 1787 by Rev. Ammi Rogers, the first pastor. The first house of worship was erected in 1792-3, and consecrated in 1793 by Bishop Samuel Provoost. The present house of worship was erected in 1860 and consecrated in 1867 by Rt. Rev. Horatio Potter, Bishop. It will seat 300. The church edifice, parsonage and lot is valued at $20,000. Rev. Joseph Curey, A. M., is the present pastor. The present number of members is about 450. Connected with the Church is a Sunday school of 150 children, and a parish school of 75 pupils. The present officers of the Church are James W. Horton and W. K. Booth, Wardens; John H. Westcott, S. B. Medbery, Wm. Smith, John Richards, Seth Whalen, B. F. Baker, E. H. Chapman and Nathaniel Mann, Vestrymen; Miss C. H. Babcock, Organist; Charles Wayne, Sexton.

This village has long been celebrated for its mineral springs. These springs were first discovered in the survey of the Kayaderoseras Patent in 1769. This was an important watering place before Saratoga had attained much notoriety, but several of the old springs disappeared or became greatly impaired, and for several years Saratoga has eclipsed Ballston as a popular resort for pleasure seekers. Within a few years several valuable springs have been discovered, and as their waters become known, visitors are attracted hither. The old Sans Souci Hotel, so celebrated in former years, has renewed its youth and affords a comfortable home for a large number of boarders.

The Artesian Lithia Spring, discovered by boring into the solid rock to the depth of 650 feet, is one of the most valuable springs in the County or in the world, and bids fair to rival the most celebrated, as its medicinal qualities become known. The water of the different springs differ somewhat, but is similar to those of Saratoga. From one spring an inflammable gas issues that is used for illuminating purposes. A well of about 675 feet has been sunk on the Sans Souci grounds, from which water spouted to the height of 40 feet at first and has continued to flow freely since. The water appears to be equal to any in the County.

Rock City Mills, (p. v.) in the north part, contains a church, a hotel, a store, a paper mill and about thirty dwellings.

West Milton (p. v.) contains a Presbyterian church, a hotel, a saw mill, a grist mill, several stores and manufactories, and about forty dwellings.

Bloodville, situated a little north-west of Ballston, contains extensive manufactories of axes, scythes and other edge tools, a knitting factory, a sash and blind factory and about fifty dwellings.

Factory Village, on the Kayaderosseras Creek, a short distance above Bloodville, contains three paper mills and about twenty dwellings.

Milton Center and Crane's Village are hamlets.

The first settlement was made in this town before the Revolution, by David Wood and his sons Stephen, Benjamin, Elijah, Nathan and Enoch, who purchased 600 acres and moved into the town. Benajah Douglas, grandfather of the late Stephen A. Douglas, built a log house near the springs, for the accommodation of visitors in 1792. Silas Adams and Elijah Walbridge located in the north part of the town in 1784-5. In 1792 Nicholas Low built a tavern near the spring, and in 1804 erected the "Sans Souci Hotel." For many years this was patronized by the elite of the country, while Saratoga was just rising into notice. John Ball was the first supervisor of the town.

The first church (Bap.) was organized Jan. 22, 1793.

The area of the town is 22,461 acres.

MOREAU, named in honor of Marshal Moreau, who visited the United States in 1804-5, was taken from Northumberland, March 28, 1805. A part was annexed to Corinth in 1848. It lies in the great bend of the Hudson River, in the north-east corner of the County, that stream forming the east, the north and a part of the west boundary. The west part of the town is occupied by the rocky and precipitous peaks of the Palmertown Range of mountains. The central and east portions are undulating and broken by the narrow ravines of small streams. The Hudson has numerous rapids and falls in its course, affording abundance of water-power. The Snook Kil and its tributaries drain the south part of the town. The soil generally is a light, yellow, sandy loam, but in the south and west there are some tracts of clay and gravel.

South Glens Falls, (p. v.) in the north-east part, on the Hudson River, contains a church, a hotel, several stores, two sash and blind factories, a paper mill, a grist mill, a plaster mill and marble factory, several large saw mills and about 600 inhabitants. A large amount of lumber is sawed here and upon the opposite side of the river, and for miles the river is covered with logs during a large part of the season.

The Morgan Lime Co. established their works in 1868, and make about 50,000 barrels of lime annually. They have a cooper shop which turns out about 450 barrels per day during the summer.

The Mill of Morgan, Adsit & Co. cuts about 15,000,000 feet of lumber annually. They employ about 125 men and run 275 upright and 27 circular saws.

The Glens Falls Paper Co. manufacture straw printing paper. The mills were erected in 1864-5 and turn out two tons of paper daily.

Feeder Dam, in the north part of the town, contains two large saw mills, cutting annually about 15,000,000 feet of lumber, and about twenty-five dwellings.

Fortville, (p. v.) in the central part, contains a Methodist church, a store, several mechanic shops, a grist mill and about twenty dwellings.

Clark's Corners, in the south-east part, contains a Friends Meeting House, a cheese factory and ten dwellings. The cheese factory has a capacity sufficient for the milk of 400 cows. It was established in 1866.

Moreau Station (p. o.) is on the Rensselaer & Saratoga R. R.

Reynolds Corners is a hamlet in the central part of the town.

Settlements are said to have been made here previous to the Revolution, but their history is only a vague tradition. A man named Marvin was the first settler at Fortsville, about 1795. Edward and Elijah Durham, and Holly St. John were the first settlers at Clark's Corners. Among the early settlers were Paulinus Potter, Samuel Churchill, Reuben Barnes, S. Bishop, Moses Lewis, Johnson Andrus and Dan Hamlin, from Connecticut, and Thomas Rogers, from Rhode Island. John Glen was another early settler. L. Bancroft built the first grist mill, and afterwards a powder mill, at the landing opposite Sandy Hill. Some of the early settlers were accustomed to cross the river on sticks of timber laid from rock to rock, and carry their grists on their backs to the mill on the opposite side of the river. Asa Putnam was the first collector after the organization of the town. John and Ira Hefferds, from Connecticut, came in about the same time. John Linendoll kept the first store, in the east part of the town. Abel Crandall kept the first inn, about 1798. Thomas Rogers was the first supervisor.

The first church edifice (Congregational) was erected in 1805 in the east part of the town, on the river below Fort Edward. The next one was at Reynolds Corners in 1806. Rev. Lebbeus Armstrong was the first settled minister, remaining in charge of the Congregational Church seventeen years.

The area of the town is 25,430 acres.

NORTHUMBERLAND was formed from Saratoga, March 16, 1798. A part of Hadley was taken off in 1801, Moreau in 1805 and Wilton in 1818. It lies upon the Hudson, north of the center of the County. The surface is level or undulating and broken by deep ravines. A line of clay and slate bluffs, from thirty to one hundred feet high, extends along the river. Snook Kil and its tributary, Beaver Dam Creek, are the principal streams. The soil is generally a light sandy loam. This town shares with Fort Edward the Fort Miller Falls.

Gansevoort, (p. v.) on Snook Kil, in the north part of the town, was named in honor of Col. Peter Gansevoort, who settled at this place soon after the war. It contains two churches, a hotel, two stores, a woolen factory, a grist mill, several mechanic shops and about 200 inhabitants. It is a station on the Rensselaer & Saratoga R. R.

Bacon Hill (p. v.) contains a church, a hotel, a store, several shops and about a dozen dwellings. It was named in honor of Ebenezer Bacon, who came from Conn. in 1794, and opened the first framed tavern the same year.

Northumberland (p. o.) is a hamlet.

Fort Miller was built in this town in 1755 under the direction of Col. Miller. It was located on the flat above the rapids and was inclosed on three sides by the river. A block house was built on the heights which commanded the position on the west. The first settlers probably came in before the Revolution. Among them was a Tory named Munroe, who built the first saw mill, at Gansevoort. He was compelled to flee to Canada and his property was confiscated. The mill was destroyed, and afterwards Gansevoort discovered the irons and erected a new saw mill. Soon after he built a grist mill. Fort Miller bridge was erected across the Hudson at this place, by a company incorporated March 16, 1803. Another bridge was erected in 1845, containing a single road track and a towing path for the canal.

The Reformed Church of Gansevoort was organized Sept. 21, 1839, by Rev. Benjamin VanZant, Rev. C. Wykoff and Elder Jones Olmsted. The membership was fourteen and Rev. C. Wykoff was the first pastor. The first house of worship was erected in 1841; it will seat about 300; its present value is about $3,000. The present membership is 35; the present pastor is Rev. Charles Rockwell. There are two sabbath schools connected with the Church, numbering 40 and 65 members respectively.

The area of the town is 20,412 acres.

PROVIDENCE was formed from Galway, February 5, 1796, and Edinburgh was taken off in 1801. It lies near the center of the west border of the County. The surface is mountainous in the north-east and broken and hilly in the south-west. The high regions along the north and east borders contain extensive forests. The principal streams are Flagadorn's, Hans, Cadman's and Frenchman's Creeks, small mill streams rising in the mountains and flowing south-west into Fulton County. The soil is chiefly a coarse yellow sand or gravel of poor quality. Large tracts are stony and rocky. Wooden ware, leather and lumber are manufactured to considerable extent.

Barkerville (p. v.) contains a church, a scythe snath factory, a pail factory, a saw mill, a grist mill, a tannery, a turning shop, a hotel, a store and about a dozen dwellings.

Fayville is a hamlet in the north-west part.

Providence and West Providence are post offices.

Flagadorn's Hollow is a hamlet.

There are in the town twelve saw mills, a woolen factory, a tannery, two grist mills, two flag-seat chair manufactories, a rake factory, a wooden ware factory, a manufactory of gloves and mittens and three churches.

The first settlement was made previous to the Revolution, but the settlers were driven off during the war. Among the first settlers after the war were Nathaniel Wills and Seth Kellogg. The first saw mill was erected in 1786 by a man named Corey, and the first grist mill was built by the same man soon after. The first inn was kept by — Shankland.

There are several very aged people in this town, among whom is Martha Church, aged 96. She is still able to walk about the house by means of a chair. Mr. Smith Woolsey was born in this town and still resides there. He is over seventy years of age.

The area of the town is 26,800 acres.

SARATOGA was formed as a district March 24, 1772, and as a town March 7, 1788. Easton (Washington Co.) was taken off in 1789, a part of Greenfield in 1793, Northumberland in 1798, a part of Malta in 1802, and Saratoga Springs in 1819. It lies upon the Hudson, near the center of the east border of the County. A range of high hills, rounded and sometimes terraced, extends through the central and west parts from north to south. These hills rise 450 feet above the Hudson and slope in every direction. Along the Hudson are narrow alluvial flats, bordered by high clay bluffs. Saratoga Lake forms a portion of the west boundary. Fish Creek, the outlet of the lake, flowing through the north part of the town, is the principal stream. It affords several valuable mill sites. The other streams are small brooks. The soil north of Fish Creek is light and sandy, and in the remaining parts of the town it is a gravelly and clayey loam. Several mineral springs, known as the "Quaker Springs," issue from the Hudson River slate, in a ravine a little south-east of the center of the town. The water of these springs contains lime, magnesia and iron, held in solution by carbonic acid, and a large proportion of common salt and soda.

The Schuylerville and Upper Hudson Railroad, to connect Mechanicville and Fort Edward, is now being located and will probably be built next year. The Saratoga, Greenwich and Hoosick Tunnel Railroad is to connect Saratoga with the Hoosick Tunnel and form a link in the contemplated route from Boston to Oswego.

Schuylerville, (p. v.) named in honor of General Philip Schuyler, who resided at this place previous to the Revolution, is situated in the north-east part of the town, on the Hudson River, at the mouth of Fish Creek. It was incorporated April 16, 1831, and contains five churches, viz., Methodist, Baptist, Reformed, Episcopal and Roman Catholic; a bank, five hotels, a cotton factory, a large paper mill, a foundry, a sash and blind factory, a saw mill, several other mills and manufactories and about 2,000 inhabitants. The Goldsmith House is a fine hotel, erected during the last season for the accommodation of visitors who resort to this place to enjoy the health-giving qualities of the Battle Ground White Sulphur Springs, which was discovered a few years ago.

Prospect Hill Cemetery is owned by a corporation formed under the laws of the State, three years ago. It is a very beautiful rural cemetery and forms one of the attractive features of this place.

Victory Mills (p. v.) is on Fish Creek, a short distance above Schnylerville, and contains a Methodist church, a large cotton factory and about 500 inhabitants.

Quaker Springs, (p. v.) near the center of the town, contains a Methodist church, a store, two wagon shops and about — inhabitants.*

Grangerville, in the north part, is a hamlet containing a hotel, a grist and a saw mill.

Deans Corners (p. v.) contains a store and a cheese factory.

Coveville (p. v.) contains a store and a hotel.

The settlement of this town was commenced in the early part of the last century, on the Hudson River. At an attack made upon Old Fort Saratoga, upon the opposite side of the river, in the fall of 1745, several saw mills and other buildings upon Fish Creek and the river, were burned, and about thirty families were killed or taken prisoners. In 1755 a fort was erected at the mouth of Fish Creek, by the French under Baron Dieskan. It was one of the defenses against the English under Sir William Johnson. It was built of earth and logs, and the lines of the intrenchments inclosed about fifteen acres, bounded south by Fish Creek and east by the Hudson. It was abandoned by the French, and named by the English Fort Hardy, in honor of Sir Charles Hardy, who was that year appointed Governor of New York.

General Philip Schuyler had a residence and mills near this creek during the Revolution. They were burned by General Burgoyne in his retreat from Stillwater. The surrender of the whole British army occurred a few days after, upon the level plain north of old Fort Hardy. The different companies were drawn up in parallel lines, and by order of their own commanders, grounded their arms and emptied their cartridge boxes. They were not even subject to the gaze of an exultant foe, for General Gates had ordered all his army within their camp, out of sight of the British troops, Col. Wilkinson being the only American officer present to witness the scene. Soon after the troops had laid down their arms, General Burgoyne proposed an introduction to General Gates. Accompanied by his staff, he crossed Fish Creek and was met by General Gates at the head of his camp, about a mile south of the creek. When within about a sword's length they halted. Colonel Wilkinson introduced the Generals, when Burgoyne gracefully raised his hat, saying: "The fortune of war, General Gates, has made me your prisoner." General Gates replied, "I shall always be ready to bear testimony that it has not been through any fault of your excellency." The other officers were then introduced and the whole party repaired to General Gates's headquarters, where a sumptuous dinner was served. After dinner the American army was drawn up in parallel lines on each side of the road, extending nearly a mile. Between these troops, the British army, escorted by a company of light dragoons, preceded by two mounted officers bearing the American flag, marched to the tune of Yankee Doodle. Just as they passed, the two commanding generals, who were in Gates's tent, came out together, and fronting the procession gazed upon it for a few minutes in silence. Burgoyne was dressed in a rich scarlet uniform, trimmed with gold, while Gates wore a plain blue frock coat. Without exchanging a word, Burgoyne stepped back, drew his sword and presented it to General Gates. The latter received it with a courteous inclination of the head and immediately returned it to Burgoyne. They then retired to the tent and the British army took up their line of march for Boston, where they were to embark for the mother country.

Everything was agreed upon and adjusted upon the 16th. The signatures of the contracting parties were to be affixed on the next day and the formal surrender to take place. During the night, Captain Campbell succeeded in eluding the American sentinels, and reached the British camp with dispatches from Sir Henry Clinton, announcing his capture of the forts at the Hudson Highlands, and the expedition as far up the river as Esopus. Here was a ray of hope, and General Burgoyne felt disposed to withhold his signature from the agreement already entered into. General Gates was apprised of this and of the cause that had excited new hopes in the British commander. He was better acquainted with the threatening aspect below than Burgoyne, and knew that "delays are dangerous." He drew up his army on the morning of the 17th in order of battle, and then sent a peremptory message to Burgoyne that if the articles were not signed immediately he should open fire upon him. With reluctance Burgoyne subscribed his name and preparations were immediately made for the ceremonies of the surrender, which took place as already stated.

A short distance south of Fish Creek, near the Schuyler Mansion, a notorious Tory, named Lovelace, was executed. He was one of those whose chief desire was plunder. At the commencement of the war he went to Canada and formed a union with five other persons of the County, to return, plunder, rob and destroy his old neighbors. His quarters were in a large swamp about five miles from the residence of Colonel Van Vechten, at Coveville. Robberies were frequent and several inhabitants were carried off. General Schuyler's house was robbed and an attempt was made by Lovelace and his companions to carry off Colonel Van Vechten, but his scheme failed. Capt. Dunham, who commanded a company of militia in the neighborhood, received intimations as to the place of concealment of Lovelace and his companions, and he at once summoned to his house four members of the company, named Davis, Green, Guiles and Burden. They proceeded after dark to the "Big Swamp," three miles distant, where two Tory families resided. Here they separated to reconnoiter, but Green and Guiles were lost. The other three kept together, and at dawn discovered Lovelace and his party in a hut covered with boughs, and just putting on their clothes. The three Americans crawled cautiously forward until near the hut, when they sprang upon a log with a shout, leveled their muskets, and Captain Dunham exclaimed, "Surrender or you are all dead men!" Believing that the Americans were upon them in force they came out one by one without arms and were marched to General Stark's quarters. They were tried by court martial and Lovelace was sentenced to be hanged. He complained of injustice and claimed the rights of a prisoner of war, but he was considered too dangerous to be allowed any leniency and was executed three days afterwards in the midst of a violent storm of wind, rain and lightning.

Col. Van Vechten, of the Saratoga militia, and a member of General Gates' staff, resided near Coveville. He was a zealous advocate of the rights of the people and was an object of dislike to the Tories. His family fled to Albany on the approach of Burgoyne from Fort Edward, and when they returned in the fall, they found that the buildings had all been burned by order of General Burgoyne, and the whole estate was a total wreck. In 1848 Mr. Lossing called on a son of Col. Van Vechten and received much valuable information from him. He was at that time three score years and ten, yet his memory was unclouded. "His father had stored that memory with the verbal history of his times, and every noteworthy locality of Saratoga was as familiar to him as the flower beds of his beautiful garden."

While the British army was encamped at Schuylerville, some of the officers were accustomed to turn their horses out to graze upon the meadows by the river. An American soldier, encamped on the opposite side, asked and obtained permission to cross the river and capture one of these horses for his own use. Accordingly he swam across the river, caught a fine gray gelding, which he mounted, and plunged into the stream amid the shots of a squad of British soldiers, arrived safe at his camp, where he received the cheers and congratulations of his companions. After resting awhile he told his Captain that it was not fair that an officer should go on foot while a private had a horse, and asked permission to try his luck again. The request was granted and again he crossed the river and in a short time returned unharmed with a horse for his Captain.

The Reformed Church of Saratoga was organized in 1789 by Rev. E. Westerlo, of Albany, and consisted of twenty-two members. A church edifice was erected previous to the Revolution and was supplied by Dutch ministers from Albany, Lansingburgh, &c., as missionaries. Rev. Samuel Smith was installed pastor in 1789. The present house was erected in 1857 at a cost of $5,000, and will seat 500 persons. The present membership is 160 and the present pastor Rev. J. H. Collier.

The first church edifice was used by Burgoyne as a hospital, while he was retreating from Stillwater. An American soldier, seeing a person seated in the window and mistaking her for a soldier, shot an English lady. She was buried under the floor of the church, and when it was removed in 1802, her remains were found in a remarkable state of preservation, the skin being dry and the hair apparently as natural as when first buried. Her remains were removed to the village cemetery.

The Methodist Episcopal Church of Schuylerville was organized in 1827 by Rev. R. Washburn, the first pastor, and consisted of about a dozen members. A house of worship was erected the same year. The present house of worship will seat 400 and is valued at $8,000. The present membership is 240 and the pastor is J. B. Sylvester.

The Church of the Visitation was organized in 1847 by Rev. Thomas Daly, the first pastor. The first house of worship was erected the same year and enlarged in 1855. It will seat about 500 and is valued at $3,500. The number of members at the organization was 100; the present number is 1,500. Rev. H. B. Finigan is the present pastor.

The area of the town is 24,600 acres.

SARATOGA SPRINGS was formed from Saratoga, April 9, 1819. It lies near the center of the County, and has a rolling or moderately hilly surface. Kayaderoseras Creek and Saratoga Lake, forming the south boundary, are skirted by a line of low bluffs. The principal streams are Ellis and Owl Pond Creeks. An extensive tract lying north of Saratoga Lake and along the course of Owl Pond Creek, is low and swampy. The soil is a yellowish sandy loam, not remarkable for its fertility. The mineral springs so widely known, and which give the town its name, are situated about three miles from Saratoga Lake. They are near the center of the mineral spring region, which has a radius of nearly ten miles.

Saratoga Springs (p. v.) was incorporated April 12, 1826. It is situated in the north part of the town and contains ten churches, one daily and two weekly newspapers, two banks, about thirty hotels, several sanitary institutions and 7,518 inhabitants. The mineral springs and other attractions call thousands from all parts of the country to this place during the summer months. The hotels and boarding houses are among the finest and most commodious in the country, the streets are finely shaded, and the parks and pleasure grounds in and around the village, and the beautiful drives in the surrounding country, afford attractions to the pleasure seekers unsurpassed in this country. The medicinal springs, which form the first attractive feature of the place, are numerous, and though no two are precisely alike, they all possess valuable qualities and have restored to health thousands of invalids who drank their waters. The water of several of the springs is bottled and shipped extensively to all parts of the country. The principal ingredients of the springs are chloride of sodium, carbonate of soda, magnesia and iron, and a large amount of carbonic acid gas. By referring to the analysis of several springs by different parties, we find the results differ so much that we have not thought it worth while to give any.

Among the hotels, the Union, Congress Hall and the Clarendon are the largest. Among the sanitary institutions are Dr. Hamilton's Medical and Surgical Institute; Dr. Strong's Remedial Institute, and Dr. Bedortha's Water Cure, each having its advantages and its favorite patrons. The sanitary institutions are open during the whole year, but many of the large hotels are closed except during the summer months.

Congress Park is a fine inclosure with nicely shaded walks for those seeking health or pleasure. The proprietors take great pains to keep the walks clean and to preserve the most perfect order, so that no one shall be annoyed while walking there.

A Race Course has been fitted up about a mile east of Congress Spring, and thither the sporting fraternity and those who own fast nags resort to test their speed. The main avenue of approach to the Course is on Congress Street, which has recently been graded and is now one of the finest drives in the town.

This village has long been noted as a place of resort for the gay and fashionable during the summer months, as well as for invalids.

The Union Hotel, the largest and finest in the village, was extensively repaired and a portion of it rebuilt during the last year. It has a front on Broadway of 450 feet and covers nearly an entire village block of seven acres. It is elegantly furnished and will accommodate sixteen hundred guests. The office, 50 by 70 feet, is finely fitted up with white and colored marbles, and a series of colonnades rises from the center of the office rotunda to the dome. The main parlor is 50 by 100 feet, fitted up with mirrors, paintings &c., and lighted at night by magnificent chandeliers. The dining room is 60 by 240 feet, and 25 feet high. A fine court yard, laid out with walks and grass plots, and finely shaded, occupies the space in the rear between two wings. The piazzas in front and rear afford nearly half a mile of promenade. A spacious elevator, seating thirty people, conveys the guests to the rooms in the upper stories.

Congress Hall, the next hotel in size and splendor of arrangement, has a front on Broadway of 375 feet, and two wings of 250 feet each, one of which fronts on Spring Street. It stands upon Broadway and extends from Congress to Spring Streets, with two wings extending to Putnam. A fine court-yard, nicely shaded, with gravel walks and grass plots, is between the wings. A beautiful and substantial iron bridge extends across Spring Street, connecting Congress Hall with the Dancing Hall belonging to the hotel.

The First Congregational Church was organized March 1865 with 45 members. Rev. E. N. Sawtell, D. D., was the first pastor. Their house of worship was erected in 1868; it is valued at $25,000 and will seat 800. The present number of members is 160. The present pastor is Rev. P. R. Day.

The Presbyterian Church of Saratoga Springs was organized in 1817, with nine members, by the Presbytery of Albany. Rev.

Daniel C. Griswold was the first pastor. The first house of worship was erected in 1817. The present one was erected in 1856; it is valued at $60,000 and will seat 1,100. The present membership is 356. The present pastor is Rev. John Woodbridge, D. D., who began his labor here in 1850.

The First Baptist Church of Saratoga Springs was organized Oct. 11, 1793, with 20 members. Rev. E. P. Langworthy was the first pastor. The first house of worship was erected in 1796. The present one was erected in 1821; it is valued at $30,000 and will seat 500. The present number of members is 488. The pastorate at present is vacant.

The Methodist Episcopal Church was organized in 1829, with two members, by Rev. Mr. Stebbins. Rev. I. D. Moriarty was the first pastor. The first house of worship was erected in 1830. The present number of members is 420. The present pastor is Rev. H. C. Sexton. The Church edifice will seat 1,000 and is valued at $65,000.

The business of the village is chiefly connected with the entertainment of visitors during the fashionable watering season. The Kayaderosseras Patent was divided, and the portions assigned by lot to the proprietors. The springs are on the part that fell to the lot of Rip Van Dam. There is reason to believe that the High Rock Spring, the first of the medicinal springs discovered, had long been known to the Indians when the whites first came to this part of the country, and the healing virtues of its waters were frequently tested. Sir William Johnson is supposed to be the first white man who visited the spring. His visit occurred in August 1767, when he was borne upon a stretcher by the Indians who had induced him to try the effect of the water. After remaining for a few days he was able to return home part of the way on foot. His example was followed by others, and from that time to the present this has been a place of resort, and the health-giving qualities of the water have been tested by thousands. For several years after the discovery of this spring, there were no public accommodations, and invalids and their friends were obliged to provide for themselves. In 1773 Derick Scowton was induced to move to these springs, clear a small tract of land on the top of the hill, in the rear of the High Rock Spring, and erect a log cabin. Before he had completed his tenement he had a misunderstanding with the Indians and sought safety by flight. In 1774, John Arnold, from Rhode Island, with his family, arrived on the eastern shore of Saratoga Lake. Here he heard such accounts of the mineral springs and of the land in that vicinity that he was induced to continue his journey. After supplying himself with articles suitable for trading with the Indians, he procured a canoe, put his family on board, and with his little stock in trade, paddled across the lake to the mouth of Kayaderosseras Creek, followed up the creek about two miles, where he landed, he and his family taking their goods upon their backs and following the trail to the mineral springs. They took possession of the cabin previously built by Scowton, and opened a tavern, occupying it two summers, when they left. Samuel Norton was Arnold's successor. The next year he cleared and cultivated the land about his house, but the war coming on, he abandoned his improvements, joined the British army and shortly after died. The land in the vicinity had been purchased by Isaac Law, Anthony Van Dam and Jacob Walton. Law left the country and his property was confiscated. In 1783 a son of Norton's removed to the spring, took possession of the property previously occupied by his father, and continued the improvements until 1787, when he sold to Gideon Morgan, who conveyed it to Alexander Bryan, who erected a blacksmith shop and an additional log house, which he opened as a tavern. Bryan was a native of Connecticut and lived in the town of Half Moon, previous to his removal to Saratoga Springs. During the Revolution he was a favorite of both parties and was employed as a spy by Gates and Burgoyne both. He was the first permanent settler at the Springs after the close of the war.

Gideon Putnam came into this town in the spring of 1789 and located in the west part of the village. Here he leased three hundred acres of land, girdled the trees on a portion of it, put in his crops, and when he had nothing else to do, engaged in making staves and shingles, which he carried to the Hudson River at the mouth of Fish Creek. The next spring he floated them down the river to New York where they commanded a ready sale, and he returned with means to build a saw mill. William Patching, a wheelwright by trade, became a neighbor of Putnam's about this time, and through his assistance the saw mill was soon in operation and kept running night and day. The next spring Putnam had a large raft of sawed lumber in addition to his staves and shingles, which he floated to New York. This enterprise was successful and he returned with the means of clothing himself and family and had besides a "peck measure full of silver coin," with which he paid for the 300 acres of land which he had previously held on lease. Dr. Clement Blakesley, a brother-in-law of Putnam's, had been with him most of the time. In 1802 Mr. Putnam purchased an acre of land of Henry Walton, where the Union Hotel now stands, removed a few of the trees and erected a building seventy feet in length, which was for many years part of the Union Hotel. Nearly the whole region was covered by forests at that time, and so large a house attracted attention. His sign was a rudely painted representation of "Putnam and the Wolf." In 1805 he purchased 130 acres of land of Henry Walton and laid out a village plat. In 1806 he tubed the Washington Spring, and soon after the Columbian Spring. The number of visitors to the Springs was increasing annually, to accommodate whom he built a bath house near the present Congress Spring. He next tubed the Hamilton Spring. In 1811 he began the erection of Congress Hall, and while the masons were plastering the north end of the piazza, the scaffolding upon which he was walking gave way and all were precipitated to the ground. Mr. Putnam never fully recovered from the injuries he there received. He died Dec. 1, 1812. He was the first to be laid in the burying ground which he had presented to the village.

Miles Beach moved from Ballston to this place about the year 1806. He built a store on the east side of Broadway, a little north of Congress Hall. This was the first store opened in that part of the village. He afterwards built a distillery on the back part of the same lot. The first brick house in the place was built by Ashabel Andrews, on the south corner of Washington Street and Broadway. Nathan Lewis afterward built the Pavilion on the east side of Broadway, near where the Presbyterian church now stands. The first clearing in the south part of the village was made by Indian Joe, a half breed. In 1783 General Philip Schuyler opened a road from the mouth of Fish Creek to the Springs. Here he erected a tent, under which he and his family remained several weeks. The next year he built a small house for himself and family, and continued to occupy it during the summer while he lived. This was the first frame house erected in the village. It consisted of two rooms with a stone fire place and chimney, and was finished inside and out with rough boards. In 1823 John Ford built the original part of the United States Hotel. It was enlarged at different times until it became one of the largest in the place. It was burned June 18, 1865, and has never been rebuilt. John and Ziba Taylor were among the earliest merchants of the place. They were active business men and engaged largely in the lumber trade. They opened the first store, in 1794. William Waterbury came into this town about 1791 and purchased a farm of one hundred acres, lying south of what is now Congress Street; he gave $3.25 per acre. The deed was executed by John K. Beekman and Thomas Storms, then residents of New York City. Samuel Waterbury located here soon after. When Wm. Waterbury reached this County he owed the man who moved him seven dollars, and had only two and a half with which to pay him. His other property consisted of a scythe and a pocket knife. He was elected constable and held the office for eleven consecutive years. He died July 16, 1843. Henry Walton, one of the largest landholders of the place, first settled in Ballston in 1790. In 1816 he came to Saratoga Springs and took possession of real estate inherited from his father and his uncle. He at one time owned nearly all the land occupied by the present village of Saratoga Springs, except what lies south of Congress Street. He presented the site for the first Presbyterian Church edifice, and also the site occupied by the Universalist Church. He died in New York City, Sept. 15th, 1844.

High Rock Congress Spring. This was the first of the mineral springs discovered in this region, and is believed to have been known to the Indians, on account of its healing properties, long before it was visited by white men. It is one of the greatest natural curiosities of the country, and worthy of the attention of all. The rock is composed of what is known as calcareous tufa. It is conical in shape and rests upon the marl beneath the surface of the ground. Its size diminishes quite rapidly as it rises above the surface, and terminates in a rounded top, in the center of which is a circular opening which leads to the cavity within. This cavity gradually widens as the rock enlarges, leaving the thickness of the rock nearly the same throughout, making the space within similar in shape to the exterior of the rock. The circumference of the rock at the surface of the ground is twenty-four feet, four inches; the diameter of the aperture four inches below the summit is twelve inches; the height of the rock above the ground is three feet six inches, and the depth of the spring from the top of the rock is thirty-two feet. The rock is supposed to have been formed by the deposition of matter from the water. The water in this rock did not rise to within several inches of the top until artificially tubed. In 1865 the proprietors commenced a series of improvements, during which some very interesting discoveries were made. On removing the conical rock, it was found to have no immediate connection with the rock below, but the water was supplied by percolations through the intervening soil. Directly beneath the rock they found muck and tufa commingled, to the depth of seven feet, then a layer of tufa two feet thick, then a stratum of muck, then another stratum of tufa three feet thick. The trunks of large trees and the leaves of pine and other trees were found imbedded in the muck. Upon the trunk of one tree there were counted 130 concentric rings. The upper surfaces of these trees were worn smooth, indicating that they had formed a passage way for the Indians, to the spring. Proceeding thus through alternate strata of tufa and muck, they reached the rock from which the water proceeded. A tube was applied and the conical rock replaced in its original position, since which the water has flowed over the surface. The event was celebrated on the 23d of August, 1866, upon which occasion the late Chancellor Walworth presided and an oration was delivered by W. L. Stone, of New York City. The mother of President Dwight, of Yale College, visited the High Rock Spring in 1791, and thus speaks of the place: "On reaching the springs at Saratoga, we found but three habitations and those poor log houses, on the high bank of a meadow where is now the western side of the street, near the 'Round Rock.' This was the only spring then visited. The houses were almost full of strangers, among whom were several ladies and gentlemen from Albany; and we found it almost impossible to obtain accommodations even for two nights. We found the 'Round Rock' at that time entire, the large tree that some years after fell and cracked a fissure in it being then standing near and the water, which occasionally overflowed and increased the rock by its deposits, keeping the general level three or four inches below the top. The neighborhood of the spring like all the country we had seen for many miles was a perfect forest; and there were no habitations to be seen in all the vicinity except the three log houses, which afforded us little more than a shelter."

Congress Spring was discovered in 1792 by a hunting party, and named in honor of John Taylor Gilman, one of the party, who was a member of Congress.

Columbian Spring is a few rods from Congress. It is chalybeate and highly tonic.

Hamilton Spring is in the rear of Congress Hall; it was discovered and tubed by Gideon Putnam.

Pavilion Spring was discovered at an early day. It was tubed in 1839 by Daniel McLaren. It is now owned by the Pavilion and United States Spring Co., who have greatly improved the surroundings, laying out walks and planting shade trees.

United States Spring is in the same inclosure.

Saratoga Star Spring, formerly called Saline Spring, has already attained considerable celebrity.

Empire Spring, in the north part of the village, was tubed in 1846.

Washington Spring, upon the grounds of the Clarendon Hotel, was first tubed in 1806, but was not brought into practical use until 1859, when, after great expense and labor, it was successfully tubed and its waters rendered available.

Putnam Spring was tubed by Lewis Putnam in 1835, and again in 1857.

Saratoga Seltzer Spring, formerly called "Barrel Spring," because a barrel was used for the tubing, is near High Rock Spring. The ground about the spring was wet and the spring was suffered to pass out of notice. In 1860 Dr. Haskins purchased the lot containing the spring and began the work of excavation with thirty men. A shaft twenty by thirty feet was excavated through five feet of muck, four of tufa, twenty-one of blue clay and four of hardpan, down to the calciferous sand-rock. A birch tree eighteen inches in diameter and thirty feet long, with portions of the roots attached, was found imbedded in the calcareous deposit. The spring was substantially tubed and in 1868 a large bottling house was erected.

Saratoga A. Spring was known at an early day, but no attempts were made to tube it until 1865, when George Western & Co. purchased the land upon which it rises. The tubing was defective and it was retubed in 1866, after which the water was bottled in considerable quantities until the burning of the bottling house.

Excelsior Spring is one of ten springs situated about a mile east of Broadway. This spring was tubed at an early day, but the tube was imperfectly set and fresh water mingled with that of the spring, rendering it worthless. In 1859 it was retubed, and a carriage way opened leading from the spring to the public highway. A fine avenue has since been opened from the Schuylerville Road to the spring.

Eureka Spring is about a mile and a half east of Broadway. The surroundings are beautiful, and improvements recently made have rendered the place attractive and accessible.

Hathorn Spring, situated a little north of Congress Hall, was discovered in 1868 while removing the debris preparatory to building. This spring is central in location and becoming quite popular.

Sulphur Spring, situated near the Eureka Spring, was tubed in 1868 by Anthony Dyett, Esq., of New York. He has improved the grounds, erected a bathing house and other works for the accommodation of visitors.

The Geyser Spring is a little south of the village and was reached by boring 140 feet through a ledge of rocks. The water is ejected at intervals to the height of fifteen or twenty feet above the surface of the ground. The water is said to possess all the medicinal properties of Congress Spring, with an extra amount of magnesia.

The Crystal Spring and Red Spring, with many others of less note, contain medicinal qualities, which, in common with those mentioned, have made this the most popular watering place on the American Continent.

The area of the town is 16,618 acres.

STILLWATER was formed March 7, 1788. A part of Easton (Washington Co.) was taken off in 1789, and Malta in 1802. It lies upon the Hudson, south-east of the center of the County. The surface is uneven and moderately hilly. The highest point is about 250 feet above the Hudson. The flats along the Hudson and Anthony's Kil are bordered by a range of bluffs from 60 to 100 feet. The streams are generally small brooks flowing through deep gulleys worn in the drift deposits. There are several fine cascades upon these streams. The north-west corner borders upon Saratoga Lake. The soil upon the river flats is alluvial. West of the bluffs is a wide belt of heavy clay; and in the south-west part is a sandy tract interspersed with swamps. Upon the shore of the lake is a spring, called the White Sulphur Spring. A hotel and bathing house were erected here at one time, and a small steamer was put upon the lake. The buildings were burned after a few years and the enterprise was abandoned.

Stillwater, (p. v.) on the Hudson River and Champlain Canal, about three miles north of Mechanicville, contains four churches, viz., Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Episcopal; two hotels, eight stores of various kinds, two paper mills, one making straw board, the other wall paper; a knitting mill, three saw mills, a plaster mill, two lumber and coal yards, a wagon shop, three blacksmith shops, three shoe shops, two district schools and 757 inhabitants. It is connected with the railroad at Mechanicville by stage running twice a day, and also with Schuylerville.

The Knitting Mill of Pierce Kane was erected in 1865. It is 75 feet by 30 and two stories high, and turns out about 25 dozen shirts and drawers daily.

The Paper Manufactory of Mosher, Haight & Co., was established in 1846 by Mosher & Allen. In 1869 the works were burned and new buildings of brick have since been erected. The main building is 26 feet by 76, and two stories high besides the basement. The machine room is 53 by 30 feet, the engine room 40 by 60, and the bleaching room 25 feet square. There are four 300 pound engines, and one machine with the capacity of about one and a half tons per day of wall paper.

The Straw Board Mill of D. & W. Pemble was established in 1867. It has two 300 pound engines and one 36 inch cylinder machine. The dryer is 8 feet in diameter and 18 feet long, Dodge's Patent. The mill has a capacity for turning out nine tons per week, and consumes about 600 tons of straw annually.

Montgomery Lodge F. & A. M., No. 504, was instituted in 1860 and has 95 members. There is about $500 in the treasury, and about $130 are annually paid out for charitable purposes.

Mechanicville, (p. v.,) located on the Hudson River, in Stillwater and Half Moon, was incorporated July 16, 1859. It is a station on the Rensselaer & Saratoga R. R., and contains four churches, viz., Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopal and Roman Catholic; two hotels, an academy, a district school, two carriage factories, a large planing mill and sash factory, a linen thread factory, several stores, groceries, mechanic shops, &c., and about 1,200 inhabitants.

Mechanicville Academy. This is a boarding and day school for both sexes. The edifice, which is of brick, four stories high, was built in 1860. It is beautifully situated on a high bank of the Hudson, and is surrounded by ample and elegant grounds. The building affords accommodations for twenty-five boarders and one hundred day scholars. It has been so crowded for the last few terms that the erection of an addition is in contemplation. The institution is owned by a joint stock company, and managed by a board of twelve trustees. The successive presidents of the Board have been B. B. Hutchins, Lewis Smith and Isaac Clement. C. C. Wetsell was the first principal, Rev. Bernice D. Ames, A. M., is the present principal and lessee of the institution. Four or five other teachers are associated with him in the Board of Instruction.

American Linen Thread Co., organized in 1851, is the only company in America manufacturing linen thread. The capital invested is $70,000. The buildings are of brick, the main one 96x36 feet, with two wings 44x80 and 40x40 feet respectively. Another building connected with the establishment is 44x100 feet. Mr. L. E. Smith is secretary, treasurer and managing agent of the Company.

The Sash and Blind Manufactory of Barnes & Ladow, located about half a mile west of Mechanicville, was established in 1867 by A. Barnes, and in the spring of 1869 Mr. Ladow became a partner. The mill is 40x70 feet, two stories high, and gives employment to from 20 to 25 hands.

The Paper Mill of Gardner Howland & Son, is located about half way between the villages of Mechanicville and Stillwater, on the Hudson River. They make about three tons of printing paper per day, and consume about 1,500 tons of straw annually. The mills run one 54 inch Fourdiner Machine with Harper's attachment, and one 48 inch Fourdiner Machine. The mill was established in 1863 by the present proprietors.

The Methodist Episcopal Church of Mechanicville was organized in the year 1828, under the joint pastorate of Rev. James McCreery and Wright Hazen, who were appointed to the charge of Half Moon Circuit at the New York Conference of the same year. The original class consisted of but seven members, five of whom were females, and was instituted in an unoccupied dwelling. For several years the society worshiped in a union church with the other denominations of the village, but in the year 1831, succeeded in erecting a house of worship for their own use, which was dedicated Jan. 1, 1832. This edifice furnished sufficient accommodations until 1848, when the growing congregation necessitated the building of the present house, a brick structure, costing some $5,000, and capable of seating about 350 persons. The present pastor is B. B. Loomis, and the number of communicants 210. This Church has long been distinguished for the number of resident ministers connected with it. Among these may be mentioned Revs. A. McKean, Datus Ensign, Phineas Cook and G. Lyon, fathers in the ministry, who have long since gone to their reward; while at present Revs. B. D. Ames, principal of Mechanicville Academy; O. J. Squires, agent American Bible Society; J. W. Carhart, D. D., agent New York State Temperance Society, and E. Noble, a superannuated member of the Troy Conference, are connected with its Quarterly Conference.

Bemis Hights (p. v.) contains a hotel, a tin shop, a grocery, a carriage shop, a blacksmith shop, a harness shop, a school house, and about a dozen dwellings. The Bemis Hights Cheese Factory, located about three-fourths of a mile west, was established in June, 1870, and can use the milk of 300 cows.

Jobville is a hamlet in the south part of the town.

Ketchum's Corners, (p. o.) in the north-west part, contains two churches, viz., Methodist and Presbyterian, a hotel, a store, a wagon shop, a harness shop, a blacksmith shop and 50 inhabitants. Thomas Hunt, from Dutchess County, was one of the early settlers, having located about a mile and a half from Ketchum's Corners.

Seth Eddy, from Berkshire Co., Mass., came to Stillwater in 1810, and commenced business as a general merchant, which he continued for thirty years. Two years previous to his death, his son Samuel G. was admitted a partner. He has continued the business alone for thirty years, making sixty consecutive years during which the firm has been doing business in the same place. It is said to be the oldest store in the County.

This town was included in the Saratoga Patent of 1684. The settlement commenced about 1750. Among the first settlers were John Thompson, George Palmer, — Benjamin, Direk Swart, and men named Ensign, Burlinghame and Abeel. The two decisive battles between the Americans under General Gates and the British under General Burgoyne were fought in this town. The first occurred on the 19th of September and the second on the 7th of October, 1777. Bemis's Heights, where the battles were fought, are about four miles north of the village of Stillwater. Most of the country was covered by a dense forest at the time of the Revolution. The ground rises abruptly from the river flat, which is about half a mile wide a short distance above, and becomes narrower towards the mouth, the bluffs affording an excellent site for a fortification which would command the passage of the river and the narrow valley below. The principal road passed along the margin of the river. Upon this road, at the southern extremity of the bluff, was a tavern kept by a man named Bemis. It was the best between Fort Edward and Albany, and a famous place of resort for sleighing parties in this region. His stock of liquors was good, and his larder well supplied with all the luxuries which the region afforded. Mr. Bemis owned a portion of the heights near him, and from that circumstance they received their name. On the summit of the height, about three-fourths of a mile north-west of Bemis's, a man named Neilson had made a small clearing and erected a small dwelling and a log barn. The barn was picketed and used as a fort. The house stood upon the east side of the road leading to Quaker Springs; it was occupied as the quarters of General Poor and Colonel Morgan while encamped there. A part of this building is still standing, and is now owned and occupied by Mrs. Charles Nelson. Here is where Major Ackland, who commanded the British Grenadiers, was carried when severely wounded in the battle of Oct. 7th. Some of the Americans concealed themselves in the tree tops, and from their hiding places picked off the British officers by their sure aim. It was a bullet from one of these sharp-shooters which gave General Frazer his death wound. The British and Hessian troops killed in the battles at this place were but slightly covered with earth and brush, and after the land was cleared and cultivated, skulls and other human bones were frequently plowed up. Cannon balls, tomahawks, knives, buttons, &c., were found in great abundance. Asa F. Brightman now owns one of the farms upon which the battles were fought. The Isaac Freeman Estate also occupies a part of the battle ground. General Frazer fell mortally wounded in the battle of October 7th, on the farm now owned by Joseph Rodgers. He died the next day on the farm now owned by P. C. Colton, and was buried upon a hill a short distance north of Wilbur's Basin, in a redoubt which the British had previously thrown up. The funeral occurred at sunset, and the Americans, ignorant of what was going on, kept up a constant cannonade upon the redoubt. Suddenly the irregular firing ceased and a single cannon was heard at regular intervals, booming along the valley and echoing from the hills. It was a minute gun fired by the Americans in honor of the gallant dead. As soon as the information was received that the gathering at the redoubt was a funeral company, paying the last tribute of respect to a brave soldier, orders were given to cease the cannonade with balls and render military homage to a fallen foe.

Lady Harriet Ackland attended her husband, Major Ackland, to Canada in 1776, and during all the campaigns in which he was engaged until his return to England, she accompanied him, enduring all the privations and dangers of an active campaign in an enemy's country. When she learned that he was wounded and a prisoner, she resolved to visit the American camp and if possible attend him. With a note from General Burgoyne to General Gates she set out in an open boat upon the Hudson in the midst of a violent rain storm, attended by the chaplain and two servants. The following is a copy of the note :

“SIR.—Lady Harriet Ackland, a lady of the first distinction of family, rank and personal virtues, is under such concern on account of Major Ackland, her husband, wounded and a prisoner in your hands, that I cannot refuse her request to commit her to your protection. Whatever general impropriety there may be in persons in my situation and yours to solicit favors, I cannot see the uncommon perseverance in every female grace and exaltation of character of this lady, and her very hard fortune, without testifying that your attentions to her will lay me under obligations.

“I am, sir, your obedient servant,

J. BURGOYNE.”

She was received and treated with the greatest kindness, which was duly appreciated by her and her husband.

W. L. Denison now occupies the farm upon which General Gates had his headquarters. It was owned at that time by Captain Ephraim Woodworth, who lived there for some time, and afterwards removed to Northumberland, where he died in 1825 at the age of 93. Jacob Kip of Jonesville now owns the farm near the river, where General Burgoyne had his headquarters a few days previous to the battle.

The Methodist Church of Stillwater village was organized in 1835, by Rev. Ephraim Goss, the first pastor, and consisted of nine members. The first house of worship was erected in 1839. The present membership is 160. The church will seat 250 persons and is valued at $2,500. Rev. Abel Ford is the present pastor. A Methodist church, five miles west of the village, was organized more than eighty years ago.

The Second Presbyterian Church of Stillwater was organized Jan. 22, 1866, with 28 members, by Wm. M. Johnson, the first pastor. A house of worship was erected the same year, valued at $3,600, and capable of seating 250 persons. The present membership is fifty.

The Second Baptist Church was organized by Isaac Wescott, the first pastor. Their house of worship is of brick, 40 by 70 feet, and a basement 40 by 40, used as a lecture room. The value of the church is $5,000 and is capable of seating 300 persons. The present membership is 210; the present pastor is Rev. Thomas Cull.

The First Presbyterian Church of Mechanicville and Stillwater was organized in 1852 by the union of a small village church and a small country Congregational church, with a membership of about 40. Rev. P. Barbour was the first pastor. The present membership is 96, and the present pastor is Rev. Irving Beman. The present house of worship was erected in 1852; it will seat 250 and is valued at $8,000.

Col. E. E. Ellsworth was a native of Mechanicville. He was born April 23, 1837; received a good English education, and before he was of age went to Chicago and established himself as a patent solicitor, and subsequently studied law. He had a strong predilection for military life, and while engaged in his studies, became thoroughly acquainted with the French Zouave drill and organization. He formed a corps and thoroughly drilled them in the Zouave tactics. The drill was very severe in the gymnastics, but so thorough did they become in it, that in July 1860 they visited the eastern cities and gave exhibitions, winning golden opinions for their efficiency in discipline and drill. No member of the corps was allowed to use tobacco or spiritous liquors. On his return to Chicago, Col. Ellsworth organized a Zouave regiment which he offered to the Governor in defense of the State. He engaged actively in the political campaign of 1860, and accompanied the President elect on his journey to Washington. He received a Lieutenant's commission preparatory to entering into the War Department, but the call of the President for volunteers changed his purpose, and he went to New York, organized a regiment of 1,200 men from the Fire Department, and in three weeks marched at their head through Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, May 23d. They were ordered to Alexandria, where they arrived the next morning. Seeing a Rebel flag flying over the Marshall House, he entered and asked a man whom he met, whose flag that was. The man was Jackson, the proprietor, but professed not to know, as he was only a lodger. Ellsworth, with two companions, passed up stairs to the roof, took the flag and passed down. As he descended, Jackson, who was concealed in a dark passage, shot him dead, and the next instant fell dead himself, pierced by a bullet from the gun of F. E. Brownell, one of Ellsworth's companions. Col. Ellsworth's body was carried to Washington and funeral services were held in the White House, the President being the chief mourner. It was then carried to Mechanicville where it was buried. "A regiment made up of one man from each town in his native State was his fittest though not his only monument."

The population of the town in 1870 was 3,405. The area of the town is 25,759 acres.

WATERFORD was formed from Half Moon, April 17, 1816. It lies at the junction of the Hudson and Mohawk Rivers, in the south-east corner of the County. The Indians called the country around the mouth of the Mohawk, "Nach-te-mack." The town was formerly known as Half Moon Point, and the semi-circular tract between the Hudson and the Mohawk was called Half Moon. Its present name originated from the fact that at the village of Waterford, a ford crossed to Haver Island. The area of the town is about seven square miles. The surface is chiefly an upland from fifty to one hundred feet above the river. The Mohawk is bordered by an almost perpendicular range of slate bluffs, and the Hudson valley by a range of clay bluffs. The soil is a sandy, clayey and alluvial loam, and very fertile. The falls in the Mohawk afford a valuable water-power.

Waterford, (p. v.) at the junction of the Hudson and Mohawk rivers, was incorporated April 6, 1801. It is on the Champlain Canal and is a station on the Rensselaer and Saratoga R. R. It contains six churches, viz., Baptist, Presbyterian, Reformed, Methodist, Episcopal and Roman Catholic, a bank, a newspaper office, several mills and manufactories, and about 3000 inhabitants. Among the manufactories are one of straw board, brushes, steam engines, steam fire and hand engines, machine shops, flouring mills, and other works of various kinds. The bridge across the Hudson at this place was built by the Union Bridge Company in 1812, '13 and '14, at a cost of $20,000. The first bridge at this place was built in 1804, and cost $50,000.

H

The site of the village was purchased in 1784 by Colonel Jacobus Van Schoonhoven Middlebrook, Ezra Hiscock, Judge White and several others, most of whom were from Connecticut. Flores Bancker was employed to lay out the village into lots. March 25, 1794, Hezekiah Ketchum, Jacobus Van Schoonhoven, Mathew Gregory, Isaac Keeler, John Pettitt, Duncan Oliphant and Thomas Smith were constituted Trustees of Half Moon Point. An hydraulic canal, about half a mile in length, was constructed in 1828-29 by J. F. King. The manufactories of the village are upon this and the Champlain Canal. In 1841 the place was visited by a very destructive fire which destroyed 130 buildings.

The town was first settled by the Dutch at a very early day. John Cramer was the first supervisor of the town.

The area of the town is 3,857 acres.

WILTON was formed from Northumberland, April 20, 1818. It lies a little north-east of the center of the County. The Palmertown Mountains extend across the north-west corner. Their slopes are steep and rocky, and their summits covered with forests. The center and south-western portions are gently undulating or broken by low ridges. The principal streams are Snook Kil, Bog Meadow and Cold Brooks. The soil in the east and south-east is a yellow sandy loam, resting on clay; in some places it is swampy. At the foot of the Palmertown Mountains is a belt of productive gravel and clay loam. A heavy growth of white and yellow pine originally covered the plains. The woodland is mostly cleared. Near Emerson's Corners is a spring of acidulous and carbonated water, and in the south part of the town is a sulphur spring.

Wilton, (p. v.) in the north part, contains a church, a hotel, a store, several mechanic shops and about 20 houses.

Emerson's Corners is a hamlet.

The first settlement was made in 1774 by Rowland Perry and his sons Samuel, John, Benjamin, Absalom, Roswell, Artemas, Rowland and Joseph, from Dutchess County. Among the early settlers were John Stiles, Ebenezer King, John Laing, Peter Johnson, James and William McGregor, who settled in the town in 1775. John Boyce, Robert Milligan, John Kendrick and Enoch M. Place located here in 1784.

John Laing built the first saw mill in 1784-5, and William McGregor the first grist mill, soon after the war. Stephen King kept the first inn, and ——— Ostrom the first store.

Near the mill pond, on Snook Kil, are traces of Indian occupation; pestles, broken pottery and flint arrow heads are found in abundance.

Dudley Emerson was the first supervisor of the town.

The area of the town is 23,238 acres.

Queensbury, Warren County.

QUEENSBURY was incorporated by patent as a township, May 20, 1762, and embraced 2,300 acres. It was reorganized as a town March 13, 1786. Luzerne was taken off in 1792, and a part of Caldwell in 1810. A strip of territory one mile wide was taken from Luzerne and added to this town in 1802. It lies between Lake George and the Hudson River, in the southeast corner of Warren Co. The west part is occupied by the Luzerne Mountains, and the extreme north part by French Mountain, a high, rocky bluff, which rises precipitously from the surface of Lake George to the height of 2,500 or 3,000 feet above tide. The central and south parts are rolling, gradually declining towards the south. The soil is a light sandy loam in the interior, and a deep tough clay upon the river. The fall upon the Hudson at Glens Falls is about fifty feet, and affords valuable mill privileges. Below the fall is a small island, through which is a cave extending from one channel to the other. The manufacture of lumber is extensively carried on. An immense number of logs is floated down from the pine forests above, to Glens Falls, Sandy Hill and Fort Edward.

Glens Falls, (p. v.) incorporated April 12, 1839, is situated in the south part of the town, on the Hudson River. The Indian name is said to have been Kay-au-do-ros-sa. It contains nine churches, an academy, a female seminary, two banks, two newspaper offices, a large number of hotels and stores, a grist and flouring mill, several saw mills, sash and blind factories, &c., a furnace and machine shop, several other manufactories of various kinds, and about 5,000 inhabitants. The Glens Falls and Fort Edward R. R. terminates at this place. Stages leave for Lake George on the arrival of the trains, and during the summer large numbers of pleasure seekers pass over this route. The village contains many fine residences and considerable wealth. A disastrous fire, a few years ago, destroyed many public and private buildings, most of which have since been rebuilt, though the marks of the fire are still seen in a few places. Two weekly newspapers are published in the village.

THE GLENS FALLS REPUBLICAN was started in 1842 by M. & T. J. Strong, who continued its publication until 1851. After passing through several different hands it was purchased by H. H. Harris, the present publisher.

THE GLENS FALLS MESSENGER was started by A. D. Milne in 1855. It was subsequently published by Arnold & Cole. In 1862 Mr. Arnold sold out his interest and the paper has since been published by Norman Cole.

The Glens Falls Insurance Co., with a capital of $200,000, is located at this place.

A Soldier's Monument, of Dorchester freestone, has been erected by the town. It is ten feet square at the base and forty-six feet high, surmounted by the figure of an Eagle carved in stone. Upon one side of the monument is the figure of an officer, and upon the other that of a private soldier, both life size. Engraved upon the sides are the names of those who fell in battle or died from wounds and disease while in the service. The rough block of stone from which the eagle was cut contained seventy-five cubic feet and weighed more than 11,800 pounds. The figure is represented with wings partly extended, and measures from shoulder to shoulder, five feet. This work was executed by R. T. Baxter, of Glens Falls, and is highly creditable to his skill as a workman and to the liberality of the town.

The Fair Grounds of the Warren Co. Agricultural Society are located a short distance from Glens Falls, and embrace twenty-eight acres inclosed by a substantial board fence. The grounds are owned by a stock company and are controlled by seven directors. The cost of the grounds and improvements was about $13,000.

The Gang Saw Mill of Col. Zenas Van Dusen is located on the Hudson, a short distance above Glens Falls. About 100 men are employed, running 156 saws and cutting about 10,000,000 feet of lumber annually.

Among the first settlers were Abraham Wing, Reed Ferris, Asaph and Benajah Putnam, Jeffrey Cooper, Ichabod Merritt and Caleb Dowell. Immediately after the war, Benjamin Wing, Nehemiah Seelice, Phineas Babcock, William Roland, David Bennett, James Houghson, Silas Brown and Jeremiah Briggs settled in the town. The first house of worship was erected by the Society of Friends in 1786.

The record of this town during the Rebellion reflects great credit upon the earnest patriotism of the inhabitants. A meeting was called by the citizens of Glens Falls, on the 18th of April, 1861, at which patriotic resolutions were adopted, of which the following is a specimen :

“Resolved, That the village of Glens Falls will not be behind any of her sister villages in contributing the men and the means necessary to defend the Government, and to maintain the permanency of our beloved institutions, and that as our fathers who established the Union pledged ‘their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honors’ to gain our independence, so will we pledge all we possess to cherish and protect the work of the illustrious men of the past, and to transmit unimpaired to our descendants the noble institutions given to us.

“Resolved, That to the end, we are for maintaining this Union undivided, and that whatever may be the consequences, sacrifice of property or life itself, everything but loss of honor, we will stand by the stars and stripes until the last faint echo in the expiring gale shall waft our dying prayer heavenward, in behalf of our country, our institutions and humanity.”

A recruiting office was opened the next Saturday, by Dr. A. W. Holden, and during the following week Capt. George Clendon, Jr., was authorized to raise another company. These two companies were soon filled and were incorporated into the Twenty-second Regiment N. Y. Volunteers. While the recruiting of these companies was going on, a relief fund was raised by voluntary subscription in the town of Queensbury alone, amounting to $11,243, for the aid and support of the families of such members of these companies as were needy or destitute. Another fund was raised to defray the expense of subsistence during the progress of enlistment. The total amount of collections and disbursements from this source, to June 1863, when these companies were mustered out, was $3,260.47, which was apportioned among twenty-nine families.

The area of the town is 37,963 acres.

FACTS FOR THE MILLION!

OVER THIRTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE

IN THE TREATMENT OF

Chronic and Sexual Diseases!

A Physiological View of Marriage.

The cheapest book ever published—containing nearly three hundred pages, and one hundred and thirty fine plates and engravings of the anatomy of the human organs in a state of health and disease, with a treatise on early errors, its deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by a report of cases treated. A truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition. Sent free of postage to any address, on receipt of twenty-five cents in stamps or postal currency, by addressing

DR. LA CROIX,
No. 31 Maiden Lane, Albany, N. Y.

The author may be consulted upon any of the diseases upon which his book treats, either personally or by mail, and medicines sent to any part of the world.

Patients applying for treatment will please state their age, complexion, and all the facts, symptoms and duration of disease in their own language. I am furnishing a class of remedies, not usually adopted by the general practice, that insures greater success, and have given special attention to the treatment and cure of all

Chronic Affections of the Liver, Kidneys, Gravel, Impotency, Seminal Weakness, Varicocele, Hydrocele;

And to the ladies, I offer the most pleasant and effectual remedies, used in the treatment of the many derangements their delicate organizations are susceptible to, as LUCORRHEA, BARRENNESS, PROLAPSUS UTERI, and all irregularities of the menses.

Those desiring to consult a confidential and competent physician, are here offered the means of doing so, without the fear of exposure, and with the certainty of finding the relief sought for. The Dr. may be consulted as above directed personally or by letter. Cases treated by the package, month or case, as desired, on the most liberal terms. Call and examine the most satisfactory testimonials, or send for book and papers, that will convince all of the success attending the Dr.'s practice.

KEEP THIS FOR REFERENCE.

N. B.—NO SPECIFICS USED. Medicines prepared to meet each individual case.—Hence his invariable success.

N. B.—I furnish the best Female Pills in use—an infallible cure for Painful Menstruation.

VAN'S
NEW, NOVEL EXTENSIVE
MUTUAL EXCHANGE,
Intelligence & Advertising Office,
H. VAN OSTRAND,
ROCK CITY FALLS,
Saratoga County, N. Y.

Thousands visit the State and Country Fairs, each with a want to supply or be supplied, to employ or be employed, to buy, sell or exchange, and perhaps the very customer at their elbow, without it being known by either, for want of some system of mutual communication. Every day life exhibits the same in a less degree. Read and suggest any improvement on my plan, below set forth:

I propose to receive, register, and transmit, all this and any other information, cheaper and better than can be done any other way, through books properly kept for convenient reference at Home Office, and at principal State and County Fairs, hereafter, where I intend to be, or have agents conspicuously on hand, with a drop letter delivery office for the convenience of contributors, (and intend to open City Office in Albany, N. Y., after first of January.)

All the Gatherings between now and then will be at the Fairs.

Send short, general descriptions, right along, of

Farms, Wood and Timber Lands, Houses and Lots, Factories, Mills, Mines, Water Powers, Nurseries, Stores, Business Chances, Schools, Patents, &c., &c.,

WITH ONE DOLLAR.

Horses, Cattle, or other Stock, Poultry, Machines, Implements, Fancy or Patented Articles, Ordinary Business Cards, Wants in few words, Festival, Hotel, Boarding House and Agent's Notices, &c., &c.,

EACH OR EITHER FIFTY CENTS.

Every Contributor entitled to full benefit of Register, up to January 1st, 1872, when they may renew for another year at same rate. Responsible local and traveling agents employed to solicit and impart notices.

Letters requiring Answers should contain a Shin-plaster for Postage and Office Expenses.

I have a three story Com-odity Building, seventy feet by twenty-four feet, with wing nearly as large, for free storage of Patent Models, Samples and Merchandise, sent or left on commission, and a long list of Real Estate, Patents, &c.,

DR. V. VAN VLECK,

(LATE OF NEW YORK CITY.)

RESIDENT DENTIST,

Office at St. James' Hotel, Saratoga Springs.

Teeth extracted without the least Pain, with Nitrous Oxid Gas.

Seven years experience with the Gas, during an extensive practice in New York, enables the writer to regard the Gas as being as free from any harm or danger, as a glass of cold water, and the best anaesthetic known to the Dental Profession.

So perfectly delighted are persons who have had teeth extracted while under the influence of the Gas, that the writer appends a few of the expressions made when coming out of it.

Number of Teeth Extracted.

"A delightful process."	9
"For pleasure take the Gas."	15
"I am a physician, and know the importance of anaesthetic agents, but this is the best known to the profession."	5
"The only true way to have teeth extracted."	7
"A pleasant dream, no pain at all."	4
"A nice ride on the Erie Railroad."	18
"Would like to have all my teeth extracted."	1
"I thought I was selecting ribbons."	16
"The greatest improvement of the age."	13
"I can cheerfully recommend the Gas, as given by Dr. Van Vleck."	2
" That's the way to do it, no pain."	8

Together with several thousand others, too numerous to mention; clearly showing the importance of the Gas, when in proper hands, and the perfect freedom from all pain.

Sets of Teeth inserted in every style of the art. Sets with plumpers, to fill out the cheeks, and restore a youthful appearance. Combination sets of Gold and Rubber, insuring greater strength and durability. Light upper, and weighted lower sets, where there is an unusual absorption. Sets made and inserted in five to six hours, for parties who reside at a distance, and guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or no pay.

☞ Special attention paid to filling and preserving the natural Teeth.

N. B.—Call and see specimens of work before engaging elsewhere.

☞ Charges Below Competition.

St. James' Hotel, Congress Street, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

This Hotel is in close proximity to Congress Spring, Congress Hall, Union and Clarendon Hotels, and formerly known as White's Hotel; it has recently changed hands and has been completely renovated, and with a large addition of new furniture, &c., is in every way a first-class Hotel. Full arrangements can be made two months in advance of opening for the season.

A large FEEDING STABLE and CARRIAGE HOUSE is attached to the Hotel grounds. Trusty Hostlers always in attendance. For particulars, address,

RICE'S GENUINE GARDEN SEEDS,

Grown by JEROME B. RICE, at the

CAMBRIDGE VALLEY SEED GARDENS,
Cambridge, Washington County, N. Y.

To all who have occasion to purchase Seeds:—It is manifest, and needs no argument to make patent the simple truth, that from good seed only can good vegetables be obtained—Figs do not grow on Thistles—and yet, strange and inconsistent as it may seem, we see those who exhibit sound sense in most affairs of life, purchasing seeds from questionable sources, and congratulating themselves (for the moment) on having saved a penny. All not already habitual purchasers of RICE'S SEEDS, are invited to make a trial of these, grown and prepared by me, feeling confident that their efforts (with proper care and management) will be amply rewarded. Jerome B. Rice.

The virtues of the "Excelsior" Water are such as have secured it the high encomiums of Physicians, and others who have used it, possessing, as it does in an eminent degree, Cathartic, Diuretic, Alterative and Tonic qualities.

It produces its beneficial effects without the injurious results which so commonly follow the use of artificial evacuates; and as a general regulator and preservative of the tone of the system, the Water of the "Excelsior" Spring is invaluable, removing and preventing, by its aperient and alterative effects, the incipient forms of disease.

It is used with great success in the treatment of Dyspepsia, Constipation of the Bowels, Affections of the Liver and Kidneys, Bilious Complaints, Fevers, Scrofula, Cutaneous Diseases, &c.

From FORDYCE BARKER, M. D. Professor of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women in the Bellevue Hospital Medical College.

"I make great use of the various Mineral Waters in my practice, and I regard the "Excelsior" Spring Water of Saratoga as the best Saline and Alkaline laxative of this class. Sprinkling with Carbonic Acid Gas, it is to most persons very agreeable to the taste, and prompt in action as a gentle Diuretic and Cathartic.

New York, March 10th, 1866.

FORDYCE BARKER, M. D.

From NATHAN R. SMITH, M. D. Professor of Surgery in the University of Maryland.

"I have recently used the "Excelsior" Spring Water, and find it to be highly medicinal; more active as a Cathartic and Diuretic than any other natural water with which I am acquainted; I continue to use it, and recommend it to my patients.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 1, 1866.

N. R. SMITH, M. D., Professor of Surgery.

Extract from Report of Committee on Specimens appointed at the Fifteenth Annual Meeting of the American Pharmaceutical Association, held in New York City, in September, 1867.

"Water from "Excelsior Spring" on Draught and in Bottles. The Water of this Spring has obtained an excellent reputation as a remedial water. One noticeable feature is the mode of bottling the Water. Instead of being pumped into barrels or bottles, it is run into them, under hydrostatic pressure, thus retaining all the Carbonic Acid which exists in the water naturally. A nicely arranged air pump, which is connected with the barrels, forces the water from them in the same condition in which it issues from the Spring. The Committee deem this a very great improvement in the dispensing of natural mineral waters. [See proceedings of the American Pharmaceutical Association, 1867, Volume 15, pages 326 and 327.]

Cohoes Lime, Cement & Plaster Co., Cohoes, N. Y., advertise on page 242. The proprietors of this establishment are prepared to furnish Lime, Cement, Plaster, White Sand, &c., in any desirable quantity, at short notice and at prices to suit the times. Let those in want of any of these articles call on them.

Elliptic Lock Stitch Sewing Machine is advertised on page 57. The Sewing Machine has become an indispensable article of household furniture, and the only question with the ladies is, "what machine shall I buy?" This machine appears to possess some advantages over others and deserves an examination by those about to purchase. Simple in construction and not liable to get out of repair; easy of management and noiseless in action, are some of the qualities which recommend it. Those interested will receive all needed information by calling on S. V. Trull, General Agent, No. 10 Mansion House Block, Broadway, Troy, N. Y. Mr. Trull is also agent for the celebrated Florence Reversible Feed Sewing Machines.

Jerome B. Rice, proprietor of the Cambridge Valley Seed Gardens, Cambridge, Washington Co., N. Y., advertises on page 206. We take pleasure in calling the attention of farmers and gardeners to a place where they can procure genuine seeds of all kinds, and where they may depend on getting what they bargain for. "By their fruits ye shall know them," but we are happy to be able to say that Mr. Rice will give you seeds which will bring forth good fruit. Call on him.

Dr. Kingsley, of Rome, justly celebrated for the many cures he has effected of that most distressing disease, Cancer, publishes a notice on page 1. He is prepared to treat all scrofulous diseases, and others of long standing, and assures his patients that they will not be charged a heavy bill and dismissed without receiving any benefit. Persons who cannot conveniently call upon him in person, can address him by letter, and will receive prompt attention. Dr. K. is a graduate, with an experience of over fourteen years in the practice of medicine. Let the afflicted give him a call.

Walter A. Wood's Reaping and Mowing Machines, advertised inside first cover, have been before the country for several years. These machines have been brought to a great degree of perfection, and the immense sales have compelled the manufacturers to enlarge their works from time to time, until they have become the largest in the world. The demand for this and foreign countries is constantly increasing, and the Medals and First Premiums that have been awarded these Machines in England, France and America, far surpass those received by any other machine. Over 120,000 of them have already been sold. They are manufactured at Hoosick Falls, N. Y., by the Walter A. Wood Mowing and Reaping Machine Company. Their manufactory was destroyed by fire in March 1870, and before the remains were sold, the plan for a new building was arranged, and in less than two weeks, work was commenced in the new building. The facilities for manufacturing are such that one hundred machines can be made daily.

The Reynolds Steel Tempering Works Reynolds, Barber & Co., Proprietors, at Auburn, are largely engaged in the manufacture of Reaper and Mower Knives, Plane Irons, Chisels &c. The process by which they temper steel is a peculiar one, and as patented by Mr. Reynolds, is the result of over forty years labor. This gentleman always worked on the plan that tempering steel was simply changing it from a fibrous to a granular state. He certainly has succeeded in producing a finer granulation (temper) than has ever before been produced. Messrs. Reynolds, Barber & Co. control the patents for these processes, and are applying them successfully in all their manufactures.— Their establishment is capable of turning out an immense amount of work, yet their orders are now, and have been for some months, accumulating far in advance of their present ability to supply; a circumstance which they will not long allow to be the case. We predict that the time is not far distant when all Mower and Reaper Factories and farmers will use their improved sections. See their advertisement on page 6.

PUBLISHER'S NOTICES.

Clapp & Wilder, Broadway, corner of Second Street, Troy, N. Y., keep a large and well selected stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods, a large part of which are of their own manufacture. "The Eureka Shirt" is made by this firm, and is one of the best fitting shirts to be found in the market. All of their goods are made from good stock and will give abundant satisfaction to all who purchase. They manufacture to order and warrant fits. Gentlemen will find it for their advantage to call before purchasing elsewhere. See colored page 70.

The New Light.—That anything new in the line of Cooking Stoves should be invented, that is really worthy to take the place of the many that have hitherto been before the public, is indeed a wonder. We have not the space to give the full description of the many excellent qualities of the New Light Cooking Stove, but from an examination of its new features and from the recommendations of those who have tested it, we are satisfied that it is destined to become a general favorite. It is manufactured by Buswell, Durant & Co., Troy, N. Y., and is advertised on colored page 69.

Dr. La Croix, No. 31 Maiden Lane, Albany, N. Y., advertises on page 188. Dr. L. R. Herrick, formerly of Albany, having retired from business, has made arrangements with Dr. La Croix to attend to his correspondence and treat his patients. Dr. La Croix has had an extensive practice and his past success is a sufficient guaranty for the future. Those interested will find all needed information by referring to his advertisement.

Harrington & Everson, Marble Dealers, at Saratoga Springs, publish an illustrated card on page 148. They keep a fine stock of Marble and other stone, and are prepared to execute any kind of Cemetery work in the best manner. Mantles, Table Tops, and other furniture is made to order. No better materials or more competent workmen can be found for anything in their line. Call and see them.

E. M. Baldwin, Architect and Builder, and manufacturer of Sash, Doors and Blinds, at Saratoga Springs, has had extensive experience, and at Saratoga and elsewhere may be found abundant evidence of his ability to suit his customers. See card on page 118.

Bennett & Jamelson, Gas and Steam Fitters, Division Street, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., have all the facilities for inserting pipes in Churches, Factories, Hotels, Houses, &c., in the best manner. They will execute all work in country or city, and warrant satisfaction in all cases. Judging from their reputation where best known, we inter that our readers will not be able to do better than patronize them. They advertise on page 142.

The Buckeye Mowing and Reaping Machine.—When the great U. S. Trial of Mowers and Reapers was held at Syracuse in 1857, this admirable machine, which had just been brought out, surprised every body by its novelty and many excellencies, and won the highest awards. At that time the valuable patents under which it was built were secured for several States by the enterprising firm which now continues its manufacture, Adriance, Platt & Co. At the second great trial of Mowers and Reapers, made by the N. Y. State Agricultural Society in 1866, the Buckeye again carried off the highest honors, showing that in the years intervening it had not gone backward in the race for superiority. Every new suggestion is thoroughly weighed, improvements only are adopted. The verdict of the people is nearly as unanimous as that of the learned and practical committees who made these awards, for its sales far exceed those of any other machine in the sections supplied by Adriance, Platt & Co. In fact they increase so fast, that the demand is almost always in excess of the supply. The Self-Raking Attachment on the Buckeye Machine has met with a success corresponding to that of the Mower, and has surpassed all others in the perfection of its operation. One great secret of the success of Adriance Platt & Co., as manufacturers, has been in the conscientious manner in which they have built their machines, and the great durability of the Buckeye machine has been largely due to the excellence of the material used and the mechanical perfection of the workmanship. See advertisement on Map.

S. B. Bushnell & Son's Carpet Ware Rooms, No. 136 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., are well stocked with a fine assortment of Carpets, Oil Cloths, Mats, &c., which they are selling at prices which must astonish those who have been paying the high prices that are sometimes asked for those goods. Everything usually found in a first class Carpet Store can be found here. Country dealers and others will find it to their advantage to call on S. B. Bushnell & Son's before purchasing elsewhere. As enterprising and fair-dealing men, who are determined to do justice to their customers, we commend them to the patronage of our readers. Their advertisement appears on page 130.

Mark M. Cohn, No. 96 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, sells Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Dress, Cloak and other Trimmings of the latest styles, as they appear in market, and his prices are so reasonable that his customers have a way of telling their neighbors of the great bargains they make at his store: the up-shot of which is, that "Mark" is doing a lively business. His card may be found on page 130.

Flagg & Frear, dealers in Dry Goods, Nos. 3 and 4 Cannon Place, Troy, N. Y., have enlarged and improved their establishment until it is one of the largest and best in Troy. It now occupies three floors, the lower one is devoted to heavy goods, the main floor to the usual general assortment of Dry Goods, and the upper floor to ladies' Cloaks, Shawls, Mantles, Laces &c., and to Jobbing. The general effect of this upper floor is very fine. The walls are beautifully papered in ornamental panels, the floors are covered with heavy velvet Carpets, and large Mirrors are so disposed as to give the best possible effect. The stock of goods is of the newest and most beautiful styles and patterns, such as are seldom seen outside of New York City. They do business upon the one price system and guarantee satisfaction or refund the money. The firm is composed of Mr. John Flagg, one of the oldest and most reliable of Troy merchants, and Mr. Wm. H. Frear, a younger gentleman, but thoroughly familiar with all the details of the business in which he is so extensively engaged. They publish a finely illustrated advertisement on page 256.

D. W. Andrus, resident manufacturer and dealer in Boots and Shoes, at No. 150 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., is prepared to boot his customers in the most satisfactory manner and on the slightest provocation. Let those who doubt it call and test the truth of our statement. Somebody is being booted on page 140.

"Howe" Are you in want of a Sewing Machine? Then call on J. M. Rhodes, the gentlemanly agent of the celebrated Eliza Howe Machine. Praise of this machine from us would be superfluous. Examine the medals on page 142.

D. Chesebrough, Rectifying Distiller, also dealer in Foreign and Domestic Liquors and Cigars, at Saratoga Springs. Dealers and others can here procure their supplies at as reasonable rates as can be found anywhere. See card on page 144.

E. P. Lawton, of Greenfield Center, manufacturer of Fancy Baskets, prints a card on page 126. We recommend him to the favorable notice of dealers who wish to stock up with choice goods in this line, and also to those who would buy for their own use or for their friends, a beautiful present.

C. H. Sturges, dealer in Hides, Leather and Findings, at Saratoga Springs, can supply goods in his line at the cheapest rates, and pays cash for hides, skins and wool. Give him a call. See card on page 261.

Brown & Avery, Tobacconists, at No. 13 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., are ever ready to favor their customers with a good smoke, or sell them a good Pipe and the best of Tobacco and Cigars that the market affords. Those who indulge in such luxuries will do well to give them a call. Dealers will find goods of their manufacture to be popular with the public. See advertisement on page 136.

Austin Hartwell, Harness Maker, Trunk Dealer &c., does business at No. 170 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., where he is prepared to suit the tastes of his customers in the various lines of goods kept by him. Call and see him if you would be fairly dealt with. He exhibits his enterprise by advertising on page 140.

Michael O'Rourke basks in the "Shades" at No. 113 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, N. Y. His Ales, Wines &c., are said to be of the choicest brands, and his Reading Room is supplied with the leading papers, immediately on their arrival. See card on page 140.

Miss H. A. Hoyt, at 110 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., exhibits fine taste in the display of Millinery, Ladies' Furnishing and Fancy Goods, to be found there at all times. The ladies of Saratoga and vicinity can save money by purchasing goods of Miss Hoyt. She advertises on page 140.

Zahn & Onderkirk, manufacturers and dealers in Furniture, at 171 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., offer to the public a large stock of Furniture of every description for Parlor, Chamber, Dining Room, &c. Persons wishing to furnish their houses, will find all desirable styles and prices that cannot fail to suit the most exacting. See card, page 132.

M. Adams, proprietor of the Livery Stable on Henry Street, between Caroline and Lake Avenue, Saratoga Springs, advertises on page 132. Mr. Adams keeps a good stock of horses and carriages, and those who have occasion to patronize an establishment of this kind, will find everything to their liking.

P. J. McCabe, Saratoga Springs, will be pleased to sell you Choice Family Groceries of all kinds, at prices that please you. Step in and see him when you visit Saratoga Springs. His card may be found on page 126.

Platt S. Clute, Agent, General Undertaker, at Saratoga Springs, will attend Funerals when desired. He has a first-class Hearse, and keeps Coffins and Caskets of the most approved styles on hand at all times. See card, page 174.

Geo. H. Fish & Son, Druggists and Apothecaries, No. 104 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., publish an advertisement on page 184. This firm has been so long and favorably known, (having been established in 1840.) that any commendation from us would be entirely superfluous. Suffice it to say that they keep always on hand a large and choice stock of Drugs and Medicines, Chemicals, Toilet articles and everything usually kept in a first-class Drug store. They buy strictly for cash, and directly from Manufacturers and Importers, and can therefore offer special inducements to customers. Particular attention given to prescriptions and family recipes.

Howe's Never-Failing Ague Cure and Tonic Bitters, and Howe's Concentrated Syrup, are prepared under the personal supervision of Dr. C. B. Howe, the proprietor, at Seneca Falls, N. Y., for ague and fever, and all periodic diseases, rheumatism, paralysis, etc. The "Ague Cure" has produced wonderful cures. The "Syrup," for the blood, liver, skin, digestive and uterine organs, has cured many cases of scrofula, cancer, tumors, goiter, salt rheum, scaldhead, and many other diseases too numerous to mention in this place. See card, page 20.

George V. Miller, Luzerne, Warren Co., N. Y., Druggist and Chemist, keeps a full supply of Drugs and Medicines, Stationery, Perfumery, Fancy Goods, &c. Lovers of the weed will also find here a good assortment of smoking and chewing Tobaccos, Snuff, Pipes, &c., while those intellectually disposed can be supplied with anything wanted in the reading line at the shortest notice. See card on page 180.

Joseph L. Lucas, proprietor of the "Saratoga Boot and Shoe Store," at Saratoga Springs, keeps a fine assortment of Boots, Shoes and Rubbers, in all styles and prices, to suit customers. Mr. Lucas is also sole proprietor of the "Great Russian Leather Preservative and Water Proof Dressing," which will effectually preserve the leather and keep out the water. If you want to see the Elephant, notice the card of Mr. Lucas, on page 180.

G. B. Harrows, "Mine Host" of the Merchants Hotel, corner of Caroline and Henry Streets, Saratoga Springs, makes his bow on page 126. Citizens of the County and others will find this house a pleasant place at which to stop.

Ralph Warriner, proprietor of the Phoenix Foundry and Machine Shops, at Saratoga Springs, prints an advertisement on page 172. We cannot enumerate all the articles made at his Works, but would say, that a large variety of Agricultural Implements, Mill Gearing, Castings and Machinery, Iron Work for Buildings, &c., may be had of him. He also manufactures a celebrated Corn Husker, said to be the best in the world. Corn growers will do well to examine this great labor saving machine.

P. N. Viele, Undertaker, Ballston Spa, N. Y., advertises on page 190. He keeps a fine assortment of Coffins and Caskets constantly on hand; also a Refrigerator for preserving corpses in hot weather. A good Hearse sent free of charge to attend Funerals. He gives his attention to all branches of the business and will attend Funerals at short notice.

Hull & Finch, Furniture dealers, at Saratoga Springs, advertise on page 174. Their store is stocked with a large variety of goods suited to this market, and as their prices will be as reasonable as the times will admit, our friends will doubtless patronize them when wanting goods in their line.

B. H. Hidley's Piano and Organ Rooms, No. 12 Mansion House, Troy, N. Y., are advertised on page 164 and foot lines. Mr. Hidley keeps a good assortment of Pianos and Melodeons, from some of the best manufacturers in the country, and sells at prices as low as the times will allow. He also keeps a general assortment of musical merchandise of every description, which he sells at wholesale and retail. Dealers and others will find this a good place to purchase all kinds of musical goods. Musical Instruments tuned and repaired at short notice.

Elmwood Hall, Dr. O. Ford, proprietor, is noted as being a pleasant Boarding House and home for those seeking after health. The Doctor is a successful practitioner, and will greatly aid patients who may need his help. One of the Saratoga papers says:

We have received a letter from the Rev. A. J. Frost, from Hamilton, desiring us to return his thanks publicly to the kind friends who ministered to him during his illness a few weeks since. We quote as follows:

"My profoundest gratitude instinctively turns to Dr. Ford, who seemed providentially called in the hour of greatest danger, and under whose skill and vigilance I was so suddenly relieved. What might have been the issue no human foresight can tell. Whilst God shall have all the glory of my restoration, still to him who held the disease in check, bringing the system under such perfect control, and sustaining me as it were from the jaws of death, my sincerest thanks are due. May the Great Physician of souls give to him and to us all the Elixir of Life, and may our hearts mantle with Eternal bloom. Yours respectfully, A. J. Frost." See card on page 144.

Saratoga has long been noted for the wonderful medicinal qualities of its mineral waters, and thousands to-day are ready to testify to their efficacy in curing disease and restoring health. Among the more noted are the Pavilion and United States Springs, which are situated in the valley, a few rods east of Broadway, between Lake Avenue and Caroline Street.

The location of PAVILION SPRING, being remote from the bank, where it rose through an alluvial deposit of over fifty feet in depth, rendered the process of tubing it difficult. But in 1839 Daniel McLaren, at great expense of time and labor, succeeded in securing it. The Spring is now owned by "The Pavilion and United States Spring Co.," represented in Saratoga by G. A. Pickering, and by whom the valuable improvements have been made. The shaft has been re-excavated ten feet deeper to the rock, the spring re-tubed, the course of the brook which flowed through the grounds changed, well-arranged walks laid out, and a tasteful pavilion built over the fountains. The shaft of the Spring having been carried through the hard pan to the rock below, has greatly improved the water. Its minerals have been nearly doubled in strength and increased in number, and the fountain now stands second to none for medicinal and commercial purposes in this justly celebrated mineral valley. This deep tubing will therefore secure a uniformity in the strength and quality of the water, which cannot be obtained in springs which are tubed near the surface of the ground.

UNITED STATES SPRING.—On arriving at the extreme depth of fifty feet in the Pavilion shaft, a new spring flowed into the excavation from the east, on the opposite side from the ingress of the Pavilion fountain. This new vein of mineral water, on examination, was found to contain so many and such important mineral ingredients, that it was decided to tube it in conjunction with the Pavilion Spring. It was carefully secured, and is now in full flow within ten feet in an easterly direction from the original spring, and included in the elegant colonnade recently built over the main fountain of the Park. It has been a source of great surprise to many who have drank from the two fountains flowing so nearly together, to find them so signally different in mineral properties. It should be borne in mind that mineral waters obtain their peculiar qualities from the rock strata over which they flow, or through which they pass, and therefore, when they rise to the surface, they must exhibit their respective differences, which they have severally obtained from the rocks during their subterranean flow. These waters retain all their medicinal qualities indefinitely when properly bottled, and are not injured by transportation. See advertisement on Map of County.

Saratoga Springs is one of the most thriving villages in the State. Its Mineral waters are becoming more popular every year, and the number of visitors for health and pleasure, every year, calls for enlarged accommodations. New hotels and boarding houses are being built, while the old ones are improved. Real Estate operations are increasing with other business. Among the largest agencies for the purchase and sale of Real Estate is the firm of William M. Searing & Son. Col. Searing, the senior member of the firm, is a native of Saratoga and is perfectly familiar with all portions of it, as well as the surrounding country, and his judgment on the prices of property is generally acknowledged to be reliable. A practicing lawyer, he has much experience as a conveyancer, and those wishing to invest in Real Estate or Rent Houses in Saratoga, will find the firm of Searing & Son fully posted on every point. To show that they are not lacking in public confidence, we would just state that the business was established in Jan. 1865, and the first year they sold $50,000 worth of property, since which time it has increased from $150,000 to $250,000 each year. They also do a general insurance and collecting business; but read their advertisement on page 234.

Simon D. Arnold, Surgeon Dentist, at Ball-ton Spa, advertises on page 261. He is prepared to perform all work intrusted to him in the best manner. Give him a call.

Baker's Power Press Printing Office is advertised on page 261. This is one of the most extensive Job Printing Establishments in Eastern New York. The Waterford Sentinel is published at this office, by Wm. T. Baker, editor and proprietor. It is an ably conducted journal, has an extended circulation and is a good medium for advertising, of which fact business men should take notice.

Adams, Putman & Reece, manufacturers of Ladies' Furs, and dealers in Hats, Caps, Trunks, &c., No. 3 Beaver Block, South Pearl Street, Albany, N. Y. We take pleasure in calling the attention of our patrons to this enterprising firm, feeling assured that all in want of any kind of goods in their line will not care to look further after examining this extensive and well selected stock. Customers will find them gentlemanly and honorable in all their dealings. They advertise on page 248.

Mrs. Geo. B. Strong, manufacturer of all kinds of Ornamental Hair Work, 115 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., advertises on colored page 305. Mrs. Strong has had some years experience in this business, and ladies of Saratoga and adjoining counties will consult their own interest by giving her a call. A variety of fancy articles and Perfumery always on sale. Her prices are as low as the same quality of goods can be purchased elsewhere. Call and see.

The Saratoga Sun. A. S. Pease, editor and publisher, is advertised on page 274. This Luminary "Shines for all" who patronize it, and they are many. It has a large circulation and is a good medium for advertising. Mr. Pease has facilities for doing all kinds of Book and Job Printing in good style and at short notice.

E. F. Lapham, Glens Falls, dealer in Iron, Copper and Wooden Pumps, Hydraulic Rams and Lead Pipe, has had twenty years experience in this business. He attends personally to the Fitting and Setting of Pumps. We commend Mr. Lapham to all who may need anything in this line, feeling assured that he will give satisfaction. Take a look at his card on page 260.

M. L. Buswell, Glens Falls, N. Y., prints a card on page 260. He manufactures to order and keeps on hand Guns, Rifles and Pistols, and deals in all kinds of Sporting Apparatus. Call on him when you want anything in his line.

The Grover & Baker Sewing Machine, advertised on colored page 221, has been before the public too long to need any recommendation from us. Its merits need only be known to be appreciated. While it does all kinds of work well, it is especially adapted to embroidery and to all work where it is desirable that the seam should be the same on both sides. M. J. Jenner & Co., 185 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, are the agents for this excellent Sewing Machine.

Adirondack Lumber Yard, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., is advertised on colored page 239. Messrs. Harvey & Co., the proprietors of this Yard, keep constantly on hand a good variety of Lumber and Timber, Sash, Blinds, Doors, and all kinds of Building Material. They also deal in Lime and Cement. We commend Messrs. H. & Co. to the favor of builders and others needing anything in their line, as we are sure they will be fairly dealt with. Call and see them.

Before purchasing a Piano, Organ or other Musical Instrument, call on E. H. Hidley, 12 Manston House Block, Broadway, Troy, N. Y.

Saratoga Water Cure, T. E. Allen, M. D., and N. Bedortha, M. D., proprietors, is kept open all the year round. It is situated in the center of the village of Saratoga, has advantages not to be enjoyed at any other, namely, its free access to the Mineral Waters of so many different kinds, and all of great renown in the cure of disease. One of the best Springs is in this Institution, and can be visited without exposure to the weather. Also its Hygienic Table, Gymnasium and Bowling Alley add greatly to the improvement, comfort and happiness of invalids. The buildings are new and well furnished; rooms large and well ventilated, and no pains will be spared to make this a first-class institution. The efficacy of water, as a remedial agent, is now beyond a doubt. Thousands of invalids can testify to its curative effects. The Bath Rooms are large, airy, warm and convenient for summer and winter, abundantly furnished with pure water, with a variety of Baths, such as Cold, Warm, Vapor, Hip Douche, Spray, Pouring, Sulphur Vapor and Electro Chemical, as the different cases may require. Persons suffering from Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, Pleurs, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Colic, Piles, Scrotula, Skin Diseases, Cramps, Sprains, Convulsions, Epilepsy, Depression of Spirits, Hypochondria, Insanity, &c. In fact, any disease where the organism is not destroyed is most certainly cured. We say to the afflicted, do not despair till you have made a trial at this Institution. Diseases of Females, which have baffled the skill of eminent physicians, receive special attention. Cases regarded as hopeless by eminent physicians have been restored to sound health by the remedies employed at this Institution. The Institution is kept for a Boarding House, as well as for invalids, in the summer. See card on page 152.

H. L. Todd, agent for the Florence Sewing Machine, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., advertises on colored page 222. This Machine makes a variety of stitches and can be used for a great variety of work to better advantage than most other machines. Judging from the commendations it receives from the ladies, we should say it is one of the best Sewing Machines made. We advise our readers to call on the agent, who will be pleased to give them all needed information and sell them a Machine besides. Mr. Todd also keeps an assortment of all the different kinds of Sewing Machines in Market.

W. H. Armstrong, Saratoga Springs, Practical Slate Roofer and Contractor, is prepared to roof buildings with the best of Slate, in the most durable manner and in a style to suit his patrons. He keeps a good stock of Slate, of various colors, constantly on hand, and is prepared to do work in any part of the country. Those acquainted with Mr. A. and his manner of doing work, need no recommendation from us. Let others give him a trial. He advertises on page 230.

The Bullston Democrat, W. S. Waterbury, proprietor, is published every Thursday at Bullston Spa. It has an extended circulation which makes it an advantageous advertising medium. It is a good family paper, its miscellany, local and general news columns being well sustained. This office also has facilities for doing all kinds of Job Printing. See card, page 192.

J. D. Stevens, Architect and Designer, Saratoga Springs, prints a finely illustrated advertisement inside last cover. The following complimentary notice of Mr. Stevens we take from the Daily Saratogian of December 7th, 1870:

"A MAGNIFICENT RESIDENCE.—A site for a summer residence has been recently purchased by the well-known millionaire of New York, Col. Price, and Mr. J. D. Stevens, of Saratoga, architect, is supervising the erection upon it of a magnificent residence, to cost upwards of $100,000. This splendid country place is located on Lake George, about two miles from Caldwell, midway between that place and Judge Cramer's delightful summer residence. The finest class of work is being put upon this house, and it will be, when finished, one of the finest residences on the continent, while every one knows who has visited peerless Lake George, that the scenery of that region is beyond compare. Mr. Stevens has several other fine residences in course of erection in Saratoga and elsewhere, among which we notice the new hotel at Glen's Falls, the plan of which exhibits a very handsome structure of brick and iron, four stories in height, 100 ft. high, surmounted by three towers and a Mansard roof. It will accommodate, when completed, at least 500 guests, and is estimated to cost $100,000. We also noticed in Mr. Stevens' office the plans of several very handsome dwellings, among them one for Jacob Hername, of Ellenville, Ulster county, French roof, brick, granite and iron. Cost $18,000. Another for John McElhone, of the same town, built in the Gothic style, of brick; Swiss roof and tower. A very stylish house. The residence of A. M. Smith, of Ulster Co., is also a noticeable structure, and is said to be one of the most thorough built houses in the country. Mr. Stevens is an architect of the very best class, and his work does not belie either his education or his reputation."

Allen Burdick, proprietor of Planing Mill and Lumber Yard, at Glens Falls, advertises on page 286. Mr. Burdick keeps a good supply of all kinds of Lumber, constantly on hand, and does Planing, Tonguing, Grooving, Turning and Scroll Sawing to order. He also deals in Sash, Blinds and Doors and makes Mouldings to order. Builders and others interested should read his card on page 286.

Habits of a Man of Business.

A sacred regard to the principles of justice forms the basis of every transaction, and regulates the conduct of the upright man of business.

He is strict in keeping his engagements.

Does nothing carelessly or in a hurry.

Employs no one to do what he can easily do himself.

Keeps everything in its proper place.

Leaves nothing undone that ought to be done, and which circumstances permit him to do.

Keeps his designs and business from the view of others.

Is prompt and decisive with his customers, and does not overtrade his capital.

Prefers short credits to long ones, and cash to credit at all times, either in buying or selling; and small profits in credit cases, with little risk to the chance of better gains with more hazard.

He is clear and explicit in all his bargains.

Leaves nothing of consequence to memory which he can and ought to commit to writing.

Keeps copies of all his important letters which he sends away, and has every letter, invoice, &c., relating to his business, titled, classed, and put away.

Never suffers his desk to be confused by many papers lying upon it.

Is always at the head of his business, well knowing that if he leaves it it will leave him.

Holds it as a maxim that he whose credit is suspected is not one to be trusted.

Is constantly examining his books, and sees through his whole affairs as far as care and attention will enable him.

Balances regularly at stated times, and then makes out and transmits all his accounts current to his customers, both at home and abroad.

Avoids as much as possible all sorts of accommodation in money matters and lawsuits where there is the least hazard.

He is economical in his expenditures, always living within his income.

Keeps a memorandum book in his pocket, in which he notes every particular relative to appointments, addresses, and petty cash matters.

Is cautious how he becomes surety for any person; and is generous when urged by motives of humanity.

Let a man act strictly to these habits; when once begun they will be easy to continue—ever remembering that he hath no profits by his pains whom Providence doth not prosper—and success will attend his efforts.

Take pleasure in your business, and it will become your recreation.

Hope for the best, think for the worst, and bear whatever happens.

A STORY WITH A MORAL.—A Connecticut exchange tells the following story of a boy who was sent from Croton, Conn., to New London, one day last summer, with a bag of corn. The boy was gone all day, and returned with the bag unopened, which he dumped on the floor. Said he—

"There is your corn, go and sell it, for I can't."

"Sold any?"

"No; I've been all over London with it, and nobody said a word concerning green corn. Two or three fellows asked me what I had in my bag, and I told 'em it was none of their business what it was."

The boy is not unlike hundreds of merchants who will promptly call him a fool for not telling what he had to sell, and who are actually doing the same thing on a much larger scale than did the boy, by not advertising their business.

TO THOSE WHO WRITE FOR THE PRESS.—

It would be a great favor to editors and printers, should those who write for the Press observe the following rules. They are reasonable, and our correspondents will regard them as such:—1. Write with black ink on white paper, wide ruled. 2. Make the pages small, one-fourth that of a foolscap sheet. 3. Leave the second page of each sheet blank. 4. Give to the written page an ample margin all around. 5. Number the pages in the order of their succession. 6. Write in a plain, bold hand, with less respect to beauty. 7. Use no abbreviations which are not to appear in print. 8. Punctuate the manuscript as it should be printed. 9. For italics underscore one line; for small capitals two; for capitals three. 10. Never interline without the caret to show its place. 11. Take special pains with every letter in proper names. 12. Review every word to be sure that none is illegible. 13. Put directions to the printer at the head of the first page. 14. Never write a private letter to the editor on the printer's copy, but always on a separate sheet.

CASH AND CREDIT.—If you would get rich don't deal in bill books. Credit is the "tempter in a new shape." Buy goods on trust, and you will buy a thousand articles that Cash would never have dreamed of. A shilling in the hand looks larger than ten shillings seen through the perspective of a three months bill. Cash is practical, while Credit takes horribly to taste and romance. Let Cash buy a dinner, and you will have beef-steak flanked with onions. Send Credit to market, and he will return with eight pair of woodcocks and a peck of mushrooms.—Credit believes in diamond pins and champagne suppers. Cash is more easily satisfied. Give him three meals a day, and he don't care much if two of them are made up of roasted potatoes and a little dirty salt.—Cash is a good adviser, while Credit is a good fellow to be on visiting terms with. If you want double chins and contentment, do business with cash.

BUCKEYE
 Mower and Self-Raking Reeder, the most Perfect Harvesting in the World.
 Advance, Platt & Co., 165 Greenwich St., New York. See Card on Map.

Excelsior Spring, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., A. R. Lawrence & Co., proprietors, is advertised with a cut of the Spring on colored page 240. The Excelsior Spring is at a distance of a little less than a mile from the village, and is situated in a beautiful valley, with large woods, high ground and fine scenery close at hand. The water is thought to be unequalled by that of any other in this world-renowned mineral valley. It flows directly from the primeval rock (through a tube fifty-six feet in depth,) and is thus obtained of great purity and excellence, and with a large amount of Carbonic Acid Gas, rendering it a most agreeable water to the taste and increasing its efficiency. The medicinal agents it contains are held in such perfect solution that the water will remain clear and free from sediment or deposit in any climate. The Excelsior Water is put up in Bottles, and is also sold on Draught in the principal cities of the Union, being shipped from Saratoga in Gas-tight Reservoirs, lined with pure Block Tin, and is forced from these Reservoirs without any change, precisely as it flows from the Spring. The Reservoirs are filled by Hydrostatic Pressure. The following Analysis of the Excelsior Spring Water was made by R. L. Allen, M. D., of Saratoga Springs:—

TO LADIES.

MRS. EMMA BURLEIGH, M. D.,

From a long practice and intimate acquaintance with the diseases and peculiarities of her sex, believes that she can, in almost any case, relieve the suffering and restore health. All maladies of the UTERUS, (Prolapsus, Leucorrhœa, Ulceration, &c.) yield readily to Chrono Thermal Remedies. Entire PROLAPSUS has been cured in three weeks, and in an aged subject. LEUCORRHEA, the general and insidious destroyer of women's strength and beauty, is invariably overcome by our treatment. In all diseases of woman, from whatever cause and the longest standing, we have the most marked success.

There is so much connected with this subject of woman's health, that all women should consult a physician, herself a woman and conversant with all the improvements and discoveries of science. The preservation of woman's beauty should be an object of scientific care, and is one of which American women are very ignorant. Mrs. BURLEIGH, while in Europe, made herself familiar with the habits and customs of distinguished women in France and elsewhere.

Mrs. BURLEIGH removes all obstructions to the Monthly Courses at one interview. An elegant and strictly private home for those desiring Board and Nursing. Ladies attended in confinement or provided with medical care and nursing in Mrs. B.'s house.

Painful Menstruation is relieved in all cases. Catarrh, so often pronounced incurable, and Bronchitis, Spinal Diseases and Neuralgia, are entirely overcome by Chrono Thermal treatment after years of ineffectual trial of the ordinary practice. Ladies suffer no pain in severe labors under our care. Mrs. Burleigh spent four years in France in the study of Midwifery, and the various modes of treating female diseases, in which the French are so superior.

Mrs. BURLEIGH can be consulted by letter, but all letters must contain one dollar to insure attention. Address, Dr. Emma Burleigh, 62 Howard Street, Albany, N. Y.

Opinion of the Press.—Mrs. BURLEIGH is a lady of the finest intellectual powers and very uncommon literary attainments, and, as she has had very great advantages in the study and practice of medicine, both in this country and Europe, we cannot doubt that she is a skillful physician. She is one of the most accomplished of the daughters of Virginia.—[Editor Louisville Journal.]

Vandenburgh & Hovey, manufacture Sash, Doors, Blinds, &c., at Ballston Spa. They use only the best of Kiln-dried lumber in the manufacture of their goods, and warrant all their work. See card on page 230.

S. B. Howland, of Schuylerville, prints a finely illustrated card on page 226. Mr. Howland is at all times prepared to supply his customers with the best quality of Drugs, Paints, Oils, Dye Stuffs, Perfumery, &c., to be found in the market, and at as reasonable rates as they can be procured anywhere in the country. Those interested should not fail to give him a call.

H. L. Gros & Sons, publishers of the Ballston Journal, Ballston Spa, N. Y., advertise on page 206. This paper has a large circulation, and consequently is a valuable advertising medium, of which fact business men will not fail to take notice. All kinds of Steam Book and Job Printing is here done in the best manner, at reasonable rates.

John Bazinet, Glen's Falls, does a general Blacksmithing business. Mr. Bazinet is a man who understands his business, and all work entrusted to him is promptly executed in a workmanlike manner. Try him. See card, page 274.

Before purchasing a Piano, Organ or other Musical Instrument, call on B. H. Hidley, 12 Mansion House Block, Broadway, Troy, N. Y.

C. W. Brown, Jeweler and Optician, Park Place, Broadway, opposite Congress Park, Saratoga Spa, N. Y., advertises on page 204. If you want anything in the line of Jewelry or Optical Instruments, we advise you to call on Mr. Brown before purchasing. Mr. Brown is also the proprietor of First Place Hotel and Crystal Spring. The Hotel is located in the most central part of Broadway, commands a fine view of Congress Spring and Park, and the most picturesque portion of Saratoga. Its internal arrangements are first-class, being prepared exclusively for the reception of a select company through the entire season. On the first floor rises, within an elegant colonnade, the limpid, health-giving waters of Crystal Spring, accessible from the end of the hotel. Many years ago there was a spring each side of the road running north and south through the village, but the one on the east side being the easiest of access was the most frequented, and as at that time they had no commercial value, the one was first neglected and afterwards filled up, built over and comparatively forgotten. Some two years since, Mr. Brown, having purchased the property, thought it worth while to look for the long hidden and forgotten spring. It was a great undertaking, as the ground had been filled in many feet, and its location was very uncertain, but after expending much time and money, he succeeded in finding and securing it so perfectly that the water is free from all impurities and clear as crystal. Call on Mr. Brown when you visit Saratoga, and try the Crystal Spring water.

P. Durkee & Son, Saratoga Springs, Bookbinders, Stationers and Engravers, keep on hand a good assortment of School, Miscellaneous and Blank Books, and Stationery. They also deal in French and German Fancy Goods, Lubin's Celebrated Perfumery &c. We advise those wanting any goods in these lines to give Messrs. Durkee a call, and we believe they will not regret it. They advertise on page 196.

M. Farrar, Saratoga Springs, manufacturer and dealer in Tolman's Patent Self-Ventilating Spring Beds, Hair, Moss and Horse Mattresses, and dealer in Feathers, prints a card on colored page 155. Tolman's Patent Self-Ventilating Spring Bed, is said to be a very superior article and just the thing for comfort. Mr. Farrar keeps an assortment of other kinds of Beds as well, so that you cannot fail to get suited. Let all interested call and see for themselves.

S. A. Rickard, wholesale and retail dealer in Wall Paper, Window Shades, Window Cornices, Looking Glasses, Pictures, Stationery &c., and manufacturer of Picture Frames, 179 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., advertises on colored page 137. Mr. Rickard keeps a fine assortment of all articles in his line, which he disposes of at the most liberal rates. Paper Hanging done to order. Ladies, Take Particular Notice.

THE REAL VELPAU FEMALE PILLS!

WARRANTED FRENCH.

These Pills, so celebrated many years ago in Paris, for the relief of Female Irregularities, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative obscurity from the fact that the originator, DR. VELPAU, is a physician in Paris, of great wealth, and has withheld them from general use.

In overcoming Female Obstructions, Falling of the Womb, Whites, Green Sickness, Suppression, Retention, Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on Slight Exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, &c., and will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and, although a powerful remedy, do not contain Calomel, Antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution.

No. 1.—There is nothing more certain to prevent female irregularities than Dr. Velpan's Female Pills. They will in all cases cause a return of monthly sickness, without which no unmarried lady can enjoy perfect health.

No. 2.—There is nothing like Dr. Velpan's French Pills for keeping the complexion fresh and entirely free from Pimples. The cause of which is that it regulates the entire female system.

No. 3.—It is said of the ladies of France, that, as a class, they are the handsomest in the world. With their rosy cheeks and black hair, who can help but think so? Dr. Velpan's Pills never fail to make the complexion of a healthy and rosy hue. Ladies, try them.

No. 4.—The ladies of America, from their peculiar habits, are said to be the most unhealthy in the world, also to suffer most when about to become mothers. Dr. Velpan's Pills are a great blessing to all ladies, as they regulate and assist nature.

No. 5.—Ladies who are suffering from certain complaints, known only to females, should at once get Dr. Velpan's Female Pills. They produce a most charming effect.

No. 6.—The real Velpan French Pills cure sickness at the stomach, vomiting and heartburn.

No. 7.—Dr. Velpan's French Pills are a benefit to the female sex, but ladies in a delicate condition should not use them if they desire an increase of family.

No. 8.—Ladies who are troubled with a sick headache monthly, should use Dr. Velpan's French Female Pills. They prove a sure and speedy cure.

Ladies can procure a Box, sealed from the eyes of the curious, by enclosing One Dollar and six three cent postage stamps, to
